FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1835.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, September 11, 1835.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's Levees are discontinued until further orders.

St. James's-Palace, September 10, 1835.

THIS day His Majesty proceeded in state from St. James's-Palace to the House of Peers, where he arrived about two o'clock; and was received, on, alighting from his state coach, by the Lord President of the Council, the Lord Privy Seal, the Deputy Lord Great Chamberlain, the Lord Viscount Melbourne, Clarenceux King of Arms, in the absence of Garter, and the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

His Majesty was there robed, and having put on the imperial crown, the procession moved into the House in the usual order;—the sword of state was borne by the Lord Viscount Melbourne, and the cap of maintenance by the Earl of Shaftesbury, in the absence of the Marquess of Winchester.

His Majesty being seated upon the Throne, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, James Pulman, Esq. Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I FIND with great satisfaction, that the state of the public business enables Me to relieve you from further attendance, and from the pressure of those duties which you have performed with so much zeal and assiduity.

I receive from all Foreign Powers satisfactory assurances of their desire to maintain with Me the most freindly understanding; and I look forward with confidence to the preservation of the general peace, which has been and will be the object of My constant solicitude.

I lament that the civil contest in the northern provinces of Spain has not yet been brought to a termination; but, taking a deep interest in the welfare of the Spanish monarchy, I shall continue to direct to that quarter My most anxious attention, in concert with the three Powers with whom I concluded the treaty of quadruple alliance; and I have, in furtherance of the objects of that treaty, exercised the power vested in Me by the Legislature, and have granted permission to My subjects to engage in the service of the Queen of Spain.

I have concluded with Denmark, Sardinia, and Sweden fresh conventions, calculated to prevent the traffic in African slaves: I hope soon to receive the ratification of a similar treaty, which has been signed with Spain. I am engaged in negociations with other Powers in Europe and in South America for the same purpose, and I trust that ere long the united efforts of all civilized nations will suppress and extinguish this traffic

I perceive, with entire approbation, that you have directed your attention to the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, and I have cheerfully given My assent to the Bill which you have passed for that purpose. I cordially concur in this important measure, which is calculated to allay discontent, to promote peace and union, and to procure for those communities the advantages of responsible government.

I greatly rejoice that the internal condition of Ireland has been such as to have permitted you to substitute, for the necessary severity of a law which has been suffered to expire, enactments of a milder character. No part of My duty is more grateful to My feelings than the mitigation of a penal statute, in any case in which it can be effected consistently with the maintenance of order and tranquillity.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the readiness with which you have voted the supplies. You have provided, not only for the expences of the year and for the interest upon the large sum awarded to the owners of slaves in My colonial possessions, but also for several unexpected and peculiar claims upon the justice and liberality of the nation. It is most gratifying to observe, that not only have these demands been met without additional taxation, but that you have made some further progress in reducing the burthens of My people.

I am enabled to congratulate you, that the terms upon which the loan for the compensation to the proprietors of slaves has been obtained afford conclusive evidence of the flourishing state of public credit, and of that general confidence which is the result of a determination to fulfil the national engagements, and to maintain inviolable the public faith.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I know that I may securely rely upon your loyalty and patriotism, and I feel confident, that in returning to your respective counties, and in resuming those functions which you discharge with so much advantage to the community you will recommend to all classes of your countrymen obedience to the law, attachment to the Constitution, and a spirit of temperate amendment, which, under Divine Providence, are the surest means of preserving the tranquillity and increasing the prosperity which this Country enjoys.

Then the Lord Speaker, by His Majesty's command, said:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is His Majesty's royal will and pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the tenth day of November next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the tenth day of November next.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 9th day of September 1835.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" after reciting that it was necessary that provision should be made for the apportionment, amongst the proprietors of the slaves to be manumitted by virtue of the said Act in each of the said colonies respectively, of that part of the said compensation fund which should be so assigned as in the said Act is therein before recited to each of the respective colonies; and reciting that the necessary rules for that purpose could not be properly or safely established, until after full enquiry should have been made into the several circumstances which ought to be taken into consideration in making such apportionment; it was, amongst other things, enacted, that the Commissioners should, and were thereby required to, proceed to draw up and frame all such general rules, regard being had to the laws and usages in force in each colony respectively, as to them might seem best adapted in each colony respectively for securing the just and equitable distribution of the said funds amongst or for the benefit of such several persons as aforesaid, and for the protection of such funds, and for the appointment and indemnification of such trustees as aforesaid; and such general rules, when so framed and when agreed upon by the said Commissioners, should by them be subscribed with their respective hands and seals, and transmitted to the Lord President of His Majesty's Council, to be by him laid before His Majesty in Council, and so from time to time as often as any further general rules should be so framed and agreed to for the purposes aforesaid; or any of them :

And it was also enacted, that the general rules to be transmitted as aforesaid to the said Lord President should be forthwith published in the London Gazette, on three several occasions at least, together with a notice that all persons interested in, or affected by, any such general rules might, by a time to be in such notice limited, appeal against any such rules to His Majesty in Council ; and that it should be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or for any three or more of them, by any further notice or notices to be for that purpose published in the London Gazette, to enlarge, as to them might seem meet, the time for receiving any such appeals :

And it was also enacted, that, at the expiration of the time limited for receiving such appeals as aforesaid, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to confirm and allow, or to rescind and disallow, in the whole or in part or to amend, alter, or vary any such general rule or rules, though not so appealed against, as to His Majesty might seem just, or to remit such rules to the said Commissioners for further consideration and revision :

