

among other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, if He should think fit, by the advice of His Privy Council, to order any days and times before the first day of February next, for doing the several matters required or authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein before specified, or any of them; and that in such case all matters mentioned in such Order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such Order, as if the days and times mentioned in such Order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein before respectively mentioned in that behalf, and not otherwise; provided always, that nothing therein contained should authorise His Majesty to appoint any days or times other than were therein before specified, for any matters required or authorised by the said Act to be done, after the expiration of this present year:

His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, in pursuance of the power vested in His Majesty by the said Act, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows, that is to say:

Section 39.

His Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, does hereby order, that it shall be lawful for the barrister or barristers, appointed in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided by the said Act that certain boroughs of large population shall be divided, and what portions of such boroughs shall be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act.

Section 58.

And His Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, does hereby order, that the council of every borough named in either of the schedules (A) or (B), to the said Act annexed, shall appoint a fit person, according to the provisions of the said Act, to be the town clerk of such borough, on the first day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, instead of the ninth day of November in this present year.

At the Court at St. James's, the 30th day of September 1835.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things; enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned shall be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act; and that every port so appointed shall be, for all the purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities in His Majesty by the said Act in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the port of Castries, in His Majesty's island of St. Lucia, shall be a free warehousing port for all the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
