FRIDAY, AUGUST 7, 1835.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 31st day of July 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" it is enacted, that, from and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, all persons who, in conformity with the laws now in force in the said colonies respectively, shall, on or before the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, have been duly registered as slaves in any such colony, and who, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall be actually within any such colony, and who shall by such registers appear to be, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, of the full age of six years or upwards, shall, by force and virtue of the said Act, and without the previous execution of any indenture of apprenticeship, or any other deed or instrument for that purpose, become and be an apprenticed labourer; and whereas, by the said Act it is further enacted, that, subject to the obligations imposed by the said Act, or to be imposed as therein mentioned upon such apprenticed labourers as aforesaid, all and every the persons who, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall be holden in slavery within any such British colony as aforesaid shall, upon, and from, and after the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, become and be, to all intents and purposes, freed and discharged of and from all manner of slavery, and shall be absolutely and for ever manumitted; and that the children thereafter to be born to any such persons, and the offspring of such children, shall, in like manner, be free from their birth; and that, from and after the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, slavery shall be and is thereby utterly and for ever abolished and declared unlawful throughout the British colonies, plantations, and possessions abroad:

And whereas by the said Act it is provided, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury may raise the sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling, towards compensating the persons entitled to the services of the slaves to be manumitted and set free by virtue of the said Act, for the loss of such services:

And whereas by the said Act it is recited, that various rules and regulations are or may be necessary for the purposes therein specified and that such regulations could not without great inconvenience, be made, except by the respective governors, councils, and assemblies, or other local legislatures of the said respective colonies, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council; in reference to those colonies to which the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council extends; and it is, therefore, by the said Act enacted and declared, that nothing in the said Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the enactment, by the respective governors, councils, and assemblies, or by such other local legislature as aforesaid, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, of any such Acts of General Assembly, or Ordinances, or Orders in Council, as might be requisite for making and establishing such several rules and regulations as aforesaid, or any of them, or for carrying the same, or any of them, into full and complete effect:

And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that no part of the said sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling shall be applied or shall be applicable to the purposes therein aforesaid, for the benefit of any person entitled to the services of any slave in any of the colonies therein aforesaid, unless an Order shall have been first made by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, declaring that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in such colony for giving effect to the said Act, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned; nor unless a copy of such Order in Council, duly certified by one of the Clerks in Ordinary of His Majesty's Privy Council, shall, by the Lord President of the Council, have been transmitted to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or to the Lord High Treasurer for the time being, for their or his guidance or information; and every such Order shall be published three several times in the London Gazette, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, within six weeks next after the date thereof, if Parliament shall be then in session, and if not, within six weeks from the then next ensuing session of Parliament:

And whereas, in order to carry into effect the objects of the said recited Act, an Act hath been passed by the Governor, Council, and Assembly of the island of Antigua, intituled "An Act for relieving the slave population from the obligations imposed upon them by the recent Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled 'An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for

"compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" and an Act hath also been passed by the Governor, Council, and Assembly of the island of Bermuda, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery in these islands, in consideration of compensation;" and an Act hath also been passed by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly of the Bahama islands, intituled "An Act auxiliary to an Act of the Imperial Parliament, intituled 'An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves';" and also an Act, intituled "An Act to provide for the payment of salaries to certain special magistrates, therein designated, and to repeal certain clauses or sections of an Act of the General Assembly, made and passed in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act auxiliary to an Act of the Imperial Parliament, intituled 'An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves';" and also an Act, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the General Assembly of these islands, intituled 'An Act auxiliary to an Act of the Imperial Parliament, intituled 'An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves';" and certain Acts have also been passed by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly of the island of Saint Christopher, respectively, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery in this island, and for the establishment of a system of apprenticeship for a limited time in lieu thereof;" "An Act for prescribing the powers and duties of special magistrates;" "An Act to divide apprenticed labourers into several classes;" "An Act to provide for apprenticed labourers during the term of their apprenticeship;" "An Act for prescribing the duties and regulating the conduct of apprenticed labourers within this island;" "An Act for prescribing the duties to be performed by employers towards their apprenticed labourers, and to enforce the performance of the same;" "An Act to regulate the removal of pre-dial apprenticed labourers from one plantation to another; to establish certain rules to govern the “ sale of the services of all classes of apprenticed labourers, and the disposition thereof by will, as well as to regulate the descent of the same in cases of intestacy;” “ An Act for dividing this island into districts, and for establishing a sufficient police within the same;” “ An Act to punish apprenticed labourers for offences against the public welfare;” and “ An Act to regulate the dissolution of apprenticeship by the voluntary act of the employer, and to compel such dissolution in cases where the labourer is able and willing to purchase his or her discharge from apprenticeship;” and also an Act, intituled “ An Act to extend to the island of Anguilla the several Acts passed by the island of Saint Christopher, pursuant to an Act of Parliament, made in the third and fourth years of William Fourth, intituled “ An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies;” “ for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;” except as hereinafter provided; and an Act hath also been passed by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly of the island of Dominica, intituled “ An Act for the abolition of slavery in this island, in consideration of compensation; and for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves;” and an Act hath also been passed by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Assembly of the island of Grenada, intituled “ An Act for carrying into effect the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the third and fourth years of His present Majesty King William the Fourth, for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies;” and also an Act, intituled “ An Act to amend an Act, intituled ‘ An Act for carrying into effect the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of His present Majesty King William the Fourth, for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies, and to make further provisions for the purposes in the said Act mentioned;’” and three several Orders have also been made by His Majesty in Council, for carrying into effect in the respective colonies of Saint Lucia, Trinidad, and Mauritius the provisions of the said recited Act of Parliament; and an Ordinance hath also been made and passed by the Governor and Legislative Council of the Cape of Good Hope, intituled “ An Ordinance for giving due effect to

