

SECOND SUPPLEMENT

TO

The London Gazette

Of FRIDAY the 4th of DECEMBER.

Published by Authority.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1835.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks, next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if his Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas Robert Griffiths Temple, Esq. and William Charles Townsend, Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of the borough of Congleton, in the present year (the said borough of Congleton being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portion of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such city, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

REPORT AS TO THE DIVISION OF CONGLETON INTO WARDS.

To the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department.

"My Lords,

"We, Robert Griffiths Temple, and William Charles Townsend, the barristers appointed to divide the borough of Congleton into wards, do hereby certify to your Lordship that we have proceeded to make such division, and find that the boundary of the said borough extends in circumference twenty-three miles and upwards; that the whole number of persons rated to the relief of the poor amounts to 1,705; that such rate is assessed upon two-thirds of the annual value of property within the borough; and that the amount of such rate so assessed, at threepence in the pound upon houses and buildings, and fourpence in the pound upon lands, is £151 14s. 11½d.; and that the number of persons rated at £15 a year, and upwards, is 225. That, having regard to such particulars, we have divided the said borough into three wards: that is to say, the North Ward, the South Ward, and the West

Ward: That we have determined and set out the boundary lines of each Ward, as follows:—North Ward: From the bottom of Swan-bank, opposite the Bull's-head-inn, to Duck-street; thence along the centre of Duck-street, Bridge-street, High-street, and Lawton-street; thence along the centre of Park-lane to the boundary of the borough, near the village of Biddulph; thence northward, following the line of the boundary of the borough, to a factory belonging to Messrs. Vawdry, and onward, crossing the river Dane, crossing the road to Macclesfield, crossing the road to Wilmsboro', and afterwards crossing the road to Hulme, Wae-field; and so on, continuing the line of the boundary of the borough to the house belonging to Lady Warburton, called Daisy-bank; thence quitting the line of boundary of the borough across in a straight line to the Park-gate opening to the top of Rood-lane; thence down the centre of Rood-lane, over Congleton-bridge, along the centre of Mill-street to the point first described opposite the Bull's-head-inn. This ward will include the north side of Duck-street, the north side of Bridge-street, the north side of High-street, the north side of Lowton-street, the north side of Park-lane, the east side of Rood-lane, the east side of Mill-street, Bromley-lane, the part of Moss north of Park-lane, the Park, Kinsey-street, Gibraltar, Primrose-vale, Moor-lane, Stonehouse-green, Hill-field, and Mill-green. This ward will contain 610 rated inhabitants; the amount of the rate, £50 13s. 3d.; number of persons rated at £15 a year and upwards 79.

South Ward:—From the point opposite the Lion and Swan-inn, in Wag-street, along the centre of Wag-street and of Wag-lane, until it reaches the boundary of the borough at Astbury; thence eastward, following the line of the boundary of the borough to the village of Biddulph; thence along the centre of Park-lane, of Lawton-street, of High-street, of Bridge-street, and of Duck-street, up the centre of Swan-bank to the point first described, opposite the Lion and Swan-inn. This ward will include the east side of Wag-street, the east side of Wag-lane, the south side of Park-lane, the south side of Lawton-street, the south side of High-street, the south side of Bridge-street, the south side of Duck-street, the east side of Swan-bank, the part of Moss south of Park-lane, Little-street, Chapel-street, Moody-street, Vale, Cole-hill, and Canal-street. This ward will contain 485 rated inhabitants; the amount of the rate £43 1s. 11½d.; number of persons rated at £15 a year and upwards, 82.

West Ward:—From the point opposite the Lion and Swan-inn, in Wag-street, westwardly, along the centre of Wag-lane, across the Sandbach-road to the boundary of the borough; and thence northward, following the line of the boundary of the borough on to the house of Lady Warburton, called Daisy-bank; thence quitting the line of the boundary of the borough across in a straight line to the park-gate opening to the top of Rood-lane; thence down the centre of Rood-lane, over Congleton-bridge, along the centre of Mill-street and Swan-bank to the point first described opposite the Lion and Swan-inn. This ward will include the west side of Wag-street, the west side of Wag-lane, the west side of Rood-lane, the west side of Mill-street, the west side of Swan-bank, Lion-street, West-street, Silk-street, Elizabeth-street, Hooth-street, West-lane, Marlfield, Dane-street, Ryle-street, Cross-ledge, Stoney-lane, Padbury-lane, West-leath. This ward will contain 610 rated inhabitants; the amount of rate £52 19s. 8³/₄d.; number of persons rated at £15 per annum and upwards, 59. To each of these wards we have assigned six councillors.

We have the honour to be

Your Lordship's obedient servants,

(Signed) Robert Griffiths Temple.

William Charles Townsend.

Congleton, 26th October, 1835.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, (by advice of His Privy Council,) doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December, 1835.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal Assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein before respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas Robert Miller, Esq., and George Grenville Hekewich, Esq., the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess and councillors lists of the borough of Derby, on the present year (the said borough of Derby being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF DERBY.

"We, Robert Miller and George Grenville Heke-

Wich, Barristers at Law, having been duly appointed, under and by virtue of the provisions of the Act fifth and sixth of William the Fourth, c. 76, to revise the lists of burgesses for the borough of Derby, and having, with a view to dividing the said borough into wards, received evidence in that behalf, and perambulated the said borough, do hereby, in pursuance of the directions of the said Act, divide the said borough into six wards, to be called Derwent Ward, Castle Ward, Becket Ward, Friar Gate Ward, King's Mead Ward, and Bridge Ward; and we do determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said wards, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively, in manner following, that is to say:—1. That the ward to be called Derwent Ward shall contain all that portion of the parish of St. Alkmund, within the said borough, which lies to the east of the river Derwent; and also the whole of the parish of St. Michael, within the said borough, except that detached portion of it which lies to the west of Irongate; and also all that portion of the parish of All Saints, within the said borough, which lies to the east of Full-street, the Market-place, the Corn-market, and of the parish of St. Peter; and that the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the portions of the said parishes, so to be contained within the said ward, shall constitute and be the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said ward, so to be called Derwent Ward as aforesaid. 2. That the ward to be called Castle Ward shall contain all that portion of the parish of St. Peter, within the said borough, which lies to the east of the Corn-market, St. Peter's-street, Osmaston-street, and Osmaston-road; and that the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said portion of the said parish, so to be contained within the said ward, shall constitute and be the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said ward, so to be called Castle Ward as aforesaid. 3. That the ward to be called Becket Ward shall contain all that portion of the parish of St. Peter, within the said borough, which lies to the west of the Corn-market, St. Peter's-street, Osmaston-street, and Osmaston-road; and also all that portion of the parish of Saint Werburgh, within the said borough, which lies to the south of the Brookside and the Wardwick, and to the south-east of Curzon-street and the New Uttoxeter-road; and that the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said portions of the said parishes, so to be contained within the said ward, shall constitute and be the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said ward, so to be called Becket Ward as aforesaid. 4. That the ward to be called Friar Gate Ward shall contain all that portion of the parish of Saint Werburgh, within the said borough, which lies to the north of the Wardwick, and to the north-west of Curzon-street and the New Uttoxeter-road; and that the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said portion of the said parish, so to be contained within the said ward, shall constitute and be the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said ward, so to be called Friar Gate Ward as aforesaid. 5. That the ward to be called King's Mead Ward shall contain all that portion of the parish of Saint Alkmund, within the said borough, which lies to the west of Queen-street, King-street, and the Duffield-road; and also all that portion of the parish of All Saints, within the said borough, which lies to the west of Queen-street, and to the north of St. Mary's Gate; and that the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said portions of the said parishes, so to be contained within the said ward, shall constitute and be the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said ward, so to be called King's Mead Ward as aforesaid. 6. That the ward to be called Bridge Ward shall contain all that portion of the parish of Saint Alkmund, within the said borough, which lies between the river Derwent on the east, and Queen-street, King-street, and Duffield-road, on the west; and also all that detached portion of the parish of Saint Michael, within the said borough, which lies to the west of Irongate; and also all that portion of the parish of All Saints, within the said borough, situate to the west of Full-street, the Market-place, and the Corn-market, which, on the east of Queen-street and the Irongate, lies to the south of that part of Full-street heretofore called Nanny Tagg's-lane, and on the west of Queen-street and the Irongate lies to the south of St. Mary's Gate; and that the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said portions of the said parishes, so to be contained within the said ward, shall constitute and be the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said ward, so to be called Bridge Ward as aforesaid. And we, the said barristers, having regard, as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each of the said wards, as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons are so rated, do assign six councillors to each and every of the said six wards, into which we have hereby divided the said borough as aforesaid.—In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands, this 23d day of October, 1835.

