

and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively; and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion, among the several wards of such borough, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule; and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said city to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF IPSWICH.

"We, William Elmsley, and John Collyer, Esquires, being the barristers duly appointed in pursuance of the provisions contained in an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act to provide for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales,' to divide the borough of Ipswich into wards, and to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough shall be included therein respectively, do hereby divide the said borough into five wards, that is to say:—The first of such wards to consist of the parish of St. Clements, and that part of the parish of Rushmere, which is situate within the liberties of Ipswich; the second of such wards to consist of the parish of Saint Margaret, and that part of the parish of Westerfield, which is situate within the liberties of Ipswich; the third of such wards to consist of the parishes of Saint Stephen, Saint Lawrence, Saint Helen, Saint Mary Quay, and Saint Mary at Elms; the fourth of such wards to consist of the parishes of Saint Nicholas and Saint Peter, and that part of the parish of Saint Mary Stoke, which is situate within the liberties of Ipswich; the fifth of such wards to consist of the parishes of Saint Matthew, Saint Mary Tower, and such parts of the respective parishes of Whitton, Sproughton, and Bramford, as are respectively situate within the liberties of Ipswich; and we do hereby determine, that every extra-parochial place within the liberties of Ipswich, lying wholly within the ambit of any one of the parishes above mentioned, shall, for the purposes of such division into wards as aforesaid, be deemed to be within and to form part of that parish, and that every extra-parochial place which shall adjoin two or more of the aforesaid parishes, shall for the like purposes be deemed to be within, and to form part of the least populous of such adjoining parishes; and we do hereby assign to each of the said wards six councillors.

(Signed) William Elmsley.
John Collyer."

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales,' which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough, should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned
