

Whitehall, August 4, 1835.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Paynton Pigott, of Archer-lodge, in the parish of Shirfield-upon-Loddon, in the county of Southampton, Esq. His royal licence and authority that he, and such of his issue as shall severally and successively become entitled to the possession of the estates devised by the last will and testament of Elizabeth Stainsby, formerly of Southampton-row, near Bloomsbury-square, in the county of Middlesex, widow, deceased, bearing date the 1st day of December 1802, may take and use the surnames of Stainsby and Conant, in addition to and after that of Pigott, and also bear the arms of Conant and Stainsby, quarterly with his and their own family arms, as well in compliance with a direction contained in the said will, as in testimony of respectful and grateful regard for the memory of the said testatrix; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that this His Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, August 8, 1835.

The Lords Commissioners for the custody of the Great Seal have appointed George Eades, of Evesham, in the county of Worcester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Admiralty, August 8, 1835.

THIS is to give notice to all whom it may concern, that Thomas Avery, of Padstow, bath, in pursuance of the Act of the 46th Geo. 3, cap. 153, given me notice, dated the 1st instant, of his intention to build a quay or yard before his yard, gardens, and dwelling-house, and the Custom-house of Padstow, for the protection of the premises.

THE following is a copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, assigning districts to the chapels of St. Nicholas, Trinity, and St. James, in the parish of St. Bees, under the provisions of the 16th section of 9 Geo. 3, c. 134:

At the Court at St. James's, the 10th of June 1835 present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his or their consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his or their hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain, and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and whereas by the said Act it is further enacted "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish or extra parochial place into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches or parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division;" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 9th year of His late Majesty King George the third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be law-
