

such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf: and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order, that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act: and whereas, John Davis Chambers and Thomas Erskine Perry, of the Inner-temple, Esqs. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of the borough of New Windsor, in the present year (the said borough of New Windsor being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, in due manner, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said borough, according to the provisions of the said Act, and what portions of the said borough shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such borough into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days, did, in due manner, apportion among the several wards of such borough the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such borough, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said borough, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

BOROUGH OF NEW WINDSOR.

"We, John David Chambers and Thomas Erskine Perry, of the inner-temple, Esqrs. Barristers at Law, having been duly appointed by the Right Honourable Lord Denman, being the Senior Judge in the Commission of Assize for the Summer Circuit in this year for the county of Berks, to revise the lists of burgesses for the borough of New Windsor, and to execute the other duties required by the Statute, fifth and sixth William the Fourth, c. 76, do hereby, in pursuance of the directions of the said Act, divide the said borough into two wards by a boundary line, commencing from the centre of the high road leading from Old Windsor to the town of New Windsor, where the said high road enters the southern boundary of the borough; and from thence, continued along the middle of the said high road, to the south eastern end of Park-street; and from thence, continued along the middle of Park-street and the middle of High-street, to the point opposite and nearest to the centre of the eastern termination of Peascod-street; and from thence, continued through the middle of Peascod-street, to the point opposite and nearest to the centre of the south eastern termination of Clewer-lane; and from thence, continued through the middle of Clewer-lane, to the extreme boundary of the borough on the west.

And we do determine, that all that part of the borough lying on the side of the said boundary line which is towards the River Thames shall be called the In Ward, and that all the remaining part of the borough shall be called the Out Ward.

And, having regard as well to the number of persons rated to the relief of the poor in each ward, as to the aggregate amount of the sums at which all the said persons are so rated, we do assign nine councillors to the said In Ward, and nine councillors to the said Out Ward.—In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands, this 14th day of October 1835.

T. Erskine Perry."

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said borough, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette, accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December 1835.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population, should be divided into wards before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough: and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of any borough in the present year, and he and they was and were thereby required, within the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of such wards, and what portions of such borough should be included therein respectively, and the copy of the particulars of such division, should be forthwith transmitted to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and (if His Majesty, by the advice of His Privy Council, should approve such determination) should be published in the London Gazette, and every such borough should, after such publication as aforesaid, be deemed to be divided into such wards as should be so determined and set out as aforesaid, and such division should continue and be in force until the same should be
