TUESDAY, AUGUST 25, 1835.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of August 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" it is amongst other things recited, that it is necessary that various rules and regulations should be framed and established for ascertaining, with reference to each apprenticed labourer within the said colonies respectively, whether he or she belongs to the class of attached prædial apprenticed labourers, or to the class of unattached apprenticed labourers, or to the class of non-prædial apprenticed labourers, and for determining the manner and form in which, and the solemnities with which, the voluntary discharge of any apprenticed labourer from such his or her apprenticeship may be effected, and for prescribing the form and manner in which, and the solemnities with which, the purchase by any such apprenticed labourer of his or her discharge from such apprenticeship, without, or in opposition, if necessary, to the consent of the person or persons entitled to his or her services shall be effected; and how the necessary

appraisement of the future value of such services shall be made; and how, and to whom, the amount of such appraisement shall in each case be paid and applied; and in what manner and form, and by whom, the discharge from any such apprenticeship shall thereupon be given, executed, and recorded: and that it is also necessary, for the preservation of peace throughout the said colonies, that proper regulations should be framed and established for the maintenance of order and good discipline amongst the said apprenticed labourers; and for ensuring the punctual discharge of the services due by them to their respective employers; and for the prevention and punishment of indolence, or the neglect or improper performance of work by any such apprenticed labourer; and for enforcing the due performance by any such apprenticed labourer of any contract into which he or she may voluntarily enter, for any hired-service during the time in which he or she may not be bound to labour for his or her employer; and for the prevention and punishment of insolence and insubordination, on the part of any such apprenticed labourer, towards their employers; and for the prevention or punishment of vagrancy, or of any conduct on the part of any such apprenticed labourers injuring, or tending to the injury, of the property of any such employer; and for the suppression and punishment of any riot or combined resistance to the laws on the part of any such apprenticed labourers; and for preventing the escape of any such apprenticed labourers, during their term of apprenticeship, from the colonies to which they may respectively belong : and that it will also be necessary, for the protection of such apprenticed labourers as aforesaid, that various regulations should be framed and established in the said respective colonies, for securing punctuality and method in the supply to them of such food, clothing, lodging, medicines, medical attendance, and such other maintenance and allowances as they are, by the said Act, declared entitled to receive; and for regulating the amount and quality of all such articles in cases where the laws at present existing in any such colony may not, in the case of slaves, have made any regulation, or any adequate regulation, for that purpose; and that it is also necessary that proper rules should be established for the prevention and punishment of any frauds which might be practised, or of any omissions or neglects which might occur, respecting the quantity or the quality of the supplies so to be furnished, or respecting the periods for the delivery of the same; and that is necessary, in those cases in which the food of any such prædial apprenticed labourers as aforesaid may, either wholly or in part, be raised by themselves, by the cultivation of ground to be set apart and allotted for that purpose, that proper regulations should be made and established as to the extent of such grounds, and as to the distance at which such grounds may be so allotted from the ordinary place of abode of such prædial apprenticed labourers, and respecting the deductions to be made for the cultivation of such grounds from the annual time during which such prædial apprenticed labourers are hereinbefore declared liable to labour; and that it may also be necessary, by such regulations as aforesaid, to secure to the said prædial apprenticed labourers the enjoyment, for their own benefit, of that portion of their time during which they are not hereby required to labour in the service of their respective employers, and for securing exactness in the computation of the time, during which such prædial apprenticed labourers are hereby required to labour in the service of such their respective employers; and that it is also necessary, that provision should be made for preventing the imposition of task work on any such apprenticed labourer, without his or her free consent to undertake the same; but that it may be necessary, by such regulations in certain cases, to require and provide for the acquiescence of the minority of the prædial apprenticed labourers attached to any plantation or estate, in the distribution and apportionment amongst the whole body of such labourers of any task work, which the majority of such body shall be willing and desirous collectively to undertake; and that it is also necessary that regulations should be made respecting any voluntary contracts, into which any apprenticed labourers may enter with their respective employers, or with any other person, for hired service for any future period, and for limiting the greatest period of time to which such voluntary contract may extend, and for enforcing the punctual and effectual performance of such voluntary contracts on the part both of such apprenticed labourers, and of the person or persons engaging for their employment and hire; and that it is also necessary that regulations should be made for the prevention or punishment of any cruelty, injustice, or other wrong or injury which may be done to, or inflicted upon, any such apprenticed labourers by the persons entitled to their services; and that it is also necessary that proper regulations should be made respecting the manner and form in which such indentures of apprenticeship as aforesaid, shall be made on behalf of such children as aforesaid, and respecting the registering and preservation of all such indentures; and that it is also necessary that provision should be made for ensuring promptitude and despatch, and for preventing all unnecessary expence in the discharge by the Justices of the Peace, holding such special commissions as in the said Act mentioned of the jurisdiction and authorities thereby committed to them, and for enabling such Justices to decide in a summary way, such questions as may be brought before them in that capacity, and for the division of the said respective colonies in districts, for the purposes of such jurisdiction, and for the frequent and punctual visitation by such Justices of the Peace of the apprenticed labourers within such their respective districts; and that it is also necessary that regulations should be made for indemnifying and protecting such Justices of the Peace in the upright execution and discharge of their duties; and that such regulations as aforesaid could not, without great inconvenience, be made except by the respective Governors, Councils, and Assemblies, or other local legislatures of the said respective colonies, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, in reference to those colonies to which the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council extends:

