Foreign-Office, August 7, 1835.

Lord Ponsonby, His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Sublime Ottoman Porte, has transmitted to Viscount Palmerston, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, an official note, of which the following is a translation, which has been addressed to Lord Ponsonby by his Excellency the Reis Effendi:

(Translation.)

Official Note transmitted by his Excellency the Reis Effendi to his Excellency Lord Ponsonby, dated July 14, 1835.

Certain inconsiderate persons having committed acts of disobedience and rebellion in the neighbourhood of Scutari, in Albania, it has therefore become necessary to proceed to the punishment of these ill disposed persons for their misconduct; and there is no Government which is not anxious for the suppression of disturbances and revolt.

The Sublime Porte has decided upon the measures necessary for the punishment of the rebels, and has detached a sufficient number of ships of war of the Imperial navy, which have proceeded to blockade Boyana, Durazzo, Lésche, Morton, and Cavaia, places situated within a short distance of Scutari, and of which they may be considered the ports.

A suitable period has been fixed of thirty-one days, to date from the 31st of the present month of Rebuil-Evvel (namely, from the 17th July 1835), beyond which no merchant ship or other vessel shall be permitted to resort to the ports above mentioned; and in order to prevent all complaints which might arise from vessels repairing to the places in question, no vessel, with or without cargo, and of whatever nature the cargo may be, will be permitted to touch at those parts of the coast of Albania before mentioned, after the expiration of the period above stated, and until it shall please Divine Providence to put an end to the disturbances.

It being necessary to notify this blockade which we are about to establish, to the representatives of all friendly Powers residing at Constantinople, in order that they may make it known to the merchants and subjects of their respective nations with the least possible delay, and that the necessary orders may be issued, that no merchant vessel or ship of war be permitted to repair to the ports of which the blockade has been decreed; we, therefore, for that purpose, make known the same, by the present official note, to his Excellency the Ambassador of Great Britain.

*Church Commissioners'-Office,
August 4, 1835.*

THE following is a copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, assigning districts to the chapels of St Nicholas, Trinity, and St. James, in the parish of St. Bees, under the provisions of the 16th section of 9 Geo. 3, c. 134:

At the Court at St. James's, the 10th of June 1835 present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his or their consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his or their hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain, and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and whereas by the said Act it is further enacted "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish or extra parochial place into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches or parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division;" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 9th year of His late Majesty King George the third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act, or this Act, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which may hereafter be built, or acquired under the powers of the said Act, or this Act; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such Curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons; and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such Curate; and whether banns of marriages shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapel shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, or by any grant or bounty under the provisions of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that in the year 1831, when the last census was taken, the parish of St. Bees, in the county of Cumberland and diocese of Chester, contained a population of 19,238 persons; that there are, besides the parish church, nine chapels in the said parish, three of which are situated in the township of Whitehaven, and are called respectively the chapels of St. Nicholas, the Holy Trinity, and St. James; that the chapel of St. Nicholas affords accommodation for 1200 persons; that the chapel of Holy Trinity affords accommodation for 1500 persons; and that the chapel of St. James affords accommodation for 2000 persons; but there are not at present, in any of the said last-mentioned three chapels, any free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; and that divine service is regularly performed in the said three chapels:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to each of the said chapels of St. Nicholas, the Holy Trinity, and St. James, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such districts should be respectively named the St. Nicholas District, the Trinity District, and the St. James District, with boundaries as follows:

THE SAINT NICHOLAS DISTRICT.

The boundary commences at the high water mark, at the north west end of Duke-street, along the west side of Duke-street, and the boundary of the township of Whitehaven (including Love-lane-castle, &c.) to the east side of the turnpike road leading to Whitehaven: from thence, along the east side of turnpike and Lowther-street, to Scotch-street, the north side of Scotch-street to Carter-lane, the east side of Carter-lane to Queen-street, the north side of Queen-street to Roper-street, the east side of Roper-street, Market-place, and East Strand to the high water mark, and along the high water mark to the commencement at Duke-street, described in the plan accompanying the said representation.

THE TRINITY DISTRICT.

The boundary to commence at the Harbour on the west side of East Strand, along the west side of East Strand, and the west side of Market-place to the range of the west side of Roper-street to Queen-street, the south side of Queen-street to Carter-lane, the west side of Carter-lane to Scotch-street, the south side of Scotch-street to Lowther-street, the west side of Lowther-street and turnpike road to the boundary of the township of Whitehaven, and round by the separation line between the townships of Whitehaven and Preston Quarter, to the high water mark round by the fort and harbour (bounded by West Strand) to the commencement, as described in the plan accompanying the said representation.

THE SAINT JAMES DISTRICT.

The boundary commences at the high water mark at the north west end of Duke-street, along the east side of Duke-street, and in a direct line with the east side of Duke-street, until it intersects the township of Hensingham, and the extent of the borough of Whitehaven, so round by the township of Hensingham to the road leading to Scilly-banks; and from thence, by the parish of Moresby, to the high water mark, and along the high water mark to the commencement of Duke-street, as described in the plan accompanying the said representation.

That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be performed in each of the three above-mentioned chapels, and that the fees for the same should belong to, and be received by, the Ministers of the said three chapels respectively:

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Chester has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, in testimony whereof the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed the said representation; and humbly praying, that His Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into His royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to His Majesty in His wisdom shall seem meet:

His Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed divisions be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
