Whitehall, September 1, 1835.

The King, taking into His royal consideration that, upon the decease of Beaumont Baron Hotham, of that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, the title and dignity of Baron Hotham descended to his grandson and heir, Beaumont now Baron Hotham, as eldest son and heir of Beaumont Hotham, Esq. late Lieutenant-Colonel in the Coldstream Regiment of Foot Guards, whilst living the son and heir apparent of the said Beaumont Baron Hotham, deceased, and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the younger brother of the said Beaumont now Baron Hotham cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to him in case his said late father had survived the said Beaumont Baron Hotham deceased, and thereby succeeded to the said title and dignity of Baron Hotham; His Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare, that George-Frederick Hotham, Esq. a Captain in the Royal Navy, only brother of the said Beaumont now Baron Hotham, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence, as if his said late father, Beaumont Hotham, had succeeded to the said title and dignity of Baron Hotham:

The said meat is to be delivered, seven eighth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in barrels, into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Cork, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1836, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.