It is therefore enacted and declared, in and by the said Act, that nothing therein contained extends, or shall be construed to extend, to prevent the enactment by the respective Governors, Councils, and Assemblies, or by such other local legislatures as aforesaid, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, of any such Acts of General Assembly or Ordinances, or Orders in Council, as may be requisite for making and establishing such several rules and regulations as aforesaid, or any of them, or for carrying the same, or any of them, into full and complete effect: provided, nevertheless, and it is thereby enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any such Governor, Council, and Assembly, or for any such local legislature, or for His Majesty in Council, by any such Acts of Assembly, Ordinance, or Orders in Council as aforesaid, to make or establish any enactment, regulation, provision, rule, or order which shall be in anywise repugnant or contradictory to the said recited Act, or any part thereof, but that every such enactment, regulation, provision, rule, or order shall be, and is thereby declared to be, absolutely null and void and of no effect:

And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that all laws made by His Majesty for the government of His Majesty's subjects in Honduras shall, for the purposes of the said Act, be as valid and effectual as any laws made by His Majesty in Council for the government of any colonies subject to the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council are or can be: and whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, His Majesty did, on the fifth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, by the advice of His Privy Council, make a certain Order in Council for carrying the said Act into effect within the island of Trinidad: and whereas by a certain other Order of His Majesty in Council, also dated on the fifth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, after reciting that it was expedient that the regulations for the government of apprenticed labourers should, throughout His Majesty's possessions to which the said Act applies, as nearly as might be, and having regard to the variety of local circumstances in such several possessions, be of one uniform tenour; and that the state and circumstances of society in the said settlement of Honduras were, in many respects, peculiar, and differed essentially from the state and circumstances of society as existing in the said island of Trinidad, and other His Majesty's colonies in the West Indies; and that, by reason of the variety and minuteness of such distinctions, it was necessary that provision should be made for the adaptation of the said Order in Council to the case of Honduras by some local authority, it was, in pursuance of the said recited Act of Parliament, and for carrying the same into effect within the said settlements of Honduras, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council for the said island of Trinidad should, save as thereafter mentioned, extend to, and be in force within, His Majesty's said settlement, at Honduras upon, from, and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four: provided, nevertheless, and it was further ordered, that it should be lawful for the Superintendent for the time being of the said settlements, by any proclamation or proclamations to be by him from time to time for that purpose issued, to suspend any part or parts of the said Order which he should consider inapplicable to the state and circumstances of society in the said settlements, and by any such proclamation or proclamations, to adopt the said Order in Council, or any part or parts thereof, to the state and circumstances of society in the said settlements: and it was thereby provided, that no such proclamation should in any respect be repugnant to, or inconsistent with, any thing in the said Act of Parliament contained: and it was further ordered, that the said Superintendent should transmit to His Majesty, or to one of His Principal Secretaries of State, copies of any such proclamations, for His Majesty's approbation or disallowance; and it was thereby also provided, that no such proclamation should, by the terms thereof, be made to operate and take effect, or to be binding upon His Majesty's subjects, within the said settlements, until the same should first have been approved by His Majesty, save only in cases in which it should appear to the said Superintendent, for the time being, that the delay incident to obtaining His Majesty's approbation of any such proclamation would subject His Majesty's subjects in the said settlements to serious inconvenience, in which cases any such proclamation might, by the terms thereof, be made to operate and take effect and to be binding upon His Majesty's subjects aforesaid, either from the day of the date thereof or from any such other time as should be therein for the purpose appointed, until His Majesty's pleasure should be known:

And whereas the said Superintendent of the British settlements at Honduras, in pursuance of the powers in him in that behalf vested by the last recited Order in Council, hath made and established certain regulations for adapting to the state and circumstances of those settlements, the provisions of the Order made by His Majesty in Council for giving effect to the said Act for the abolition of slavery within the colony of Trinidad :

And whereas His Majesty, having this day taken into consideration the regulations so made as aforesaid by the said Superintendent, hath been pleased to approve thereof : now it is hereby ordered by His Majesty that the said regulations shall be, and the same are hereby, confirmed and allowed :

And whereas it is by the said Act of Parliament, amongst other things, enacted, that no part of the sum of twenty millions sterling shall be applied or be applicable to the purposes in the said Act mentioned, for the benefit of any person then entitled to the services of any slave in any of the colonies in the said Act mentioned, unless an Order shall have been first made by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, declaring that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in such colony, for giving effect to the said Act, by such further and supplementary enactments as aforesaid, nor unless a copy of such Order in Council, duly certified by one of the Clerks in Ordinary of His Majesty's Privy Council shall, by the Lord President of the Council, have been transmitted to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or to the Lord High Treasurer for the time being : now, therefore, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers in His Majesty in Council, by the said recited Act in that behalf vested, His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, doth declare, and it is hereby declared, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the said settlements at Honduras, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein are mentioned :

And the Lord President of the Council, and the Right Honourable the Lord Glenelg, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Westminster, August 21, 1835.

This day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering certain Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to General Post-Office, August, 1835.

By an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to extend the accommodation by the post to and from foreign parts, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office," it is enacted—

After an agreement shall have been made with the Post-office of any foreign kingdom or state, it shall be optional with persons sending letters by post to such foreign kingdom, to pay both the British and foreign postage thereof, at the time of sending the same, or to send the same without payment of any part of the postage, or to pay the British postage only as heretofore.

Persons residing in such foreign kingdoms will have the same option with regard to letters addressed to the United Kingdom.

No letters liable to any foreign rates of postage can be sent or received free from the duties of postage, save and except the public dispatches of His Majesty's Secretaries of State to and from the British Embassies and Legations abroad, being bona fide on the public service.

The Postmaster-General is empowered at any time hereafter, at his discretion, to register letters and packets sent by the post, on payment of certain additional rates; but such registration will not render the Postmaster-General, or the Post-office revenue, liable for the loss of any such letters, or the contents thereof.

The above enactments will not take effect until after the necessary arrangements have been made with the post-offices of foreign countries, of which due notice will be given to the public.

The following enactments come into immediate operation:

The postage on letters between Dover and Calais, which was heretofore the same as between London and Calais, is reduced to six pence each single letter.

Letters by Private Ships.

The present rates of ship letter postage from the United Kingdom for places beyond the seas are repealed, and, in lieu thereof, letters, posted at the port from which the ship shall sail, are made liable to the reduced rate of eight pence, single; if posted at any other part of the United Kingdom, one shilling, single; and so on in proportion, to be paid at the time of posting the same.

Letters may be sent from any port, by any ship or vessel, to any place out of the United Kingdom, otherwise than through the Post-office, except by vessels carrying mails; but this provision does not extend to the inland conveyance of letters otherwise than by post, or to any collection of letters contrary to the laws now in force.

Letters may be sent through the Post-office by private ship or vessel, from any port or place in Great Britain or Ireland to any other port or place within the same, or either of them, on payment of a rate of postage of eight pence, single, in addition to any rates for inland conveyance. Persons desirous of availing themselves of this mode of conveyance must specify the same on the direction of their letters, or on delivering them to the Postmaster. The payment of postage at the time is optional with the sender.

Ship Letters—Ireland.

The ship letter laws in Great Britain and Ireland are assimilated; and the provisions of the former Acts of Parliament for regulating the conveyance of letters to and from the East Indies, at a reduced rate of postage, are extended to Ireland.

Letters to and from Great Britain and Ireland, by private ships, are liable to a sea postage of eight pence, over and above any inland rate, the previous payment of which is optional with the sender.

There is no alteration in the law with respect to letters brought into Great Britain by private ships, nor those sent to the Cape of Good Hope, the East Indies, and New South Wales.

Newspapers.

The rate of postage of three pence on each newspaper brought by private ships into the United Kingdom, from His Majesty's colonies and possessions beyond seas, is repealed.

Newspapers to and from His Majesty's colonies and possessions, by private ships, are liable to a rate of postage of one penny each. The postage on those from the United Kingdom is to be paid at the time of putting them into the post.

Newspapers to and from His Majesty's colonies and possessions beyond seas, by packet, are not liable to any postage. There is no alteration in the postage upon newspapers to the Cape of Good Hope, the East Indies, and New South Wales.

Newspapers to and from foreign parts by private ships, if to and from those countries which have agreed to circulate newspapers to and from Great Britain free, are liable to a postage of one penny only, to be paid to the master of the vessel conveying the same. Newspapers to or from those countries with which there is no such agreement, are liable to a postage of two pence each.

There is no alteration in the law with regard to newspapers conveyed to and from foreign parts by packet.

Newspapers from foreign countries, to be conveyed at the rates above mentioned; must be printed in the language of such countries. No newspaper must contain any enclosure whatever, or any writing or marks on the papers or the covers other than the address. Those from the United Kingdom must be put into the post within seven days from the date thereof.

By command of His Majesty's Postmaster-General,

Francis Freeling, Secretary.

CITY OF LONDON LAND AND ASSESSED TAXES.

August 22, 1835.

THE Commissioners appointed for putting in execution an Act of Parliament, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the land and assessed taxes, and to regulate the appointment of Receivers-General in England and Wales," and the several other Acts of Parliament relating to the duties of land and assessed taxes for London, will meet at their Office, in Guildhall-buildings, in the said city, on Tuesday the 8th day of September next, at twelve o'clock at noon, exact time, for the purpose of selling and disposing of the estate and effects belonging to James Metcalfe, one of the Collectors of the aforesaid duties for the ward of Bassishaw, in the said city, for the year 1833; and which estate and effects have been seized and secured by warrant of the Commissioners, bearing date the 12th day of August 1835, for recovery and payment of divers sums of money which have been received by the said James Metcalfe, of the inhabitants of the ward of Bassishaw aforesaid, in respect of all such duties, and which said sums of money the said James Metcalfe hath neglected and refused to pay according to the directions of the Act of Parliament in that behalf made.

By order of the Commissioners,

Richard Till, their Clerk.

THE Commissioners for paving, &c. that part of the parish of Clerkenwell called St. James's, do hereby, in pursuance of the direction in that behalf contained in a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, chap. 29, sect. 99, intituled "An Act for better paving, improving, and regulating the streets of the metropolis, and removing and preventing nuisances and obstructions therein," give notice, that they will, on the 24th day of October now next ensuing, pay off one other fourth part of the principal money and interest secured by an assignment, for which the sum of £2000 was paid into the hands of the said Commissioners by George Vance, of No. 27, Sackville-street, Esq.; and the said George Vance, or any other person or persons legally holding the said assignment, is and are hereby required to take notice that he or they may, on or after the said 24th day of October now next ensuing, receive and be paid the said other fourth part of such principal money and interest, by applying at the Office of the said Commissioners for paving, &c. Upper Rosoman-street, Clerkenwell; upon which said 24th day of October now next ensuing, all interest will cease to be paid upon the said other fourth part of the principal money secured by the said assignment. Dated this 24th day of August 1835.

Thomas Cromwell, Clerk to the said Commissioners.

CONTRACT FOR IRISH BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 20, 1835

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 24th of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

Irish Salt Meat, equal to 9,000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 9,500 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, seven eighth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in barrels, into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Cork, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1836, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of His Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

Waterloo Subscription-Office, Winchester-House, Old Broad-Street, London, August 21, 1835.

AT a Special Meeting of the Committee for the distribution of the Waterloo subscription, Sir Charles Price, Bart was appointed a Trustee, in lieu of the late William Manning, Esq. deceased.

John Clarke, Secretary.
