

approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf, in such order as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act; and whereas Edward Drake Brockman, Esq. and Samuel Charles Cross Fish, Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burghess and councillors' lists of the borough of Gravesend, in the present year (the said borough of Gravesend being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively; and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough to one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF GRAVESEND.

"We, Edward Drake Brockman, of the Inner-temple, Barrister at Law, and Samuel Charles Cross Fish, of the Inner-temple, Barrister at Law, having been duly appointed by Sir James Allan Park, Kut., one of His Majesty's Justices of the Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, being the Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Circuit in this year, for the county of Kent, to revise the lists of burghesses for the borough of Gravesend, and to execute the other duties required by the Statute fifth and sixth William the Fourth, c. 76, and having heard evidence in that behalf, and having perambulated the boundaries of the said borough, and examined the rate-books of the different parishes within the same, do hereby, in pursuance of the directions of the said Act, divide the said borough into two wards, to be called Gravesend Ward and Milton-next-Gravesend Ward; and we do determine and set out the extent, limit, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough shall be included therein respectively, in manner following; that is to say, that Gravesend Ward shall consist of the parish of Gravesend, and that Milton-next-Gravesend Ward, shall consist of the parish of Milton-next-Gravesend; and having regard, as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward, as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons are so rated, we do assign nine councillors to the said ward to be called Gravesend Ward, and nine councillors to the ward to be called Milton-next-Gravesend Ward.— In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord 1835.

(Signed) Edward Drake Brockman.
Samuel Charles Cross Fish."

"We do hereby certify that the number of rate-payers and amount of rating in Gravesend Ward, and in Milton-next-Gravesend Ward, in the borough of Gravesend, are as follows: Gravesend Ward, number of rate-payers, 472; amount of rating, £10,622: Milton-next-Gravesend Ward, rate-payers, 619; rating, £11,784 10s.

(Signed) Edward D. Brockman,
Samuel Charles Cross Fish."

Now therefore His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December, 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal Assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and