“ the provisions of an Act of Parliament, passed in the third and fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled ‘ An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves:’”

And whereas it is considered by His Majesty in Council, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the respective islands and colonies of Antigua, Bermuda, Bahamas, St. Christopher, Dominica, Grenada, St. Lucia, Trinidad, Mauritius, and the Cape of Good Hope, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Act:

His Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare, and it is hereby declared, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the several and respective islands and colonies of Antigua, Bermuda, Bahamas, St. Christopher, Dominica, Grenada, St. Lucia, Trinidad, Mauritius, and the Cape of Good Hope, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament by such further and supplementary enactments as therein are mentioned:

And the Right Honourable the Marquess of Lansdowne, the President of His Majesty's Privy Council, and the Right Honourable Lord Glenelg, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

CONTRACT FOR LARCH TIMBER.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, July 18, 1835.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 20th of August next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering, into His Majesty's Dock-yard at Portsmouth,

100 Loads of Larch Timber, of the growth of the United Kingdom, and grown on high situations.

The earliest time in which the person tendering will undertake to deliver the timber must be stated in the tender; and no tender will be received for a less quantity than 50 loads, nor for any grown in low situations.

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-Place, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £200, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR IRISH BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 20, 1835

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 24th of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

Irish Salt Meat, equal to 9,000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 9,500 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, seven eighths parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in barrels, into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Cork, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1836, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of His Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

CONTRACT FOR BRUSHES, BROOMS, AND PENCILS.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, July 22, 1835

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 20th August next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering at His Majesty's several Dock-yards,

Brushes of various sorts,
Hair Brooms, and
Camel's Hair and other Pencils.

Patterns of the articles and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR WINE, SUGAR, WHEAT, PEAS, SOAP, AND SALT.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 28, 1835.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 13th of August next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering the following articles into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, viz.

Wine, Spanish Red, 6000 Gallons; Sugar, the produce of the British possessions in the West Indies, 100 Tons; the above articles will be exempted from the Customs' duties; Wheat, Red, 2000 Quarters; Wheat, White, 400 Quarters; half of each to be delivered by the 3d September, and the remainder by the 24th September next.

Peas, 500 Quarters; Soap, Mottled, 20 tons; half of each to be delivered by the 27th August, and the remainder by the 10th September next.

Salt, White, coarse grained and stove-dried, 40 Tons; the whole to be delivered by the 30th September next.

Samples of the wine (not less than two bottles), and of the wheat and peas (not less than two quarts of each), must be produced by the persons tendering; and samples of the sugar, soap, and salt, together with the conditions of the contracts, may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and the tenders for wine and soap must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent. on the value, for the due performance of the contracts.

British Linen Company's Bank, Edinburgh,
August 4, 1835.

THE Directors of the British Linen Company hereby give notice, that a Quarterly General Court of Proprietors will be held within their Office here, upon Monday the 7th of September next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, in terms of their charter.

Alexander Goodsir, Secretary.
