AT the Court at St. James's, the 31st day of July 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" it is enacted, that, from and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, all persons who, in conformity with the laws now in force in the said colonies respectively, shall, on or before the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, have been duly registered as slaves in any such colony, and who, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall be actually within any such colony, and who shall by such registers appear to be, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, of the full age of six years or upwards, shall, by force and virtue of the said Act, and without the previous execution of any indenture of apprenticeship, or any other deed or instrument for that purpose, become and be an apprenticed labourer; and whereas, by the said Act it is further enacted, that, subject to the obligations imposed by the said Act, or to be imposed as therein mentioned upon such apprenticed labourers as aforesaid, all and every the persons who, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall be holden in slavery within any such British colony as aforesaid shall, upon, and from and after the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, become and be, to all intents and purposes, freed and discharged of and from all manner of slavery, and shall be absolutely and for ever manumitted; and that the children thereafter to be born to any such persons, and the offspring of such children, shall, in like manner, be free from their birth; and that, from and after the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, slavery shall be and is thereby utterly and for ever abolished and declared unlawful throughout the British colonies, plantations, and possessions abroad:

And whereas by the said Act it is provided, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury may raise the sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling; towards compensating the persons entitled to the services of the slaves to be manumitted and set free by virtue of the said Act, for the loss of such services:

And whereas by the said Act it is recited, that various rules and regulations are or may be necessary for the purposes therein specified, and that such regulations could not, without great inconvenience, be made, except by the respective governors, councils, and assemblies, or other local legislatures of the said respective colonies, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, in reference to those colonies to which the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council extends; and it is, therefore, by the said Act enacted and declared, that nothing in the said Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the enactment, by the respective governors, councils, and assemblies, or by such other local legislature as aforesaid, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, of any such Acts of General Assembly, or Ordinances, or Orders in Council, as might be requisite for making and establishing such several rules and regulations as aforesaid, or any of them, or for carrying the same, or any of them, into full and complete effect:

And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that no part of the said sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling shall be applied or shall be applicable to the purposes therein aforesaid, for the benefit of any person entitled to the services of any slave in any of the colonies therein aforesaid, unless an Order shall have been first made by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, declaring that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in such colony for giving effect to the said Act, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned; nor unless a copy of such Order in Council, duly certified by one of the Clerks in Ordinary of His Majesty's Privy Council, shall, by the Lord President of the Council, have been transmitted to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or to the Lord High Treasurer for the time being, for their or his guidance or information; and every such Order shall be published three several times in the London Gazette, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, within six weeks next after the date thereof, if Parliament shall be then in session, and if not, within six weeks from the then next ensuing session of Parliament:

And whereas, in order to carry into effect the objects of the said recited Act, an Act hath been passed by the Governor, Council, and Assembly of the island of Antigua, intituled "An Act for relieving the slave population from the obligations imposed upon them by the recent Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled 'An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for

"compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" and an Act hath also been passed by the Governor, Council, and Assembly of the island of Bermuda, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery in these islands, in consideration of compensation;" and an Act hath also been passed by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly of the Bahama islands, intituled "An Act auxiliary to an Act of the Imperial Parliament, intituled 'An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves';" and also an Act, intituled "An Act to provide for the payment of salaries to certain special magistrates, therein designated, and to repeal certain clauses or sections of an Act of the General Assembly, made and passed in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act auxiliary to an Act of the Imperial Parliament, intituled 'An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves';" and also an Act, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the General Assembly of these islands, intituled 'An Act auxiliary to an Act of the Imperial Parliament, intituled 'An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves';" and certain Acts have also been passed by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly of the island of Saint Christopher, respectively, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery in this island, and for the establishment of a system of apprenticeship for a limited time in lieu thereof;" "An Act for prescribing the powers and duties of special magistrates;" "An Act to divide apprenticed labourers into several classes;" "An Act to provide for apprenticed labourers during the term of their apprenticeship;" "An Act for prescribing the duties and regulating the conduct of apprenticed labourers within this island;" "An Act for prescribing the duties to be performed by employers towards their apprenticed labourers, and to enforce the performance of the same;" "An Act to regulate the removal of pre-dial apprenticed labourers from one plantation to another; to establish certain rules to govern the

