Notice is hereby given to the Officers of the Royal Navy and Marines, and to the widows of Naval Officers and Marines, that from and after the 1st day of October 1835, the following declaration is to be substituted for the Half-pay and other affidavits heretofore taken, and to be attested by any Justice

*Admiralty, Somerset-Place,
September 26, 1835.*

HALF-PAY AND RETIRED-PAY TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the receipt in the Wages Department at the Admiralty-office, Somerset-place, of the affidavit or certificate of identity required from each Officer by His Majesty's Orders in Council, a bill for the amount of the half-pay or retired-pay due will be made out in this Department, which will be payable by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, on the following days, viz.

On the 10th and 12th of October, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

On the 13th, 14th, and 15th of October, to Lieutenants at 5s. a day and under, and their Attorneys.

On the 16th and 17th of October, to Lieutenants at 7s. and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 19th, 20th, and 21st of October, to Admirals, Lieutenant-Generals, Major-Generals, Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, Commanders, and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

Great inconvenience having been experienced by the claims of Officers, who have not chosen to receive their half-pay or retired-pay on the days fixed for their rank, being brought forward on the days appointed for the payment of half-pay and retired-pay to Officers of different ranks; notice is hereby given, that no such claims can in future be attended to on the days not appointed for Officers of those ranks; but for the accommodation of such Officers, and also for the convenience of those who may not have transmitted their affidavits or certificates sufficiently early to admit of payment on the above-mentioned days, a recall will take place on the 23d and 24th of October.

After which the half-pay and retired-pay will be payable on the first and third Wednesday in every month, excepting during the general payment.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay or retired-pay in person, are requested to deliver their affidavits or certificates into the Wages-office at the Admiralty, Somerset-house, or transmit them to the Secretary of the Admiralty, immediately on the expiration of each quarter; and those employing agents are also requested to furnish their agents with their affidavits or certificates with the same dispatch, for unless such documents are delivered into this Office early, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue.

As it sometimes happens that Officers apply personally for their half-pay or retired-pay, without having previously sent in their affidavits or certificates as required by the usual advertisement, any delay or inconvenience to which they might be subject by this oversight, it is in the power of the Officers themselves to prevent, by an adherence to the existing regulations.

Under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy, besides the above-mentioned modes, Officers may receive their half-pay or retired-pay in any of the following ways, viz.

1st. By drawing a bill for the amount, in which case they are to give notice thereof, by letter, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked, in the corner, "Half-pay, or Retired-pay, Accountant-General," and thereupon the proper form of a bill of exchange will be sent to them.

2d. By a remittance bill, or permanent remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence, by the Collector of Customs or Excise.

3d. By extract or permanent remittance bill, at a Dock-yard, where there is an establishment of Pay Clerks.

In either of the two latter cases, they must give a like notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked in the same manner, and a remittance bill, or extract, will thereupon be made out and transmitted to them.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

City of BRISTOL to wit.

At a Meeting of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, held at the Guildhall, in the said City, on Tuesday the 15th day of September 1835;

It was resolved and ordered by the said Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty, in Common Council assembled as aforesaid, that, from and after the 1st day of April, which will be in the year 1836, all tolls, duties, or sums of money called the town dues or town duties, payable to the said Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty, upon the export from the port of Bristol to foreign parts beyond the seas, of all goods, wares, and merchandises whatsoever, being the property of persons not free of the said city of Bristol, nor otherwise legally exempted from the payment thereof, shall cease, determine, and be no longer payable.

E. Ludlap, Town Clerk of the city of Bristol.

ELIGIBLE INVESTMENT.

Extensive and Valuable Freehold Bond and other Warehouses, in High-Street, a capital Messuage and Shop, in the Market Place, Hull; and two Freehold and Copyhold Closes, at Bentley, in the County of York.

TO be sold by auction, peremptorily and without reserve, by Mr. Francis Stamp, in the following or such other lots as at the time of sale may be agreed upon, by order of and before the Commissioners under a Fiat in Bankruptcy against Messrs. William Levett and Son, at the George Inn, in Kingston-upon-Hull, on Wednesday the 4th day of November next, at Two o'clock in the Afternoon;

Lot 1. All those extensive and valuable freehold warehouses, bonding warehouses, counting-houses, and other premises, situate on the east side of and fronting to High-Street, opposite to Grimsby-Lane, in the said Town of Kingston-upon-Hull, ranging eastward to the River Hull, lately in the occupation of Messrs. William Levett and Son, comprising a stack of modern and substantially built bond warehouses, No. 25, containing four rooms, each of which is 66 feet long and 18 feet wide, and fitted up with two powerful cranes capable of raising any reasonable weight, and having also a dry arched cellar extending underneath the whole warehouses, used for the bonding of wines.

