TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1835.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th day of August 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the "Customs," it is, among other things, enacted, that goods of places within the limits of the East India Company's charter shall be imported only into such ports of the United Kingdom as shall be approved of by the Lords of the Treasury, and declared by an Order in Council to be fit and proper for such importation :

And whereas the several ports of Whitehaven and Waterford have, with certain limitations, been approved of by the Lords of His Majesty's Treasury for that purpose, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the ports of Whitehaven and Waterford are, respectively, fit and proper for the importation of goods from places within the limits of the East India Company's charter, save and except that such ports shall not be deemed fit and proper for the importation of tea until after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

St. James's-Palace, September 2, 1835.

The King was this day pleased to confer the honour of Knighthood upon Lieutenant-General Ralph Darling, Colonel of the 90th Regiment, late Governor in Chief of New South Wales, and Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order.

Office of Ordnance, 7th September 1835.

Royal Regiment of Artillery.

First Lieutenant Sir Henry Chamberlain, Bart. to be Second Captain, vice Hill, retired on half-pay. Dated 2d September 1835.

Second Lieutenant Anthony Benn to be First Lieutenant, vice Chamberlain. Dated 2d September 1835.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Nottingham.

Clumber Troop of Sherwood Rangers.

Edward Unwin, Gent. to be Lieutenant, vice Gervas King Holmes, resigned. Dated 29th August 1835.

Whitehall, September 1, 1835.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Frederic-James-Henry Smyth, of the Inner Temple, London, Solicitor, only son and heir of William-George-Henry Smyth, some time of Temple-Corran, in the county of Antrim, in Ireland, Esq. deceased

(by Eliza his wife, now Eliza Pearson), His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and henceforth use the surname of Temple, in lieu of that of Smyth, as well from motives of grateful and affectionate respect towards his honoured uncle, James-Frederic Temple, of Bala, in the county of Merioneth, Gent. (half brother to his said late father), as in compliance with an earnest wish signified by an instrument under the hand and seal of the said James-Frederic Temple:

And also to command, that this His Majesty's concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, September 5, 1835.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto John Gurdon, of Letton, in the county of Norfolk, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that he, having intermarried with Dame Mary Martin Ormsby Rebow, widow of Sir Thomas Ormsby, of Cloghans, in the county of Mayo, Bart. deceased, and only daughter and heir of Francis Slater Rebow, of Wivenhoe-park, in the county of Essex, Esq. a Lieutenant-General in the Army, may (in compliance with the wish of his said father in law) henceforth take and use the surname of Rebow, in addition to and after that of Gurdon, and also bear the arms of Rebow; and that the said surname and arms of Rebow may be in like manner used and borne by the issue of his marriage; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

ERRATUM in the Gazette of Friday the 4th instant.

Under the head of Circuits of the Commissioners for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, in the Southern Circuit, for Carmarthenshire, at Carwarthen, read Carmarthenshire, at Caerwarthen and Borough.

Shoreham-Bridge Tolls or Life Annuities, with Benefit of Survivorship, granted pursuant to an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for building a Bridge over the River Adur, at or near Old Shoreham, in the County of Sussex.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Subscribers to the said bridge may receive their dividends arising from the annuity of £1200, received from his Grace the Duke of Norfolk, up to May last, by applying to us, the undersigned, at our Offices, No. 8, Ship-street, Brighton, on or after the 29th day of September instant.

A certificate of the life of the nominee must be produced at the time of receiving the dividend, unless the nominees appear in person.

The Subscribers are desired to take notice, that if any person, entitled to receive any share of the said dividends, neglects to demand the same for three years or more next after it shall become due, every such person forfeits the arrears of the share so neglected to be demanded, and the same is to be divided amongst the persons entitled to the dividends of the same class.

By order of the Trustees,
Attree, Clarke, and M'Whinnie.

Brighton, September 4, 1835.

CONTRACT FOR IRISH BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 20, 1835

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 24th of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

Irish Salt Meat, equal to 9,000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 9,500 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, seven eighth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in barrels, into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Cork, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1836, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of His Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

CONTRACTS FOR RUM, COCOA, RICE, OATS, AND BLUE BAIZE.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, September 7, 1835.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 17th instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering the following articles into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, viz.

Rum, 75,000 Gallons, the produce of the British possessions in the West Indies, and of the various strengths as imported; Cocoa, 50 Tons; half of each to be delivered by the 10th October, and the remainder by the 31st October next.

Rice, 5 Tons; Oats, Scotch Potatoc, 275 Quarters; to be delivered within ten days from the day of tender.

Blue Baize, 3000 Yards; to be delivered by the 30th November next.

The Rum, Cocoa, and Rice will be exempted from the Customs' duties.

Samples of the cocoa and rice (not less than two pounds of each), and of the oats (not less than two quarts), must be produced by the persons tendering; and a sample of the baize, together with the conditions of all the contracts, may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and those for cocoa must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £25 per cent on the value, for the due performance of the contracts.

Admiralty, Somerset-Place,
August 27, 1835.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 10th of September next, at twelve o'clock at noon, the Admiral Superintendent will put up to sale, in the Royal Clarence Victualing-yard at Gosport, several lots of

Old Provisions, Biscuit Bags, Religious Books, &c. &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Admiral Superintendent for notes of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here and at the Yard.