And it was further enacted, that, when and so often as any such general rule or rules as aforesaid should, by His Majesty in Council, have been confirmed and allowed, an Order should be made by His Majesty in Council reciting at length any such rule or rules, with any alterations or amendments which might have been therein made as aforesaid ; and a copy of every such Order in Council should be duly certified by the Lord President of His Majesty's Council, for the time being, to the Lord High Chancellor or Keeper of the Great Seal, or to the Master of the Rolls for the time being, and should be duly enrolled among the records of the High Court of Chancery, and should there remain and be of record :

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, His Majesty, by a Commission under the Great Seal, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of January in the fifth year of His Majesty's reign, did constitute John Bonham Carter, James Lewis Robert William Hay, James Stephen, Samuel Duckworth, John George Shaw Lefevre, Thomas Amyot,

Hastings Elwin, and Henry Frederick Stephenson, Esqrs. to be Commissioners of Arbitration for the purposes in the said Act mentioned :

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, the said Commissioners did frame certain general rules, which were transmitted and published, and were afterwards duly confirmed and allowed, in the manner prescribed by the said Act :

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, the said Commissioners did also frame a further general rule, for the purpose of providing for the payment of a certain amount of the compensation monies, which may be adjudged to belong to, or vested in, persons labouring under certain disabilities ; which further general rule, being subscribed with the hands and with the seals of the said Commissioners, were by them, on the twenty-seventh day of May last, transmitted to the Lord President of His Majesty's Council, to be by him laid before His Majesty in Council :

And whereas the said further general rule, so transmitted as aforesaid to the Lord President, has been published in manner and form in the said Act in that behalf required, together with a notice, that all persons interested in or affected by such further general rule might, within three months from the date of such notice, appeal therefrom to His Majesty in Council :

And whereas such notice bore date the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the said term of three months expired on the twenty-ninth day of August last, and no appeal has been preferred against the said further general rule :

And whereas His Majesty hath this day taken into consideration the propriety of confirming and allowing such further general rule :

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said further general rule, so made as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, confirmed and allowed :

And, in further pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, the said further general rule is recited at length in the schedule subjoined to this present Order ; which schedule His Majesty doth hereby declare is and shall be taken as part of this Order :

And the Lord President is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

SCHEDULE TO WHICH THE FOREGOING ORDER REFERS.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifth and sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales," it was, among other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, if he should think fit, by the advice of His Privy Council, to order any days and times before the first day of February next, for doing the several matters required or authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein before specified, or any of them; and that in such case all matters mentioned in such Order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such Order, as if the days and times mentioned in such Order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein before respectively mentioned in that behalf, and not otherwise; provided always, that nothing therein contained should authorise His Majesty to appoint any days or times other than were therein before specified, for any matters required or authorised by the said Act to be done, after the expiration of this present year:

His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, in pursuance of the power vested in His Majesty by the said Act, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows, that is to say:

Section 15.

His Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, does hereby order, that the overseers of the poor of every parish wholly or in part within any borough named in either of the schedules (A) or (B), to the said Act annexed, shall make out, and shall deliver to the town clerk of the borough, the burgess list according to the provisions of the said Act, on the seventh day of November in this year, instead of the fifth day of September as provided in the said Act; and that the said overseers shall keep a true copy of such lists, to be perused by any person, without payment of any fee, at all reasonable hours, between the said seventh day of November and the seventeenth day of November in this year, instead of the time between the fifth and fifteenth days of September; and that the town clerk shall cause a copy of all such lists to be fixed on or near the outer door of the town-hall, or in some public and conspicuous situation within the borough, on every day during the week next preceding the seventeenth day of November in this year, instead of the week next preceding the fifteenth day of September.

Section 17.

And His Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, does hereby order, that every person whose name shall have been omitted in any such burgess list, and who shall claim to have his name inserted therein, and every person authorised by the said Act to object to any other person as not being entitled to have his name retained in any burgess list, shall give such notice thereof respectively, as by the said Act is required, on or before the seventeenth day of November in this year, instead of the fifteenth day of September; and that the town clerk of every such borough shall cause copies of the lists to be made out by him of all such persons so claiming and so objected to, according to the provisions of the said Act, to be fixed on or near the outer door of the town-hall, or

In some public and conspicuous situation within such borough, during the eight days next preceding the first day of December in this year, instead of the eight days next preceding the first day of October, and that the town-clerk shall likewise keep a copy of the names of all the persons so claiming as aforesaid, and also a copy of the names of all persons so objected to as aforesaid, to be perused by any person, without payment of any fee, at all reasonable hours during the eight days (Sunday excepted) next preceding the first day of December in this year, instead of the eight days (Sunday excepted) next preceding the first day of October.

Sections 18, 20.

And His Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, does hereby order, that the barristers to be appointed to revise the lists of burgesses of the said boroughs, according to the provisions of the said Act, shall hold their courts as directed by the said Act, for the purpose of revising the said burgess lists at some time between the first day of December inclusive and the fifteenth day of December inclusive in this year, instead of the time between the first day of October inclusive and the fifteenth day of October inclusive.

Section 22.

And His Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, does hereby order, that the town clerk of every such borough shall cause the burgess roll of the burgesses of such borough to be completed on or before the twenty-second day of December in this year, instead of causing it to be completed on or before the twenty-second day of October.

Section 30.

And His Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, does hereby order, that the councillors of every such borough shall be elected, according to the provisions of the said Act, on the twenty-sixth day of December in this year, instead of the first day of November.

Section 25.

And His Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, does hereby order, that the aldermen of every such borough shall be elected, according to the provisions of the said Act, on the thirty-first day of December in this year, instead of the ninth day of November.

CONTRACT FOR IRISH BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 20, 1835

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 24th of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

Irish Salt Meat, equal to 9,000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 9,500 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, seven eighth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in barrels, into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Cork, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1836, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of His Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.