(Signed) Robert Miller,

George Grenville Kekewich,

Revising Barristers for the borough of Derby.

Now therefore His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December, 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council;

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulations of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is hereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough in the said schedule: provided always that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them; and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas Joseph Douglas, Esq. and William Grant, Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of the city of Exeter, in the present year (the said city of Exeter being one of the boroughs included in the same schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

CITY OF EXETER.

"We, Joseph Douglas and William Grant, Junior, Middle-temple, Barristers at Law, having been duly appointed by Sir John Gurney, Knt., one of the Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, at Westminster, and the Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the County of Devon for the last Summer Circuit, to revise the lists of burgesses for the city of Exeter, and to execute the other duties required by the Statute of the fifth and sixth William the Fourth, c. 76, and having heard evidence in that behalf, and having perambulated the boundaries of the said city, and examined the rate-books of the different parishes within the same, do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, divide the said city into six wards, to be called respectively,—1. St. Paul's Ward; 2. St. Mary Major Ward; 3. Trinity Ward; 4. St. Petrock Ward; 5. St. Sidewells Ward; 6. St. David Ward; and we do determine and set out the extent, limit, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such city shall be included therein, in manner following, that is to say: that the Ward of St. Paul shall contain the parish of St. Paul, the precinct of Bradnich, the parish of St. Lawrence, the parish of Allhallows Goldsmith-street, the parish of St. Pancras, the parish of St. Kerrian, and that part of the parish of St. David which is situate to the south-west of a line to be drawn from the point where High-street meets North-street, through the centre of North-street, and through the centre of the road leading from the western termination of North-street to Cowley-bridge; and that the Ward of St. Mary Major shall contain the precinct of the Close, the precinct of Bedford, the parish of St. Mary Major, the parish of St. Stephen, and the parish of St. George; and that the Ward of Trinity shall contain the parish of the Holy Trinity, the parish of St. Edmund, and the parish of St. Mary Steps; and that the Ward of St. Petrock shall contain the parish of Allhallows on the Walls, the parish of St. Olave, the parish of St. Mary Arches, the parish of St. Martens, the parish of St. Petrock, and the parish of St. John; and that the Ward of St. Sidewell shall contain that part of the parish of St. Sidewell, which is situate to the south-east of a line to be drawn from the point where High-street meets St. Sidewell, through the centre of St. Sidewell-street, and through the centre of the road leading from the north-eastern termination of St. Sidewell-street to the Blackboy turnpike-gate, and that part of the parish of St. David which is situate to the east of High-street; and that the Ward of St. David shall contain that part of the parish of St. Sidewell which is situate to the north-west of the line above described, and that part of the parish of St. David which is not included in the Wards of St. Paul and St. Sidewell; and having regard as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward, as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons are so rated, we do assign six councillors to each of the said wards respectively.—In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands this 17th day of October, 1835.

(Signed)

Jos. Douglas.

W. Grant, Junior.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December, 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve of such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid,

be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year herein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of his Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas Maurice Swabey, Esq. and Henry Egerton, Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of the borough of Gloucester in the present year (the said borough of Gloucester being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portion of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such

borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said city to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF GLOUCESTER.

"We, Maurice Swabey, of Lincoln's-inn, Barrister at Law, and Henry Egerton, of Lincoln's-inn, Barrister at Law, having been duly appointed by the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Denman, being the Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Circuit in this year for the Oxford Circuit, to revise the lists of burgesses for the borough of Gloucester, and to execute the other duties required by the Statute fifth and sixth William the Fourth, c. 76, and having heard evidence in that behalf, and having perambulated the boundaries of the said borough, and having examined the rate books of the different parishes and townships or hamlets within the same, do hereby, in pursuance of the directions of the said Act, divide the said borough into three wards, to be called the West Ward, the East Ward, the South Ward; and we do determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough shall be included therein respectively, in manner following, that is to say, that the West Ward shall contain the in-hamlet of the parish of Saint Mary-de-Lode, and the College precincts, being such parts of the parish of Saint Mary-de-Lode as are situate within the limits of the said borough, as settled and described in an Act of Parliament passed in the second and third years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'an Act to settle and describe the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament,' the parish of the Holy Trinity, the parish of Saint Nicholas, and so much and such parts of the parish of Saint Catherine and of the North Hamlet as are respectively situate within the limits of the said borough, as settled and described by the said Boundary Act. That the East Ward shall contain the parish of Saint John the Baptist, the parish of Saint Aldate, the parish of Saint Michael, and so much and such parts of the hamlets of Barton, Saint Michael and Barton Saint Mary, as are respectively situate within the limits of the said borough, as settled and described by the said Boundary Act; and that the South Ward shall contain the parish of Saint Mary de Crypt, the parish of Saint Owen, the parish of Saint Mary de Grace, the hamlet of Littleworth, and so much and such parts of the South Hamlet as are situate within the limits of the said borough, as settled and described by the said Boundary Act; and also all such other lands, tenements, and hereditaments, if any, as are situate within the aforesaid limits of the said borough, and are not included in the several parishes and hamlets respectively herein-before mentioned, or any of them; and having regard as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward, as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons are so rated, we do assign six councillors to the said West Ward, and six councillors to the said East Ward, and six councillors to the said South Ward; in witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this twenty-third day of October, 1835.

(Signed) Maurice Swabey.
Henry Egerton.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by advice of his Privy Council, doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December, 1835;

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal Assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year; and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it is hereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough, should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf, in such order as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas Edward Drake Brockman, Esq. and Samuel Charles Cross Fish, Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of the borough of Gravesend, in the present year (the said borough of Gravesend being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively; and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough to one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF GRAVESEND.

"We, Edward Drake Brockman, of the Inner-temple, Barrister at Law, and Samuel Charles Cross Fish, of the Inner-temple, Barrister at Law, having been duly appointed by Sir James Allan Park, Knt., one of His Majesty's Justices of the Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, being the Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Circuit in this year, for the county of Kent, to revise the lists of burgesses for the borough of Gravesend, and to execute the other duties required by the Statute fifth and sixth William the Fourth, c. 76, and having heard evidence in that behalf, and having perambulated the boundaries of the said borough, and examined the rate-books of the different parishes within the same, do hereby, in pursuance of the directions of the said Act, divide the said borough into two wards, to be called Gravesend Ward and Milton-next-Gravesend Ward; and we do determine and set out the extent, limit, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough shall be included therein respectively, in manner following; that is to say, that Gravesend Ward shall consist of the parish of Gravesend, and that Milton-next-Gravesend Ward, shall consist of the parish of Milton-next-Gravesend; and having regard, as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward, as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons are so rated, we do assign nine councillors to the said ward to be called Gravesend Ward, and nine councillors to the ward to be called Milton-next-Gravesend Ward.—In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord 1835.

(Signed) Edward Drake Brockman.
Samuel Charles Cross Fish."

"We do hereby certify that the number of rate-payers and amount of rating in Gravesend Ward, and in Milton-next-Gravesend Ward, in the borough of Gravesend, are as follows: Gravesend Ward, number of rate-payers, 472; amount of rating, £10,622: Milton-next-Gravesend Ward, rate-payers, 619; rating, £11,784 10s.

(Signed) Edward D. Brockman,
Samuel Charles Cross Fish."

Now therefore His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December, 1835,

PRESENT.

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal Assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be to determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit, by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf, in such order as if the days and times mentioned in such order had, in every instance, been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act:

and whereas Richard Onslow, Esq. and Thomas Brandon Brett, Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of the borough of Hastings, in the present year (the said borough of Hastings being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such boroughs into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF HASTINGS.

"We, Richard Onslow and Thomas Brandon Brett, Barristers at Law, having been duly appointed under the fifth and sixth of William the Fourth, c. 76, to revise the burgess lists for the borough of Hastings, in the county of Sussex, and to do and perform all such things as the said Act empowers and directs us to do and perform, hereby declare that we do divide the said borough into two wards; and we do determine that the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards shall be as follows, that is to say, the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the first of such wards shall be and include the parish of All Saints, the parish of St. Clements, so much of the parish of St. Mary-in-the-Castle as has always been and is reputed to be within the boundary lines of such borough, and so much of the parish of Ore as has always been and is reputed to be within the boundary lines of such borough; and that the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the second of such wards, shall be and include the parish of St. Andrew, the parish of the Holy Trinity, the parish of St. Michael, the parish of St. Mary Magdalen, so much of the parish of St. Leonard as has always been and is reputed to be within the boundary lines of such borough and the parish of St. Mary Bulverhithe; and we do assign the number of councillors to each ward as follows, that is to say, to the first of such wards we do assign the number of twelve councillors, and to the second of such wards we do assign the number of six councillors.

(Signed) Richard Onslow,
Thomas Brandon Brett."

