FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1835.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, September 11, 1835.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's Levees are discontinued until further orders.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th day of August 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the "Customs," it is, among other things, enacted, that goods of places within the limits of the East India Company's charter shall be imported only into such ports of the United Kingdom as shall be approved of by the Lords of the Treasury, and declared by an Order in Council to be fit and proper for such importation :

And whereas the several ports of Whitehaven and Waterford have, with certain limitations, been approved of by the Lords of His Majesty's Treasury for that purpose, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the ports of Whitehaven and Waterford are, respectively, fit and proper for the importation of goods from places within the limits of the East India Company's charter, save and except that such ports shall not be deemed fit and proper for the importation of tea until after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 9th day of September 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" after reciting that it was necessary that provision should be made for the apportionment, amongst the proprietors of the slaves to be manumitted by virtue of the said Act in each of the said colonies respectively, of that part of the said compensation fund which should be so assigned as in the said Act is therein before recited to each of the respective colonies; and reciting that the necessary rules for that purpose could not be properly or safely established, until after full enquiry should have been made into the several circum-
