

should be altered by authority of Parliament: provided, always that if His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, should not approve the number of councillors so assigned to each ward, such publication should, nevertheless, be made, and the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of such borough by such barrister, should be the number to be elected in each ward at any election of councillors under the said Act, until such time as His Majesty, should, by advice of His Privy Council, upon further information and report from such barristers, definitively approve such assignment in manner therein-before mentioned: and it was thereby further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty (if he should think fit, by the advice of His Privy Council) to order any days and times, before the first of February next, for doing the several matters required and authorised by the said Act to be done, in lieu of the several days and times for the present year therein-before specified, or any of them: and, in such case, all matters mentioned in such order should be done on and within such days and times as should be mentioned respectively in that behalf in such order, as if the days and times mentioned in such order had in every instance been mentioned in the said Act, instead of the days and times therein-before respectively mentioned in that behalf: and whereas, by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth day of September last, His Majesty (by advice of His Privy Council) did order that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it is provided, by the said Act, that certain boroughs of large population should be divided, and what portions of such boroughs should be included therein respectively, within the space of sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, instead of the space of six weeks next after the passing of the said Act: and whereas, Nathaniel Richard Clarke, Esq. and Richard Wildman Esq. the barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, to revise the burgess and councillors' lists of the city of Lincoln, in the present year (the said city of Lincoln being one of the boroughs included in the said schedule), did, within sixty days next after the passing of the said Act, determine and set out the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards of the said city, and what portions of the said city shall be included therein respectively: and the said barristers, after the division of such city into such number of wards as is directed by the said Act, and within the said period of sixty days did, apportion, among the several wards of such city, the number of councillors mentioned, in conjunction with the name of such city, in the said schedule: and the said barristers have duly transmitted a copy of the particulars of such division, and of the particulars of the number of councillors so assigned to the several wards of the said city, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the words following, that is to say:

CITY OF LINCOLN.

« We, Nathaniel Richard Clarke and Richard

Wildman, being the barristers appointed by virtue of the Statute of the fifth and sixth of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of the municipal corporations in England and Wales," to revise the list of citizens of the city of Lincoln, do, by virtue of such appointment, hereby divide the said city into two wards, to be called the Minster Ward and Bridge Ward respectively, and do hereby determine and set out the extent, limits and boundary lines of the said wards, and the portions of the said city to be included therein respectively, as follows, that is to say:

The Minster Ward shall comprise and consist of the parishes and places under-mentioned (that is to say): Saint John Newport, Saint Nicholas, Saint Paul, Saint Mary Magdalene, Saint Margaret, with the Palace Precinct, Saint Peter in Eastgate, Saint Michael, and Saint Martin; and the said ward to be called the Bridge Ward shall consist of the parishes and places under-mentioned (that is to say): Saint Peter at Arches, Saint Swithin, the liberty of the Monks, Saint Benedict, Saint Mary-le-Wigford, Saint Mark, Saint Peter at Gowls, and Saint Botolph; and we do hereby apportion nine councillors to each of the said wards.—As witness our hands this 28th day of October 1835.

(Signed)

N. R. Clarke.

Richard Wildman.

And whereas the division and assignment so made by the said barristers appear to be in certain particulars liable to objection.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby disapprove of such determination of the said barristers, and of the number of councillors so assigned to each ward of the said city; but, nevertheless, His Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, doth order that the particulars of the division and assignment, so made by the said barristers, shall be published in the London Gazette, in order that such force and validity may be given thereto as is authorised and directed by the said Act.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Brighton, the 4th day of December, 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," which received the Royal assent on the ninth of September last, after reciting that it was expedient that certain boroughs of large population should be divided into wards, before any election of councillors for such boroughs should take place, it was, among other things, enacted, that every borough in the schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, should be divided into the number of wards mentioned in such schedule, in conjunction with the name of such borough; and that it should be lawful for the barrister or barristers appointed, in pursuance of the provisions therein-before contained, to revise the burgess' and councillors'
