A CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned for this day, the Knights Companions, in their mantles and collars, with the Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, assembled in the Green Drawing-room, at half past six o'clock, and being called over by Deputy Garter, proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign in the Royal Closet, the Senior Knights first, followed by the Officers of the Order.

Then, being again called over, a procession was made from the Royal Closet, through the Green Drawing-room (which was lined by the Prebends and the Naval and Military Knights of Windsor), into the Chapter-room, in the following order, viz.

The Lord Bishop of Winchester, Prelate of the Order.

The Lord Chamberlain of The sword of state, borne His Majesty's House- by the Marquess of hold. Ailsa, K. T.

THE SOVEREIGN,

followed by the Officers of His Majesty's Royal Household.

The Sovereign being seated in the chair of state, and the Knights Companions having taken their respective places, the Prelate, standing in his place, on the right hand of His Majesty, signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's royal will and pleasure, that two lineal descendants of His Majesty KING GEORGE THE FIRST should, in pursuance of the statute in that behalf made, be elected into the said Most Noble Order.

By command of the Sovereign, Prince George of Cambridge was then introduced into the Royal Presence, preceded by Deputy Garter and Black Rod, and, kneeling near His Majesty, was knighted with the sword of state, and retired.

The Knights Companions, thereupon, proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Prelate, were, by his Lordship, presented to the Sovereign, who was pleased to command him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that Prince George-Frederick-Alexander-Charles-Ernest-Augustus (now out of the kingdom), son and heir apparent of His Royal Highness Ernest-Augustus Duke of Cumberland, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

The Chapter then proceeded to a second election, and the suffrages being collected by the Prelate, and presented to the Sovereign, His Majesty commanded him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that Prince George-Frederick-William-Charles, son and heir apparent of His Royal Highness Adolphus-

Frederick Duke of Cambridge, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

The Prince George of Cambridge was, thereupon, received at the door of the Chapter-room, and conducted to the Sovereign, between the Dukes of Grafton and Buccleuch, the two Junior Knights Companions, preceded by Deputy Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion), and by Black Rod.

Deputy Garter, on his knee, presenting the Garter to the Sovereign, His Majesty, assisted by their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Cumberland and Cambridge, buckled it on the left leg of the Prince, the Prelate pronouncing the usual admonition.

Deputy Garter next presented, in like manner, the ribband with the George, and the Sovereign, assisted as before, put the same over the Prince's left shoulder, the Prelate pronouncing the admonition.

The Sovereign then gave the accolade to Prince George, who, having received the congratulations of the Knights Companions, retired.

The Chapter being ended, Deputy Garter again called over the Knights Companions, and a procession was made back to the Royal Closet, in the same order as before.

Her Majesty the Queen, Her Royal Highness the Landgravine of Hesse-Hombourg, Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cambridge, Her Serene Highness the Duchess of Saxe-Weimar, the Prince Ernest of Hesse-Philippsthal, the Officers of the Royal Household, and many persons of distinction were present at this august ceremony.

In the evening a dinner of state was given by the Sovereign, in St. George's-hall, at which the above royal, noble, and distinguished personages were present, with the Officers of the Order.

Their Majesties shortly after proceeded to the Drawing-room, where they were received by a party of Nobility and Gentry, specially invited on this occasion.

And His Majesty has been further pleased to command, that the said royal order and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

THE NEW HOUSES OF PARLIAMENT.

NOTICE TO ARCHITECTS INTENDING TO FURNISH DESIGNS.

Office of Woods, &c. August 18, 1835.

THE Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, &c. hereby inform such Architects, as intend to furnish designs for the new Houses of Parliament, of the following particulars, arising out of questions which have been addressed to the Commissioners from various quarters, since the notice which appeared in the London Gazette of the 21st, 24th, and 28th of July last:

I. As to the present temporary Houses of Parliament and the new temporary House of Lords about to erected.

A new temporary House of Lords is to be erected on the plot marked A. on a plan hereinafter referred to, and the present temporary house is thereupon to be vacated, it will then be required that one or both of the temporary Houses of Parliament and Offices be retained for use, until the new permanent Houses and Offices can be so far completed for occupation, as to admit of those temporary buildings being vacated.

II. As to the ground coloured yellow on the lithograph plan.

It is not intended that Architects should be prevented availing themselves of the ground coloured yellow, should they deem it advisable so to do.

III. As to the employment of the ground next to New Palace-yard, eastwards of the part coloured yellow.

The arrangement of this ground is discretionary with the Architects, as to building upon it or not.

IV. As to the space coloured brown on the lithograph plan.

If the Architect should require to carry out his new buildings over any portion of the space coloured brown, southward of Parliament-place, he may consider the passage so called, and the landing at the water edge to which it leads, as removeable to the southward of them, but the occupation of any portion of that space is to be considered optional.

V. As to the three perspective views.

It is compulsory upon Architects to send in three views.

Enquiries have also been addressed to the Commissioners of Woods, &c. as to the following points, relating to the interior arrangements of the old House of Lords:

VI. As to the space below the bar.

VII. As to the space occupied by the Throne.

VIII. As to the number of rows of benches on each side of the House, and the space between the front rows.

The plan herein before referred to will contain the arrangements of the ground floors, both of the old House of Lords and old House of Commons.

A copy of this plan will be delivered at this Office, free of expense, to any person who has been supplied with the lithograph plan of the sites of the Houses of Parliament, &c. on the applicant giving satisfactory proof that such lithograph plan has been so supplied to him, on and after the 24th of August instant, between the hours of two and four.

The party whose tender may be accepted will be required to pay forthwith into the hands of the Storekeeper of Woolwich-yard, a deposit of £25 per cent on the value of the boilers, and the remainder of the purchase money prior to their removal from the premises, which must be on or before the 31st instant.

East India-House, August 12, 1835.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That the East India mail of the 1st of March, which was dispatched to Alexandria by the Mediterranean packets, was delivered, on the 1st of April, to the Commander of the steam-vessel Hugh Lindsay, at Su z; and that the Hugh Lindsay sailed from Suez, on the 3d of April, for Bombay.

The Court is of opinion, that letters which have arrived, or may arrive, in Egypt between the middle of April and the middle of September, would probably have opportunities of expeditions transmission to India by country sailing vessels; but the Court have made no arrangements for the transmission of such letters in any way, and the East India Company have not the means of doing so

The Court issue this public notice, in order to remove any erroneous impression which may exist respecting the establishment of an East India mail through Egypt; and they think it necessary to add, that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, there are not any opportunities for the expeditious transmission to India of letters which may arrive in Egypt between September and April.