Now, therefore, His Majesty, (by the advice of His Privy Council,) doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December 1835.

PRESENT.

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament. And it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough, should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas, Thomas Clement Sneyd Kynnersley, Esq. of the Middle-temple, and Christopher William Puller, Esq., of Lincoln's-inn, the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of the borough of Hereford, in the present year (the said borough of Hereford being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF HEREFORD.

"We, Thomas Clement Sneyd Kynnersley, of the Middle-temple, Barrister at Law, and Christopher William Puller, of Lincoln's-inn, Barrister at Law, having been duly appointed by the Right Honourable Lord Denman, being the Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Circuit in this year for the county of Hereford, to revise the lists of Burgesses for the borough of Hereford, and to execute the other duties required by the Statute fifth and sixth William the Fourth, c. 76; and having heard evidence in that behalf, and examined the rate books of the different parishes and townships within the same, do hereby, in pursuance of the directions of the said Act, divide the said borough into three wards to be called Leonminster Ward; Monmouth Ward, and Ledbury Ward, and we do determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough shall be included therein respectively, in manner following, (that is to say,) that Leominster Ward shall contain the township of Huntingdon, and such parts of the rest of the parish of Holmer, and of the parishes of All Saints and Breinton as are situate within the liberties of the said borough, together with all such detached parts of the parish of Saint John the Baptist, as are situate north of Saint Owen Street, High Street, and of the street or road known by the name of the above Eign, or Eign Gate Without; and that Monmouth Ward shall contain the parishes of St. Nicholas and St. Martin, and so much of the parish of Bullingham as is situate within the liberties of the said borough, and all such parts of the parish of Saint John the Baptist as are situate within the said liberties, and south of High Street and Saint Owen Street; and that Ledbury Ward shall contain the parishes of Saint Peter and Saint Owen, and so much of the township of Tupsley in the parish of Hampton Bishop as is situate within the liberties of the said borough, together with all the extra-parochial lands adjoining the said township of Tupsley, and situate within the said liberties: and having regard as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward, as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons are so rated, we do assign six councillors to each of the said wards. In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this seventeenth day of October, 1835.

(Signed) T. C. Sneyd Kynnersley.
C. W. Puller.

Now, therefore, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council,) doth hereby approve of such determination of the said Barristers, and of the number of Councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December
1835,

PRESENT

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal Assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things enacted, that every borough in the Schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions thereinbefore contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it is hereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough, should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year thereinbefore specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned, respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times thereinbefore respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas, William Emsley, Esq. and John Collier, Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of the borough of Colchester, in the present year (the said borough of Colchester being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively; and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule; and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said city to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF IPSWICH.

"We, William Elmsley, and John Collyer, Esquires, being the barristers duly appointed in pursuance of the provisions contained in an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act to provide for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales,' to divide the borough of Ipswich into wards, and to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough shall be included therein respectively, do hereby divide the said borough into five wards, that is to say:—The first of such wards to consist of the parish of St. Clements, and that part of the parish of Rushmere, which is situate within the liberties of Ipswich; the second of such wards to consist of the parish of Saint Margaret, and that part of the parish of Westerfield, which is situate within the liberties of Ipswich; the third of such wards to consist of the parishes of Saint Stephen, Saint Lawrence, Saint Helen, Saint Mary Quay, and Saint Mary at Elms; the fourth of such wards to consist of the parishes of Saint Nicholas and Saint Peter, and that part of the parish of Saint Mary Stoke, which is situate within the liberties of Ipswich; the fifth of such wards to consist of the parishes of Saint Matthew, Saint Mary Tower, and such parts of the respective parishes of Whitton, Sproughton, and Bramford, as are respectively situate within the liberties of Ipswich; and we do hereby determine, that every extra-parochial place within the liberties of Ipswich, lying wholly within the ambit of any one of the parishes above mentioned, shall, for the purposes of such division into wards as aforesaid, be deemed to be within and to form part of that parish, and that every extra-parochial place which shall adjoin two or more of the aforesaid parishes, shall for the like purposes be deemed to be within, and to form part of the least populous of such adjoining parishes; and we do hereby assign to each of the said wards six councillors.

(Signed) William Elmsley.
John Collyer."

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales,' which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough, should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned

in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided by the said Act that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas, John Lewis Mortimer, Esq. and George Robert Michael Ward, Esq. the barristers appointed in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess' and councillors' lists of the borough of Kidderminster, in the present year (the said borough of Kidderminster being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively; and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule; and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF KIDDERMINSTER.

"We, John Lewis Mortimer, of the Middle-temple, and of Cheltenham, in the county of Gloucester, and George Robert Michael Ward, of Lincoln's-inn and of the city of Oxford, Barristers at Law, having been duly appointed by the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Denman, Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, being the Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Circuit in this year, for the county of Worcester, to execute the duties required by the statute fifth and sixth of William Fourth, c. 76, and having perambulated the boundaries of the said borough, examined the rate-books of the same, and heard evidence in that behalf, do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, divide the said borough into two wards, to be called North Ward and South Ward; and we do determine and set out the extent, limit, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough shall be included therein respectively, in manner hereunder mentioned; and having regard as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward, as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons are so rated, we do assign nine councillors to the said North Ward, and nine councillors to the said South Ward. No. 1, North Ward, contains all that portion of the borough of Kidderminster which is comprised in the following boundary line: that is to say, from a point called Proud-cross, at which the boundary of the borough meets the Bridgenorth-road, along the north side of Mill-street, the north and east sides of the Bull-ring, the north side of Swan-street, the north side of Coventry-street, and following the north side of the turnpike road leading to Hagley, to the place where the same road crosses the boundary of the borough, thence northward and westward along the boundary of the borough to the first point described, called Proud-cross. No. 2, South Ward, contains all that portion of the borough which is comprised in the following boundary line: that is to say, from the point called Proud-cross, along the south side of Mill-street, the south and west sides of the Bull-ring, the south side of Swan-street, the south side of Coventry-street, and following the south side of the turnpike road leading to Hagley, to the place where the same road crosses the boundary of the borough, thence southward and westward along the boundary of the borough to the point first described, called Proud-cross.—In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands, this 5th day of November 1835.

(Signed) John Lewis Mortimer.
George Robert Michael Ward."

Now, therefore, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December, 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers, appointed in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit, by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order; as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf: and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act: and whereas, John Boscawen Monro, Esq. and Frederic Gunning, Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of the borough of King's Lynn, in the present year (the said borough of King's Lynn being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

"MY LORD, Lincoln's-inn, October 31, 1835.

AS the barristers appointed to revise the burgess list of the borough of King's Lynn, we send the particulars of our division of that borough into wards, and of the number of councillors assigned by us to each ward; we deem it right, however, to accompany these particulars with some account of the present state of the borough, in order to enable His Majesty's Privy Council to judge how far our views in the division are accurate.

The borough of King's Lynn comprises two parishes, the parish of Saint Margaret and the parish of South Lynn or Southgate All Saints: the parish of Saint Margaret contains, according to a recent survey made by the Town Chamberlain, two hundred and fifty-eight acres and thirty five perches, including one half of the stream of the River Ouse, which separates it from West Lynn, the other half of the stream, comprising eighty-seven acres and thirty-eight perches, appears also to have been claimed by the Corporation, as forming part of the borough, but the fact of its belonging to it is disputed; the parish of South Lynn contains, according to the same survey, two thousand three hundred and seventy-five acres and seven perches, of which forty-seven acres, two roods, and sixteen perches only are within the gates, and twenty acres, two roods, and twenty-one perches, which are part of the parish of West Lynn, but are surrounded by the contents of the parish of South Lynn, are to be considered as part of the borough for the purposes of the Act for regulating municipal corporations: almost the whole of the town lies within the walls, the greater part of the buildings is situate in the parish of Saint Margaret; the borough is divided into ten wards, of which the parish of South Lynn forms one, the other nine are situate in the parish of Saint Margaret, and are named respectively North-end, Kettlewell, Jews-lane, Chequer, New-conduit, Paradise, Trinity-hall, Sedgford-lane, and Stonegate; these divisions are adopted in collecting the poor's rate and paving-rate, but the water-rate is collected without reference to them; there is no general borough-rate.