TUESDAY, AUGUST 4, 1835.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 31st day of July 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" it is enacted, that, from and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, all persons who, in conformity with the laws now in force in the said colonies respectively, shall, on or before the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, have been duly registered as slaves in any such colony, and who, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall be actually within any such colony, and who shall by such registers appear to be, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, of the full age of six years or upwards, shall, by force and virtue of the said Act, and without the previous execution of any indenture of apprenticeship, or any other deed or instrument for that purpose, become and be an apprenticed labourer; and whereas, by the said Act it is further enacted, that, subject to the obligations imposed by the said Act, or to be imposed as therein mentioned upon such apprenticed labourers as aforesaid, all and every the persons who, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall be holden in slavery within any such British colony as aforesaid shall, upon, and from and after the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, become and be, to all intents and purposes, freed and discharged of and from all manner of slavery, and shall be absolutely and for ever manumitted; and that the children thereafter to be born to any such persons, and the offspring of such children, shall, in like manner, be free from their birth; and that, from and after the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, slavery shall be and is thereby utterly and for ever abolished and declared unlawful throughout the British colonies, plantations, and possessions abroad:

And whereas by the said Act it is provided, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury may raise the sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling, towards compensating the persons entitled to the services of the slaves to be manumitted and set free by virtue of the said Act, for the loss of such services:

And whereas by the said Act it is recited, that various rules and regulations are or may be necessary for the purposes therein specified, and that such regulations could not, without great inconvenience, be made, except by the respective golection of the revenues of stamps and taxes, and to amend the laws relating thereto.

CONTRACT FOR IRISH BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 20, 1835

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 24th of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

Irish Salt Meat, equal to 9,000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 9,500 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, seven eighth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in barrels, into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth Plymouth, and Cork, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1836, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of His Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork; will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-Place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

CONTRACTS FOR WINE, SUGAR, WHEAT, PEAS, SOAP, AND SALT.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 28, 1835.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 13th of August next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering the following articles into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, viz.

Wine, Spanish Red, 6000 Gallons; Sugar, the produce of the British possessions in the West Indies, 100 Tons; the above articles will be exempted from the Customs' duties; Wheat, Red, 2000 Quarters; Wheat, White, 400 Quarters; half of each to be delivered by the 3d September, and the remainder by the 24th September next.

Peas, 500 Quarters; Soap, Mottled, 20 tons; half of each to be delivered by the 27th August, and the remainder by the 10th September next.

Salt, White, coarse grained and stove-dried, 40 Tons; the whole to be delivered by the 30th September next.

Samples of the wine (not less than two bottles), and of the wheat and peas (not less than two quarts of each), must be produced by the persons tendering; and samples of the sugar, soap, and salt, together with the conditions of the contracts, may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and the tenders for wine and soap must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent on the value, for the due performance of the contracts.

Admiralty, Somerset-Place,
July 14, 1835

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 6th of August next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, they will put up to sale, at their Office in Somerset-place, His Majesty's ships and vessels hereunder mentioned, namely:

ROBERT ROBERTSON, Merchant, in Perth, hereby intimates, that he has been appointed and confirmed Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said James M'Gregor; that the Sheriff of Perthshire has fixed Tuesday the 18th day of August and Tuesday the 1st day of September, both next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon each day, within the Sheriff-Court-Room of Perth, for the public examination of the Bankrupt and others connected with his affairs. And that a general meeting of the Creditors will be held within the Office of George Gray, Writer, No. 12, South-Street, Perth, on Wednesday the 2d day of the said month of September, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon; and another meeting, at the same place and hour, on Wednesday the 16th day of the said month of September, for electing Commissioners, and for other purposes specified in the Statute. The Trustee hereby further requires all Creditors to lodge their claims, and vouchers or grounds of debt, with oaths to the verity thereof, in his hands, at or previous to the first of the said meetings; certifying to such as shall fail to do so, betwixt and the 30th day of April 1836, that they shall have no share in the first dividend.

Notice to the Creditors of the now deceased Robert Leith, late Grazier and Cattle and Stock-Dealer, at Culgow, in the Parish of Loth, and County of Sutherland.

July 31, 1835.

THE Trustee and Commissioners on the sequestrated estate of the said Robert Leith, hereby request a general meeting of the Creditors to be held within Duncan's Inn, at Golspie, in the County of Sutherland, on Wednesday the 19th day of August next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of finally deciding and giving directions to the Trustee on the following points:—

1st. Whether the Creditors shall accept of an offer made by the Widow and the Trustees named in the marriage contract of the Bankrupt, agreeing to renounce all right to the lease of Culgow, on the Creditors authorising them to receive payment from the Insurance Office of the sum of £600, payable under the policy on the Bankrupt's life.

And 2d. Whether the Creditors shall rescind the resolution adopted at the last general meeting, of continuing the possession and management of the Farm of Culgow, and of carrying on and subsetting the same, provided the Creditors accept of the offer above mentioned.