These warehouses are passed for the bonding of all descriptions of goods.

A large and extensive warehouse, four stories high, adjoining the above bond warehouses, containing eight rooms of the following dimensions: four rooms about 40 feet by 34 feet each; three rooms 37 feet by 24 feet; and one room 25 feet by 24 feet, with a large arched cellar extending nearly through or under the whole premises. One of the largest rooms in this warehouse has been adapted for bonding purposes.

This warehouse fronts upon the River Hull so that vessels may safely lay alongside for the purpose of discharging or receiving cargoes, and from each of the floors goods may be shipped. It is so substantially built that seed, currants, or goods of any weight may be stored therein, and its ventilation is excellent for corn.

There is one principal crane which has been recently erected to work upon all the floors of the warehouse.

Also a dwelling-house or shop, fronting to High-Street, with the counting-houses, seed show-room, and other offices, extending eastward to the last mentioned warehouse.

The site of this lot contains 678 square yards, or thereabouts, and its situation being so near to the entrance of the harbour renders it most eligible for carrying on an extensive mercantile or manufacturing business, or for the purposes of a wharfinger it is exceedingly desirable; and the contemplated improvements for converting the old harbour into a wet dock will, if effected, materially increase its value.

Lot 2. A very large and commodious freehold dwelling-house, shop, and premises, situate on the east side of the Market Place, nearly opposite the statue of King William, in the said Town of Kingston-upon-Hull, and lately in the occupation of Messrs. William Levett and Son, but now untenanted.

An extensive wholesale and retail grocery and fruit business having been carried on in these premises for upwards of a century, an opportunity is afforded which rarely occurs for a profitable permanent investment, or for a most advantageous commencement in the above line of business, the situation being decidedly one of the best for the trade in Hull.

Lot 3. Two closes of rich grass land, situate at Bentley, in the Parish of Rowley, in the County of York, adjoining the high road from Hull to Malton, and distant from Beverley about two miles, called Elliott-Moor and Autherson-Moor, containing together 12 acres, or thereabouts, now in the occupation of Messrs. Richard Oliver and John Oliver.

The above closes are partly freehold and partly copyhold of the Manor of Bentley, there being equal quantities of each tenure, or thereabouts.

Immediate possession may be had of lots 1 and 2, except the cellar for bonding wine, which is let from year to year, and of lot 3, at Lady-day next; and to view the several lots and for other particulars application may be made to the Auctioneer, or to Messrs. Lightfoot and Earnshaw, Solicitors, Hull.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Creasy, at the Town-Hall, Brighton, on Thursday the 22d day of October next, at Twelve o'clock at Noon, before William Haslewood, James Sedgwick, and Charles Cooper, Esqrs. Commissioners of Bankruptcy, under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued and now in prosecution against George William Sawyer, of Brighton, Builder;

A leasehold estate, comprising a piece of land in the Rottingdean Hedge Fulong, with three messuages or tenements thereon, called Uxbridge Place, Brighton, but now known as Nos. 56, 57, and 58, in the London-Road, Brighton, being three substantial and well-built cottage residences, most eligible situate in the principal entrance to Brighton, and adapted for respectable families; Nos. 56 and 58 are let to most respectable tenants. No. 57 is in hand.

Further particulars may be had at the Auction Mart, London; of Mr. S. W. Bennett, Solicitor, Middle-Street, or of the Auctioneer, Mr. Creasy, North-Street, Brighton.

Valuable Land, at Greatham, in the County of Durham.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. William Wadson Watson, Auctioneer, at the House of James Hunter, the Vane Arms Hotel, in Stockton, in the County of Durham, on Wednesday the 7th day of October next, at Twelve o'clock at Noon, by direction of the Assignees of A. H. Smith, under an order of the Court of Review;

All those two closes or parcels of ground, held by lease for lives under the Master and Brethren of Greatham Hospital, containing 3A. 2R. or thereabouts, of remarkably good soil, called the Cottages, situate about a mile from the Village of Greatham aforesaid, and adjoining the lane leading from thence to Seaton, late belonging to John Foster, deceased, and now in the occupation of John Landsley as tenant thereof.

Mr. Langley, of Greatham, will, on application, direct a person to shew the property, and further particulars may be had at the Vane Arms, Stockton; of Mr. Edward Edwards, Official Assignee, 4, Pancras-Lane, London; Messrs. Amory and Coles, Solicitors, 25, Throgmorton-Street, London; Messrs. Wilson and Faber, Solicitors, Stockton; and of Mr. Watson, the Auctioneer.
