CONTRACT FOR LARCH TIMBER.

Department of the Storekeeper-
General of the Navy, Somerset-
Place, July 18, 1835.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 20th of August next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering, into His Majesty's Dock-yard at Portsmouth,

100 Loads of Larch Timber,

of the growth of the United Kingdom, and grown on high situations.

The earliest time in which the person tendering will undertake to deliver the timber must be stated in the tender; and no tender will be received for a less quantity than 50 loads, nor for any grown in low situations

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £200, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR IRISH BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 20, 1835

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 24th of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

Irish Salt Meat, equal to 9,000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 9,500 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, seven eighth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in barrels, into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth Plymouth, and Cork, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1836, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of His Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

CONTRACT FOR BRUSHES, BROOMS, AND PENCILS.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, July 22, 1835

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 20th August next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering at His Majesty's several Dock-yards,

Brushes of various sorts,
Hair Brooms, and
Camel's Hair and other Pencils.

Patterns of the articles and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

Eligible Freehold Estate, Caversham-Hill, near Reading, Berks.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, by Ford and Sons (pursuant to an order of Mr. Commissioner Fane, made in the matter of Jacob Newberry, a Bankrupt), at the Crown Inn, Reading, on Friday, the 21st day of August 1835, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon;

A very interesting freehold property, situate on that much admired spot Caversham Hill, Oxfordshire, in two lots;

Lot 1 comprises a rural villa or cottage residence, called Spring Cottage, with veranda entrance, and a paddock of productive meadow land.

The house consists of an entrance hall, drawing room, library or breakfast room, with low Venetian windows opening to the lawn; dining room 22 feet by 17, opening to a paddock of meadow ground interspersed with shrubs and choice fruit trees; six bed chambers on the first floor, water closet, and attics.

The offices are convenient, well-arranged, and supplied with fine spring water, wine and beer cellars, and a detached newly-erected substantial 3-stall stable and coach-house, with granaries, loft, and sleeping room over, enclosed stable yard, and pump in the same; an extensive and productive garden, partly walled in. The premises are entered by a serpentine carriage drive, and present a most comfortable, gentlemanly, and complete residence, in a highly respectable neighbourhood, which is celebrated for the beauty of its scenery, salubrity of its air, and is within 2 miles of Reading. It is now occupied by the Rev. J. Morgan, but early possession may be had.

Lot 2 comprises a very convenient cottage (contiguous to Spring Cottage) containing 4 bed rooms, a sitting room, kitchen, pantry, dairy, and cellar; stable and chaise-house, wood-house and enclosed yard, garden, nursery ground, and orchard planted with choice fruit and other trees.

And an enclosure of meadow land, adjoining, belted by a plantation of firs, forest trees, and shrubs, all upwards of 11 years' growth.

The whole containing, by admeasurement, 3 acres, 3 roods; and 10 poles, be the same more or less.

This is a desirable spot for building a genteel villa residence. The land-tax is redeemed.

The premises may be viewed by tickets, 10 days previous to the sale, and printed particulars may be had of Mr. Whitmore, the Official Assignee, No. 2, Basinghall-Street; Mr. Chas. Ford, Solicitor, 35, Great Queen-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields; Messrs. Woodroffe and Lewin, Solicitors, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn, London; and of the Auctioneers, Market-Place, Reading.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Broadhurst, late of Macclesfield, in the County of Chester, Silk-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, or under the Fiat in Bankruptcy recently renewed against him, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate, on Monday the 24th day of August next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the House of Mr. Thomas Morton, the Angel Inn, in Macclesfield aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling or disposing, by private treaty, of the said Bankrupt's interest in two shares in the Coventry Canal Navigation, to such person or persons, and in such manner, and for such price as the said Assignee shall deem proper and adequate; and generally to authorise the said Assignee to act in the premises as he shall consider best for the interest of the Creditors, and to indemnify him for his conduct on the occasion; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Daniell, formerly of Trelissick, in the County of Cornwall, afterwards of the City of Bath, since of Michael-Church-Court, in the County of Hereford, and now or late residing at Boulogne, in the Kingdom of France, Copper-Smelter, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 4th day of September next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at Pearce's Hotel, in the Borough of Truro, in Cornwall aforesaid, to vote in the choice of a Banker of the said Assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying on a suit in equity instituted by the said Bankrupt before his Bankruptcy against the Right Honourable Edward Earl of Falmouth, for the performance of a contract entered into by the said Earl for the purchase, from the said Bankrupt, of an estate, called Trelissick, in the County of Cornwall, by filing a bill of revivor or supplement in such suit, which has abated by the said Bankruptcy; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any other suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Obadiah Newell Rutter, of Lymington, in the County of Southampton, Wine and Brandy-Merchant, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Friday the 21st day of August next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Office of Mr. James Brown, Solicitor, High-Street, Lymington aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of all or any part of the estate or effects of the said Bankrupt; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling any debt or debts due to or from the said Bankrupt's estate, or any dispute, matter, or thing relating thereto; and also to authorise and empower the said Assignees to sell, by public auction or private contract, the estate and interest of the said Bankrupt in certain letters patent, granted to him for having invented or found out "An improved process for generating heat applicable to the heating of boilers and retorts, and to other purposes for which heat is required"; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, the costs, charges, and expences which have been incurred in and about the endeavouring to effect a sale of the Bankrupt's stock in trade, and a compromise with his Creditors, previous to the issuing forth of the Fiat now in force; and further to determine if any and what allowance shall be made to the said Bankrupt, out of his estate, for the necessary support of himself and family, and for the attendance and services of the said Bankrupt in assisting the said Assignees, as will be then and there particularly mentioned; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 30th day of July 1835, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

RICHARD RANKIN, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Joiner and Builder, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