Under the Act for regulating municipal corporations the barristers, in assigning the number of councillors to each ward, are to have regard, as far as in their judgment they may deem it to be practicable, as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in such ward, as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons shall be so rated; there has been no new assessment of property to the relief of the poor in either of the two parishes for several years past, nor has the aggregate amount of the assessment or the number of properties rated varied in any very material degree, although, from the circumstance of new buildings having been erected, there has been some small increase in both respects, hitherto the increase of buildings has been principally in South Lynn; in both parishes, and especially in South Lynn, much of the property is rated in the names of the landlords, although each tenement is separately assessed, and the name of the tenant generally inserted in the rate; the number of properties, by the last rates, rated to the relief of the poor within the borough, exclusive of land and exclusive of tolls and dues to which the Corporation are rated, is three thousand one hundred and forty, the aggregate amount of the assessments, calculated at three-fifths of the actual value, is fifteen thousand five hundred and seventy-five pounds: the local situations of the properties are as follows, namely:—

Name of Ward.	Number of Properties Rated.	Aggregate Amount of Assessments.
North-end	386	£1384
Kettlewell	271	1015
Jews'-lane	179	773
Chequer	214	1895
New-conduit	224	1010
Paradise	263	990
Trinity-hall	156	1067
Sedgford-lane	398	1544
Stonegate	444	2245
	2535	11923
South Lynn	605	3652
	3140	15575

The numbers, according to the scheme of division, we have adopted, will stand as follows, namely;

North Ward.	Number of Properties Rated.	Aggregate Amount of Assessments.
North-end	386	1384
Kettlewell	271	1015
Jews'-lane	179	773
Chequer	214	1895
	1050	5067

Middle Ward.	Number of Properties Rated.	Aggregate Amount of Assessments.
New-conduit	214	1010
Paradise	263	990
Trinity-hall	156	1067
Sedgford-lane	398	1544
	1031	4611

South Ward.	Number of Properties Rated.	Aggregate Amount of Assessment.
Stonegate	444	2245
South Lynn	605	3652
	1049	5897

SUMMARY.

	Number of Properties rated.	Aggregate Amount of Assessments.
North Ward	1050	5067
Middle Ward	1041	4611
South Ward	1049	5897
	3140	15575

We considered it convenient in the division of the borough, to adhere to the ancient divisions, and we did not deem it practicable, consistently with the general spirit of the Municipal Act, to have regard, more particularly, to the numbers of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward, or to the aggregate amounts of the assessments. There does not seem much probability of any very considerable addition to the number of buildings in South Lynn, at present; the greater part of the land in that parish, not covered by buildings, consists of marsh land, and is held by upland farmers unconnected with the borough. In the parish of Saint Margaret, Jews'-lane, Chequer, New-conduit, and Trinity-hall wards, are already covered with buildings; but the remaining five wards in that parish contain much land capable of being built upon, and well adapted to that purpose. North-end, Chequer, Trinity-hall, and Stonegate wards abut upon the Ouse. From the overseer of South Lynn we learned, that not one-third of the occupiers of the six hundred and five rated buildings in that parish are entered on the rate. Excluding the land in both parishes, in order to divide the borough exactly, there should be one hundred and seventy-four and a half voters, and an assessment to the poor rate to the amount of eight hundred and sixty-five pounds for each Councillor. The scheme of division we decided upon will give the following result:

	No.	Assessments.
North Ward	175	£844
Middle Ward	173	768
South Ward	174	982

We believe, therefore, that, upon the whole, the mode in which we have divided the borough, is as equal as any which could have been selected, without disturbing the boundaries of the existing wards.

We have the honour to be your Lordship's very obedient servants,

(Signed)

J. B. Monro.

F. Gunning."

To the Right Honourable Lord John Russell,
His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department."

Whereas, we, the undersigned, John Boscawen Monro and Frederic Gunning, being the barristers appointed in pursuance of the provisions contained in an Act of Parliament, passed in the present year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," to revise the burgess list of the borough of King's Lynn, in the county of Norfolk, have divided the said borough into three wards, as is directed by the said Act. Now, we having regard, as far as in our judgment we deem it to be practicable, as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each of such three wards, as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons are so rated, do hereby apportion the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of the said borough, in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, being eighteen, in manner following, that is to say:—we hereby assign six councillors to each of the said three wards. Witness our hands, this 31st day of October 1835.

(Signed) J. B. Monro.
F. Gunning.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess' and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid,

be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough, should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of his Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas, Robert Richmond, Esq. and Edmund Fitz Moore, Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise burgess' and councillors' lists of the borough of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the present year (the said borough of Kingston-upon-Thames being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF KINGSTON-UPON-THAMES.

"We, Robert Richmond, of Lincoln's inn, Barrister at Law, and Edmund Fitz Moore, of the Middle-temple, Barrister at Law, having been duly appointed by the Honourable Sir James Allan Park, Knight, being the Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Circuit in this year for the county of Surrey, to revise the list of burgesses for the borough of Kingston, and to execute the other duties required by the Statute fifth and sixth William Fourth, c. 76, and having heard evidence in that behalf, and having perambulated the boundaries of the said borough, and examined the rate books of the different parishes within the same, do hereby, in pursuance of the directions of the said Act, divide the said borough into three wards, to be called the Town Ward, the Ham and Petersham Ward, and the Turbiton Ward, and do determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough shall be included therein respectively, in manner following, that is to say:—that the Ham and Petersham Ward shall include all that portion of the said borough which is bounded as follows, that is to say; on the south by Kingston-bridge, from the western extremity thereof by a line drawn from the eastern end of the said bridge to the west end of the said bridge, to the west end of Norbiton-street, and by Norbiton-street to the point where Canonbury-lane unites with the London-road, thence on the east by Canonbury-lane and the Upper Ham-road to the boundary stone dividing the hamlet of Ham from the parish of Kingston opposite Bank Farm in the said road, thence on the south by the boundary of the said hamlet through Richmond-park to the boundary stone of the said hamlet on Gallow's-hill in the high road leading from Kingston to London, thence on the south-east by the boundary of the said hamlet to the boundary stone on Beverley-bridge on the said high road, thence on the east by the water course from Beverley-bridge aforesaid to a boundary stone dividing the said hamlet of Ham from the parish of Putney on the eastern side of Richmond-park aforesaid, thence on the north across the said park by the boundary of the said hamlet of Ham and the boundary of the parish of Petersham down Richmond-hill, and across the river Thames to a point opposite the Duke of Buccleugh's lawn adjoining the said river, thence on the north, the north-west, and west by the boundary of the manor of Kingston up the said river to the western side of Kingston-bridge aforesaid. That the Town Ward shall include all that portion of the said borough which is bounded as follows, that is to say, on the north by Kingston-bridge, from the western extremity thereof by a line drawn from the eastern end of the said bridge to the west end of Nor-biton-street, and by Norbiton-street to the point at which Canonbury-lane unites with the London-road, thence on the west by Canonbury-lane and the Upper Ham-road to the aforesaid boundary stone opposite Bank Farm in the said last-mentioned road, thence on the north by the aforesaid boundary of the said hamlet of Ham to Beverley-bridge aforesaid, thence on the east by the water course dividing the parish of Putney from the parish of Kingston, as far as Merton or Combe-bridge, thence east and south-east by the boundary dividing the said parish of Kingston from the parishes of Maldon and Merton to Apple Tree-lane, now called the Maldon-road, thence on the south by the said boundary of the parish of Kingston to the point at which the same unites with the Ewell River, thence on the south-west and south by the said river to the entrance of the same into the river Thames, thence by a line across the said river Thames to a point opposite, and thence down the said river Thames by the boundary of the manor of Kingston to the western extremity of Kingston-bridge aforesaid. That the Surbiton Ward shall include all that portion of the said borough which is bounded as follows; that is to say, on the north by the Ewell River to the point at which the same unites with the boundary of the hamlet of Talworth on the east by the boundary dividing the said hamlet of Talworth and the parish of Chessington from the manor of Kingston as far as Fair Oak-lane at the south-eastern extremity of the said manor, thence on the south by the boundary of the said manor to the south-western extremity of the said manor adjoining Arbrook Common, thence on the west by the boundary of the said manor to the western extremity thereof in Ditton-street, thence on the north by the said last-mentioned boundary to Window's-bridge in the Portsmouth-road, thence on the west by the water course from Window's-bridge to the river Thames, thence along the said river Thames on the north-west by the boundary of the manor of Kingston to a point near Seething Wells, thence on the west by a line across the said river to a point on the west bank thereof, thence on the north-west by the western bank of the said river Thames to the before-mentioned point opposite the Ewell River, and thence on the north by a line across the said river Thames to the mouth of the said Ewell River.

"And having regard as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons are so rated, we do assign six councillors to the said Town Ward, and six councillors to the said Ham and Petersham Ward, and six councillors to the said Surbiton Ward.—In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands, this 6th day of November 1835.

(Signed)

Robert Richmond.

Edmund Fitz Moore."

Now, therefore, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December, 1835,

PRESENT.

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess' and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned

in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas Thomas Clarkson, Esq. and Charles William Heigham, Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess' and councillors' lists of the borough of Leeds, in the present year (the said borough of Leeds being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF LEEDS.

