

whereof are hereinbefore set out. And we do hereby further determine that Hunslet Ward shall comprise the township of Hunslet, and that Holbeck Ward shall comprise the several townships of Holbeck and Wortley, and that Bramley Ward shall comprise the several townships of Bramley, Arncliffe, Farnley, and Beeston; and also that Headingley Ward shall comprise the several townships of Huddingley-cum-Burley, Chapel Allerton, and Potternewton. And we do hereby declare that whenever in the description of the boundary lines of the several wards so set out as aforesaid, any line is said to pass along or to be drawn to or from any street, road, lane, bridge, river, stream, water-course, or channel, such line shall be considered to pass along or to be drawn to or from the middle of such street, road, lane, bridge, river, stream, water-course, or channel; and that whenever in such description the point at which any street, road, lane, bridge, boundary, river, stream, water-course, or channel is said to meet or cross any street, road, lane, bridge, boundary, river, stream, water-course, or channel, that point shall be considered to be described at which a line passing along the middle of the street, road, lane, bridge, boundary, river, stream, water-course, or channel, so met or crossed, would be intersected by a line drawn along the middle of the street, road, lane, bridge, boundary, river, stream, water-course, or channel so meeting or crossing, if such lines were prolonged sufficiently far. And we the said Thomas Clarkson and Charles William Heigham do hereby, in further pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, assign to each and every of the several wards hereinafter next mentioned; that is to say, Mill Hill Ward, West Ward, Holbeck Ward, and Bramley Ward, the number of six councillors, and to each and every of the remaining wards; that is to say, North West Ward, North Ward, North East Ward, East Ward, Kirkgate Ward, South Ward, Hunslet Ward, and Headingley Ward, the number of three councillors. Dated this sixth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.

(Signed) Thomas Clarkson.
C. W. Heigham."

Now therefore His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court, Brighton, the 4th day of December,

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions thereinbefore contained, to revise the burgess and councillor's lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament: and it is thereby further enacted, that the said barrister or barristers should, after the division of the borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: provided always, that the number of councillors assigned to each ward should be a number divisible by three, and a copy of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the borough, should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (subject as aforesaid to the approval of His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council) should be published in the London Gazette, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be the number to be elected in such ward, and should so continue until the same should be altered by authority of Parliament; and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year thereinbefore specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times thereinbefore respectively mentioned in that behalf; and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent,