"We, Thomas Clarkson and Charles William Heigham, Esquires, Barristers at Law, having been duly appointed to revise the lists of burgesses for the borough of Leeds, in the county of York, and to execute the other duties required by the Statute passed in the fifth and sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act to provide for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales,' do hereby, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, divide the said borough into the wards hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, Mill-hill Ward, West Ward, North-West Ward, North Ward, North-East Ward, East Ward, Kirkgate Ward, South Ward, Hunslett Ward, Holbeck Ward, Bramley Ward, and Headingley Ward. And we do hereby determine that Mill-hill Ward shall comprise such portion of the township of Leeds as is contained within a line drawn from the centre of Leeds-bridge along the said Bridge, bridge-end and Briggate to the point where Briggate is met by Upperhead-row, and thence along Upperhead-row,

Guildford street, and Park Lane to the point where Park-lane is met by Somers-street, and thence along Somers-street, across West-street, along Queen-street, across Wellington-street, and along the road intended to form Lower Queen-street to the point where the same meets the road which leads from Leeds to Halifax, and thence along the last-mentioned road to the centre of Monk-bridge, and thence along the River Aire to the centre of Leeds-bridge. And we do hereby determine that West Ward shall comprise such portion of the said township of Leeds as is contained within a line drawn from the centre of Monk-bridge along the River Aire to the point where the boundary of the respective townships of Leeds and Headingley meets the said river, and thence along the said boundary to the point where the said boundary crosses the road which leads from Leeds to Headingley, and thence along the said road in the direction of Leeds to Woodhouse-lane, and along Woodhouse-lane to the point where the same is met by Cobourg-street, and thence along Cobourg-street to the point where the same meets Camp-road, and thence along Camp-road to the point where the same is met by Brunswick-street, and thence along Brunswick-street to the point where the same meets North-street, and thence along North-street to the point where the same meets Lowerhead-row, and thence along Lowerhead-row, across the northern extremity of Briggate, along Upperhead-row, Guildford-street, and Park-lane to the point where Park-lane is met by Somers-street, and thence along Somers-street, across West-street, along Queen's-street, across Wellington-street, and along the road intended to form Lower Queen-street to the point where the same meets the road which leads from Leeds to Halifax, and thence along the last-mentioned road to the centre of Monk-bridge. And we do hereby determine that North-West Ward shall comprise such portion of the said township of Leeds as is contained within a line drawn from the point in Woodhouse-lane, where the same is met by Cobourg-street, along the said Woodhouse-lane, and the road which leads from Leeds to Headingley to the point where the same road is met by the boundary of the township of Leeds, and thence along the said boundary to the point where the same crosses the road which leads from Leeds to Harrogate, and thence along the said road towards Leeds to the point where the same is met by Brunswick-street, and thence along Brunswick-street to the point where the same meets Camp-road, and thence along Camp-road to the point where the same meets Cobourg-street, and thence along Cobourg-street to the point first mentioned in the description of the boundary line of this ward. And we do hereby determine that North Ward shall comprise such portion of the said township of Leeds as is contained within a line drawn from the centre of the bridge called Sheepscar-bridge, in the road which leads from Leeds to Harrogate, and which bridge crosses the stream called Sheepscar-beck, otherwise Lady-beck, otherwise Timble-beck, along the said stream to the bridge called Timble-bridge, and thence along Timble-bridge and Kirkgate to the point where Kirkgate is met by Vicar-lane, and thence along Vicar-lane, North-street, and the said road, which leads from Leeds to Harrogate, to the point first mentioned in the description of the boundary line of this ward. And we do hereby determine that North East Ward shall comprise such portion of the township of Leeds as is contained within a line drawn from the point in the road which leads from Leeds to Harrogate, where the same is crossed by the boundary of the township of Leeds, along the said road towards Leeds to the point where the same crosses the stream called Sheepscar-beck, otherwise Lady-beck, otherwise Timble-beck, and thence along the said stream to the bridge called Timble-bridge, and thence along Timble-bridge and Marsh-lane, to the point where Marsh-lane meets the road which leads from Leeds to York, and thence along the said road to the point where the same is crossed by the boundary of the township of Leeds, and thence along the said boundary to the point first mentioned in the description of the boundary line of this ward. And we do hereby determine that East Ward shall comprise such portion of the township of Leeds as is contained within a line drawn from the point near St. Peter's Church, where East-street meets Timble-bridge, along East-street to the point where the same is met by the bridge which unites East-street with the road which leads to the Calls, and which bridge crosses a certain water-course or channel which leads from the stream called Timble Beck by Crown Point into the river Aire, near the lower wear, and thence to the centre of the said bridge, and thence along the said water-course or channel to the said river, and thence along the said river to the point where the same is met by the boundary of the respective townships of Leeds and Templenewsam, and thence along the said boundary of the township of Leeds to the point where the same crosses the road which leads from Leeds to York, and thence along the said road towards Leeds to the point where the same is met by Marsh-lane, and thence along Marsh-lane and Timble-bridge to the point near Saint Peter's Church, first mentioned in the description of the boundary line of this ward; and we do further determine that the said East Ward shall comprise such portion of the said township of Templenewsam, as is within the borough of Leeds. And we do hereby determine that Kirkgate ward shall comprise such portion of the township of Leeds as is contained within a line drawn from the centre of Leed-bridge along the said bridge, bridge end and Briggate to the point where Briggate is met by Lowerhead-row, and thence along Lowerhead-row to the point where the same meets Vicar-lane, and thence along Vicar-lane to the point where the same meets Kirkgate, and thence along Kirkgate and East-street to the point where East-street is met by the bridge which unites East-street with the road which leads to the Calls, and which bridge crosses a certain water-course or channel which leads from the stream called Timble-beck by Crown-point, into the river Aire near the Lower Wear, and thence to the centre of the said bridge, and thence along the said water-course or channel to the said river, and thence along the said river to the centre of Leeds-bridge. And we do hereby determine that South Ward shall comprise such portion of the township of Leeds as is not included within the several wards, the boundary lines whereof are hereinbefore set out. And we do hereby further determine that Hunslet Ward shall comprise the township of Hunslet, and that Holbeck Ward shall comprise the several townships of Holbeck and Wortley, and that Bramley Ward shall comprise the several townships of Bramley, Arncliffe, Farnley, and Beeston; and also that Headingley Ward shall comprise the several townships of Huddingley-cum-Burley, Chapel Allerton, and Potternewton. And we do hereby declare that whenever in the description of the boundary lines of the several wards so set out as aforesaid, any line is said to pass along or to be drawn to or from any street, road, lane, bridge, river, stream, water-course, or channel, such line shall be considered to pass along or to be drawn to or from the middle of such street, road, lane, bridge, river, stream, water-course, or channel; and that whenever in such description the point at which any street, road, lane, bridge, boundary, river, stream, water-course, or channel is said to meet or cross any street, road, lane, bridge, boundary, river, stream, water-course, or channel, that point shall be considered to be described at which a line passing along the middle of the street, road, lane, bridge, boundary, river, stream, water-course, or channel, so met or crossed, would be intersected by a line drawn along the middle of the street, road, lane, bridge, boundary, river, stream, water-course, or channel so meeting or crossing, if such lines were prolonged sufficiently far. And we the said Thomas Clarkson and Charles William Heigham do hereby, in further pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, assign to each and every of the several wards hereinafter next mentioned; that is to say, Mill Hill Ward, West Ward, Holbeck Ward, and Bramley Ward, the number of six councillors, and to each and every of the remaining wards; that is to say, North West Ward, North Ward, North East Ward, East Ward, Kirkgate Ward, South Ward, Hunslet Ward, and Headingley Ward, the number of three councillors. Dated this sixth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.

(Signed) Thomas Clarkson.
C. W. Heigham."

Now therefore His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court, Brighton, the 4th day of December, 1835.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions thereinbefore contained, to revise the burgess and councillor's lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough, should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year thereinbefore specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times thereinbefore respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent,

limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas Robert Philip Tyrwhitt, of the Middle-temple, Esq. and Edward Gillam White, of the Inner-temple, Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess' and councillors' lists of the borough of Lichfield, in the present year (the said borough of Lichfield being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portion of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the following words, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF THE CITY OF LICHFIELD.

"We, Robert Philip Tyrwhitt, of the Middle-temple, and Edward Gillam White, of the Inner-temple, Barristers at Law, having been duly appointed by Thomas Lord Denman, being the Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Circuit in this year for the Oxford Circuit, to revise the lists of citizens and burgesses for the borough of the said city of Lichfield, and to execute the other duties required by the Statute, fifth and sixth William the Fourth, c. 76, and having heard evidence in that behalf, and having perambulated the boundaries of the said borough, and examined the rate books of the different parishes within the same, do hereby, in pursuance of the directions of the said Act, divide the said borough into two wards, to be named the North Ward and the South Ward, and we do determine and set out the extent, limit, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough shall be included therein respectively, in manner following, that is to say:—that the said North Ward shall contain as well the close of the cathedral church of Lichfield, as also so much of the said city and county as is situate on the northern or left-hand side of a line drawn along the centre of the road leading from Walsall, in the direction through the said borough towards Burton-on-Trent, such line beginning from a point at that place in the hamlet of Tipehill, where the said road enters and cuts the boundary of the said city and county of the same city in the direction aforesaid, such line being produced and extended along the centre of Sandford-street, Bird-street, as far as Sadler-street, Sadler-street, Butcher-row, sometimes called Dam or Conduit-street, Tamworth-street, Greenhill and Burton-road, to a point in the centre of the said last-mentioned road where the same again cuts the boundary of the said city and county of the same city, in the township of Fullin, or of Streathay, or in one or both of them. And we do determine that the said South Ward shall contain so much of the said borough as is situate south, or to the right-hand side of the line hereinbefore described; and we declare that the words right-hand side and left-hand side hereinbefore used in describing the limits of the above wards, are to be taken and understood as used by a person coming from Walsall along the line hereinbefore described towards Burton-on-Trent. And having regard as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons are so rated, we do assign nine councillors to the North Ward, and nine councillors to the South Ward.—In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this seventh day of November, 1835.

(Signed) Robert Philip Tyrwhitt.
Edward Gillam White."

Now therefore, His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December, 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions thereinbefore contained, to revise the burgess' and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette; and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough, should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit, by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas, Peter Heywood, Esq., and Bennet Hoskyns Abrahall, Esq., the barristers appointed in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the Burgess and Councillors' lists of the borough of Liverpool, in the present year (the said borough of Liverpool being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF LIVERPOOL.

"London, October 14th, 1835.

"Whereas we, Peter Heywood and Bennet Hoskyns Abrahall, Esqs., Barristers at Law have, by virtue of an appointment, under the provisions of the Act fifth and sixth William the Fourth, c. 76, been empowered to divide the borough of Liverpool into the number of wards mentioned in conjunction with the name of such borough in Schedule A. to the said Act annexed; and to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively; and further, to apportion among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned in conjunction with the name of such borough in the said Schedule (A.), according to certain rules in the said Act set forth. Now we, in pursuance of such appointment, and of the power so committed to us, do hereby divide the said borough of Liverpool into sixteen wards; and we do hereby determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough shall be included therein, respectively distinguishing such wards by numbers and names in manner following, that is to say, ward No. 1, or Everton Ward, the respective townships of Everton and Kirkdale; ward No. 2, or Scotland Ward. All such portions of the said borough as are included within a line drawn from the western extremity of Beacon's Gutter, on the north of the town eastward, along the boundary of the township of Kirkdale to the point where the same joins the boundary of the township of Everton, thence southward along the boundary of the township of Everton to the point at which the same is met by Rose-place, thence westward along the centre of Rose-place to the point at which the same meets Scotland-road, thence northward along the centre of Bevington-bush to the point at which the same joins Limekiln-lane, thence along the centre of Limekiln-lane to the point at which the same is met by Summer-seat, thence westward along the centre of Summer-seat to the point at which the same joins Arley-street, thence along the centre of Arley-street to the point at which the same meets Vauxhall-road, thence across Vauxhall-road and along the centre of Chisenhale-street across the Leeds and Liverpool Canal to the point at which Chisenhale-street meets Love-lane, thence across Love-lane and along the centre of Chadwick-street to the point at which the same meets Great Howard-street, thence across Great Howard-street and along the centre of Oil-street to the point at which the same meets Waterloo-road, thence across Waterloo-road in a straight line between Waterloo-dock and Clarence-dock to the high water-mark of the River Mersey, thence along the high water-mark of the river Mersey to the point first described. No. 3, or Vauxhall Ward; all such portions of the said borough as are included within a line drawn from the point at which the southern boundary of Scotland Ward, reaches the high water-mark of the river Mersey eastward, along the southern boundary of Scotland Ward to the point at which the same meets Scotland-road, thence southward along the centre of Scotland-road to the point at which the same is met by Addison-street, thence westward along the centre of Addison-street to the point at which the same meets Marybone, thence across Marybone and along the centre of Midghall-street to the point at which the same meets Vauxhall-road, thence northward along the centre of Vauxhall-road to the point at which Leeds-street meets Vauxhall road, thence westward along the centre of Leeds-street to the south-western extremity of the basin of the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, thence northward to the point at which Denison-street meets Great Howard-street, thence westward along the centre of Denison-street to the point at which the same meets Bath-street, thence in a straight line to the north-eastern extremity of Princes'-dock, thence in a straight line between the Princes'-dock and the basin to the high water-mark of the river Mersey, thence along the high water-mark of the river Mersey to the point first described. No. 4, or St. Paul's Ward; all such portions of the said borough as are included within a line drawn from the point at which the southern boundary of Vauxhall Ward reaches the high water-mark of the river Mersey, eastward along the southern boundary of Vauxhall Ward to the point at which the same intersects Marybone, thence southward along the centre of Marybone to the point at which the same joins Tythebarn-street, thence along the centre of Tythebarn-street to the point at which the same meets old Hall-street, thence northward along the centre of old Hall-street to the point at which the same is met by Union-street, thence along the centre of Union-street to the point at which Union-street meet Launcelot's Hey, thence northward along the centre of Launcelot's Hey to the point at which the same meets Queen's-street, thence westward in a straight line across the New-quay and Princes'-dock to the high water-mark of the river Mersey, thence along the high water-mark of the river Mersey, to the point first described. No. 5, or Exchange Ward; all such portions of the said borough as are included within a line drawn from the point at which the southern boundary of Saint Paul's Ward reaches the high water-mark of the river Mersey eastward along the southern boundary of Saint Paul's Ward to the point at which Midghall-street meets Marybone, thence across Marybone along the centre of Addison-street to the point at which the same meets Scotland-road, thence southward along the centre of Scotland-road to the point at which the same joins Scotland-place, thence along the centre of Scotland-road to the point at which the same joins Byrom-street, thence along the centre of Byrom-street to the point at which the same is met by Shaws' Brow, thence westward along the centre of Dale-street to the point at which the same joins Water-street, thence along the centre of Water-street to the point at which the same meets the Goree Piazzas, thence northward in a straight line to the north-easternmost corner of George's-dock, thence westward in a straight line between George's-dock and the basin to the high water-mark of the river Mersey, thence along the high water-mark of the river Mersey to the point first described. No. 6, or Castle-street Ward; all such portions of the said borough as are included within a line drawn from the point at which the southern boundary of Exchange Ward reaches the high water-mark of the river Mersey eastward, along the southern boundary of Exchange Ward to the north-western corners of the old Haymarket, thence southward along the centre of the old Haymarket to the point at which the same is joined by Whitechapel, thence along the centre of Whitechapel to the point at which the same meets Lord-street, thence westward along the centre of Lord-street to the point at which the same intersects the Crescent, thence in a straight line by the south side of St. George's-church to Redcross-street, thence along the centre of Redcross-street to the point at which the same meets Strand-street, thence in a straight line between George's-dock and Canning's-dock to Nova Scotia, thence along the eastern side of Nova Scotia to the south-easternmost corner of the same, thence in a straight line between the Manchester-dock and the Graving-dock to the high water-mark of the river Mersey, and thence along the high water-mark of the River Mersey to the point first described. No. 7, or St. Peter's Ward: All such portions of the said borough as are included within a line drawn from the point at which the southern boundary of Castle-street Ward reaches the high water-mark of the River Mersey eastward, along the southern boundary of Castle-street Ward to the point at which Lord-street joins Church-street, thence along the centre of Church-street to the point at which the same joins Bold-street, thence along the centre of Bold-street to the point at which the same is met by Berry-street, thence southward along the centre of Berry-street to the point at which the same is met by Duke-street, thence westward along the centre of Duke-street to the point at which the same is met by Hanover-street, thence along the centre of Hanover-street to the south easternmost corner of the Custom-house, thence in a straight line between Canning's-dock and Salthouse-dock, and between the Graving-dock and the north end of Treathan-street to the high water mark of the River Mersey, thence along the high water mark of the River Mersey to the point first described. No. 8, or Pitt-street Ward: All such portions of the said borough as are included within a line drawn from the point at which the southern boundary of St. Peter's Ward reaches the high water mark of the River Mersey eastward, along the southern boundary of St. Peter's Ward to the point at which Duke-street is met by Kent-street, thence westward along the centre of Kent-street to the point at which the same meets Park-lane, thence in a straight line to Crosbie-street, thence along the centre of Crosbie-street to the point at which Crosbie-street meets Wapping-place, thence in a straight line to the north eastern corner of the Queen's-dock, thence westward in a straight line between the King's-dock and the Queen's-dock Basin to the high water mark of the River Mersey, thence in a straight line along the high water mark of the River Mersey to the point first described. No. 9, or Great George's Ward: All such portions of the said borough as are included within a line drawn from the point at which the southern boundary of Pitt-street Ward reaches the high water mark of the River Mersey eastward along the southern boundary of Pitt-street Ward to the point at which Kent-street meets Duke-street, thence along the centre of Duke-street to the point at which the same is met by Rathbone-street, thence along the centre of Rathbone-street to the point at which the same meets the boundary of the township of Fofteth-park, thence westward along the boundary of the township of Fofteth-park to the point at which the same reaches the high water mark of the River Mersey, thence along the high water mark of the River Mersey to the point first described. No. 10, or Rodney-street Ward: All such portions of the said borough as are included within a line drawn from the point at which Rathbone-street meets the boundary of the township of Fofteth-park eastward, along the boundary of the township of Fofteth-park to the point at which the same joins the boundary of the township of West Derby, thence northward along the boundary of the township of West Derby to the point at which the same is met by Falkner-street, thence westward along the centre of Falkner-street to the point at which the same meets Hope-street, thence northward along the centre of Hope-street to the point at which the same meets Mount-pleasant, thence westward along the centre of Mount-pleasant to the point at which the same is met by Clarence-street, thence northward along the centre of Clarence-street to the point at which the same meets Brownlow-hill, thence in a straight line across Brownlow-hill to the point at which the same meets Russell-street, thence along the centre of Russell-street to the point at which the same meets Copperas-hill, thence westward along the centre of Copperas-hill to the point at which the same meets Ranelagh-street, thence along the centre of Ranelagh-street to the western corner of the Lyceum, thence eastward along the centre of Bold-street to Berry-street, thence southward along the centre of Berry-street to the point at which the same is met by Duke-street, thence eastward along the centre of Duke-street to the point at which the same is met by Rathbone-street, thence along the centre of Rathbone-street to the point first described. No. 11, or Abercrombie Ward: all such portions of the said borough as are included within a line drawn from the point at which Seymour-street meets the London-road, southward along the centre of Seymour-street to the point at which the same joins Russell-street, thence along the eastern boundary of Rodney-street Ward to the point at which the same meets the boundary of the township of West Derby, thence northward along the boundary of the township of West Derby to the point at which the same is met by Pembroke-place, thence westward along the centre of Pembroke-place to the point first described. No. 12, or Lime-street Ward: all such portions of the said borough as are included within a line drawn from the northern extremity of the old Haymarket, eastward along the centre of Shaw's Brow to the point at which the same is met by Islington, thence along the centre of Islington and Upper Islington to the point at which the same joins the boundary of the township of West Derby, thence southward along the boundary of the township of West Derby to the point at which the same is met by Pembroke-place, thence westward along the centre of Pembroke-place to the point at which the same joins the London-road, thence along the centre of the London-road to the point at which the same is met by Seymour-street, thence southward along the centre of Seymour-street to the point where the same meets Copperas-hill, thence westward along the centre of Copperas-hill to the point at which the same joins Ranelagh-street, thence along the centre of Ranelagh-street to the point at which the same joins Church-street, thence along the centre of Church-street to the point at which the same is met by Whitechapel, thence northward along the centre of Whitechapel to the point at which the same joins the old Haymarket, thence along the centre of the old Haymarket to the point first described. No. 13, or St. Ann's-street Ward: all such portions of the said borough as are included within a line drawn from the point at which Shaw's Brow meets Byrom-street, northward along the centre of Byrom-street to the point at which the same joins Scotland-place, thence along the centre of Scotland-place to the point at which the same joins Scotland-road, thence along the centre of Scotland-road to the point at which the same is met by Rose-place, thence eastward along the centre of Rose-place to the point at which the same meets the boundary of the township of Everton, thence southward along the boundary of the township of Everton to the point at which the same joins the boundary of the township of West Derby, thence westward along the boundary of Lime-street Ward to the point first described. No. 14, or West Derby Ward: all such portions of the township of West Derby as are included within the boundary of the said borough. No. 15, or South Fofteth Ward: all such portions of the township of Fofteth-park as are included within a line drawn from that point of the high water mark of the River Mersey, which is nearest to the north side of the South Ferry-basin, eastward along the northern side of South Ferry-basin and Brunswick-dock to the western extremity of Hill-street, thence along the centre of Hill-street to the point at which the same meets Park-place, thence southward along the centre of Park-place to the point at which the same joins Park-road, thence along the centre of Park-road to the point at which the same is met by the boundary of the said borough, thence westward along the boundary of the said borough to the point at which the same reaches the high-water mark of the River Mersey, thence along the high-water mark of the River Mersey to the point first described. No. 16, or North Fofteth Ward: all such other portions of the township of Fofteth-park as are situate within the limits of the said borough, and not included within the boundary lines of South Fofteth Ward; and further we do hereby apportion among the several wards aforesaid, forty-eight councillors, assigning three councillors to each ward.

(Signed) Peter Heywood.
Bennet Hoskyns Abraham.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December
1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers, appointed in pursuance of the provisions therein before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively; and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit, by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified; or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively on that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf: and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act; instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act: and whereas, Nathaniel Richard Clarke, Esq. and Richard Wildman, Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of the borough of Louth, in the county of Lincoln, in the present year (the said borough of Louth being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

"We Nathaniel Richard Clarke and Richard Wildman, being the barristers appointed by virtue of the Statute, of the fifth and sixth of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," to revise the list of burgesses of the borough of Louth, in the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincoln, do, by virtue of such appointment, hereby divide the said borough of Louth into two wards, to be called the North and South Wards, respectively, and do hereby determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the said wards, and the portions of the said borough to be included therein respectively, as follows, that is to say:—we divide the said borough into two portions by a line, beginning at the western boundary of the said parish of Louth, near the paper-mill, continuing eastward directly through west gate; and through the church yard, on the southern side of the church, thence turning into Upgate, continuing southward and turning into Mercer-row, proceeding along Mercer-row to a building situate in Mercer-row called the New Public Building, thence turning through the Great

Butcher-lane into the Butcher-market, thence continuing eastward down the Butcher-market along the north side of the market-place, past the Fish-market, down Eastgate, leaving the House of Correction on the north, thence continuing along the Eastfield road to the eastern boundary of the parish of Louth, next to Louth park, the said boundary line to pass along and through the centre of the said several streets, roads, and places above-mentioned: and we do hereby further determine, that the said North Ward shall comprise and consist of the portion of the said parish situate and lying on the left or northern side of such boundary line, pursuing the course above-mentioned; and the said South Ward shall comprise and consist of the portion of the said parish situate and lying on the right or southern side of such boundary line: and we do hereby apportion nine councillors to each of the said wards.—As witness our hands, this 27th day of October 1835.

(Signed)

N. R. Clarke.

Richard Wildman."

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Eathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid,

be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough, should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times, for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas, Roger Meeson, Esq. and William Milbourne James, Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess' and councillors' lists of the borough of Macclesfield in the present year (the said borough of Macclesfield, being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such

borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

MACCLESFIELD.

"We, Roger Meeson and William Milbourne James, Esqrs., the Barristers appointed to revise the Burgess lists of the borough of Macclesfield, have divided the said borough into the following wards, that is to say:—the Hurdsfield Ward, the North-west Ward, the South-west Ward, the Sutton Ward, the South-east Ward, and the North-east Ward; to which we have assigned the following boundaries, viz:—1. The Hurdsfield Ward—from the point to the west of the borough, where the Prestbury-lane meets the boundary of the borough at Whitfield-brook, eastward, along the centre of the Prestbury-lane to King Edward-street, and along the centre of King Edward-street across the north end of the Market-place to Brunswick-street, and along the centre of Brunswick-street and Brunswick-hill across the waters to the wooden bridge over the river Rollin, and thence in a straight line to the western end of Waterloo-street, and along the centre of Waterloo-street to the Buxton-road (or common gate), and eastward, along the centre of the Buxton-road to the old Buxton road, and along the centre of the old Buxton road to the boundary of the borough, and thence north-westward along the boundary of the Parliamentary borough to the point first described.—2. The North-west Ward—from the north end of the Market-place, southward, along the centre of the road through the Market-place to Mill-street, and along the centre of Mill-street to Roe-street; and thence along the centre of Roe-street, and Shaw-street, and Catharine-street, to Great King-street, and along the centre of Great King-street and Great Queen-street to the Chester road, and along the centre of the Chester road to the Knutsford road, and along the centre of the Knutsford road through Broken Cross, and along the centre of the New Knutsford road to the boundary of the borough; and northward, along the boundary of the borough, until it meets the boundary of the Hurdsfield Ward at Whitfield-brook, and thence eastward along the boundary of such ward to the point first described.—3. The South-west Ward—from the eastern end of Roe-street, southward, along the centre of Mill-street, and of the road through Park-green to Park-street; and thence along the centre of Park-street to Park-lane, and along the centre of Park-lane to the Congleton road; and thence, southward, along the centre of the Congleton road to the boundary of the borough; and thence, in a northerly direction along the boundary of the borough to the boundary of the north-west ward in the New Knutsford road; and thence, eastward, along the boundary of such ward to the point first described.—4. The Sutton Ward, from the eastern end of Park-street, southward, along the centre of the road through Park-green, as far as a lane opposite the Blue Bell, leading to the river Bollin, and thence down such lane to the centre of the river, and up the centre of the river until it meets the boundary of the township of Sutton, and thence eastward along such boundary until it meets the boundary of the Parliamentary borough, and thence along the Parliamentary boundary in a westerly direction until it meets the boundary of the South-west Ward in the Congleton road, and thence north-eastward along the boundary of such ward to the point first described. Where the boundary between the Sutton township and Macclesfield crosses any building, such building is to be deemed within the Sutton Ward.—5. The South-east Ward—from the western end of Pickford-street, down the centre of such street to the river Bollin, and across the river Bollin in a straight line over the Halls-fields to the southern end of Union-street, and along the centre of Union-street to the Buxton road, and along the centre of the Buxton road to the old Buxton road, and along the centre of the old Buxton road to the boundary of the borough, and thence southward along such boundary until it meets the boundary of the Sutton Ward, and thence in a north-westerly direction along the boundary of the Sutton Ward until it meets the boundary of the South-west Ward at the eastern end of Park-street, and thence northward along the boundary of the South-west Ward to the point first described.—6. The North-east Ward—from the western end of Pickford-street northward along the boundary of the North-west ward to the northern end of the Market-place, and thence eastward along the boundary of the Hurdsfield Ward until it meets the boundary of the South-east Ward at the northern end of Union-street, and thence southward along the boundary of the South-east Ward to the point first described.—Dated this 24th day of October 1835.

(Signed) R. Meeson.
Wm. M. James."

"We, the said Roger Meeson and Wm. Milbourne James, having divided the aforesaid borough of Macclesfield into such wards as aforesaid, do hereby assign to each of such wards the number of six councillors.—October 24th, 1835.

(Signed) R. Meeson.
W. M. James."

Now, therefore, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council,) doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December, 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales, which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain

boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of yards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is hereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough, should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and, (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent,

limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas, Francis Newman Rogers, Esq., and George Poulden, Esq., the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess' and councillors' lists of the borough of Newport, Isle of Wight, in the present year (the said borough of Newport, Isle of Wight, being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF NEWPORT, ISLE OF WIGHT.

"We, Francis Newman Rogers, of the Inner Temple, London, Barrister at Law, and George Poulden, of the Inner Temple, London, Barrister at Law, having been duly appointed by Sir John Gurney, Knt., one of the Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, being the Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Circuit in this year for the county of Southampton, to revise the lists of burgesses for the borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, and to execute the other duties required by the Statute, fifth and sixth William the Fourth, c. 76, and having heard evidence in that behalf, and having perambulated the boundaries of the said borough, and examined the rate books of the different parishes wholly and in part within the same, do hereby, in pursuance of the directions of the said Act, divide the said borough into two wards, to be called the North Ward and South Ward. And we do determine and set out the extent, limit, and boundary line of such wards, and what portions of such borough shall be included therein respectively, in manner following, that is to say:—that the boundary line dividing the said wards shall commence at the point where the boundary line of the said borough crosses the centre of the Gatcombe road, and shall continue thence along the centre of the said road till the same falls into the Carisbrooke road, and thence in a continuous line along the centre of the Carisbrooke road, and along the centre of the street within the castle hold till the same reaches the High-street, and along the centre of the High-street, and thence in a straight line till the same meets the boundary of the said borough, which passes along the stream at Coppius-bridge. And we do further determine that the North

Ward shall contain so much of the chapelry of Newport, and all such parts and portions of the several parishes of Carisbrooke, Saint Nicholas, Northwood, and Whippingham, as lie within the said borough, and are situate on the northern side of the said dividing line; and that the South Ward shall contain so much of the said chapelry of Newport, and all such parts and portions of the said several parishes of Carisbrooke and Saint Nicholas as lie within the said borough, and are situate on the southern side of such dividing line. And having regard, as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward, as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons are so rated, we do assign nine councillors to the said North Ward, and nine councillors to the said South Ward.—In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands this 5th day of November 1835.

(Signed) Fras. Newman Rogers.
Geo. Poulden."

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. E. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December 1835.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place; it was, among other things enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers, appointed in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards; and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of his Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them; and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf: and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers, appointed in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act: and whereas, Thomas Clement Sneyd Kynnersley, of the Middle-temple, Esq. and Christopher William Puller, of Lincoln's-inn, Esq. the barristers, appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of the borough of Newport, in the county of Monmouth, in the present year (the said borough of Newport being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, Thomas Clement Sneyd Kynnersley, of the Middle-temple, Barrister at Law, and Christopher William Puller, of Lincoln's-inn, Barrister at Law, having been duly appointed by the Right Honourable Lord Denman, being the Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Circuit in this year, for the county of Monmouth, to revise the lists of burgesses for the borough of Newport, and to execute the other duties required by the Statute, fifth and sixth William the Fourth, cap. 76, and having heard evidence in that behalf, and having perambulated the said borough, and examined the rate books of the different parishes within the same, do hereby, in pursuance of the directions of the said Act, divide the said borough into two wards, to be called East Ward and West Ward; and we do determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough shall be included therein respectively, in manner following, that is to say:—that East Ward shall contain such part of the parish of Christ Church as is situate within the limits of the borough, and such parts of the old borough of Newport and the parish of Saint Woollos as are included between the River Usk on the east, and a line drawn from the centre of the bridge over the Usk along the centre of High-street, and continued along the centre of Commercial-street and commercial road, as far as the point at which the same is intersected by a line drawn along the centre of Pottery-lane, on the north and west, and a line drawn along the centre of Pottery-lane and continued in the same direction to the river Usk on the south; and that West Ward shall contain all such parts of the said borough as are not included in the above description: and, having regard as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward, as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons are so rated, we do assign nine councillors to each of the said wards. In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this twenty-first day of October 1835.

(Signed) T. C. Sneyd Kynnersley.
C. W. Puller."

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An "Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the Burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit, by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf: and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act: and whereas, Charles Malpas, Esq. and E. H. Chamberlain, Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of the borough of Northampton, in the present year (the said borough of Northampton being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF NORTHAMPTON.

"We the undersigned, being the barristers appointed in pursuance of an Act, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of the borough of Northampton, have, in exercise of the powers therein assigned to us, divided, and do hereby divide, the said borough into three wards, viz. ; the West Ward, the East Ward, and the South Ward; and do hereby determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards respectively, as follows:

The West Ward is bounded on the south by the centre of Gold-street, of Marefair, and of the road leading from thence to the West-bridge; on the east, it is bounded by the centre of the Drapery, the centre of Sheep-street, of North-end, Royal-terrace, and of the turnpike-road leading from thence to Kingsthorpe, as far as the extremity of the liberties of the borough; and extends, on the west, north-west, and north, to the extremity of the said liberties.

The East Ward is bounded on the west by the West Ward, herein-before described, on the south by the south side of All Saints Church-yard, the south end of Wood-hill, and the northern side of the houses on the north side of Saint Giles'-square, and of Saint Giles'-street, as far as the south west corner of Saint Giles' Church-yard, and thence by the centre of the road leading from the said last mentioned Church-yard, eastward towards Billing, to the extremity of the liberties of the borough; on the east it is bounded by the parish of Abington, and on the north east and the north, by the parish of Kingsthorpe.

The South Ward is bounded on the north by the east and west wards, herein-before described, and extends westward, south west, south, south east, and eastward, to the extremity of the liberties of the borough.

And we the said barristers, in further exercise of the said powers, do hereby apportion six councillors to each and every of the above mentioned wards.—Dated this 31st day of October, in the year of our Lord 1835.

(Signed)

Chas. Malpas.
E. H. Chamberlain."

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette, accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

 A continuation of Orders under the provisions of the Municipal Corporation Act, will be published in future Supplements.

Printed and Published at the Office, in Cannon-Row, Parliament-Street, by ROBERT GEORGE CLARKE.

Price Two Shillings and Nine Pence.

