LT:ge: funt 2. We have an account from the Canp before Luxemburg, thas the firtt Inflatit the beli. ged beat the Chamade, and that Hoftages were given on both fides, bue that the Mars fchal de Crequi refufing to gramt the Artictes they der manded, the Hoftages were thturned, after a Cellarion of Arms from Four in the Morning till Sis at wight, and they begion again to fire upon each orver.
Brafeis, fume 6. F om Sunday Morning till latt night it: pas generally difcourfed and believed here, that Luxemiung was taker, But tice midake now appears to have been thus: On the firlt InItant the Prince de Chimay percerying the Enemies Mures we e ready to liping, in order to the makiig a general affule, difired a Parley, ard Hollages w re given on both fides, upun wlich the Marefchal de Crequi caufed fix pieces of Cumnon to be lifehargit, the Siznol agresd to be given when the bu fieged begas to capitulate, which wos anfivered from Cbatlemont and the other places berwcen Luxemburg and Valenciennes; and thereupon it was conciuted the Tporn was taken; but the Prince de Cbimay having demanded cight days, in which time it they were nut ralieved. he would furrender the place; the Marefohat de Crequi would not agree to it, and do the : reaty was broken off, and the Holtages ruturned. But yee fear the place in by this time taken, though the befieged ware res fulved to defend it to the laftextremitys, The Marquis de Grana having notice that the Prince of Orange would be latt night at Yilvord, his Excellency went in the Afrertion to maxe his Highner therr, being accompanied by the Mailtre de Camp General, and the Marquis de Bedpery; but they rezurned a ithout feeing his Higheris, who came not to rilurd till it was eory bete; fand this Morning eat hy his Excelisetcy went thither again. this Morking great inumers of Country People fied hitther with their Goods and Cattle from Ninove and thore Quarters; upon the appearance of a great Body of Frenclo Horfe, wha are putting the Country on that fide under Military Execution. Here is arrived an Offcer from the Camp before Luxemburg, from whence he came on Sunday laft, he (ays the befreged did'then fill defend themfelves, and that th: place might bold out yet fome time, if there were mein dnough in it; The Garifon is faid to be reduced to 1500 men. The Prince of Orange went - this Afrerroon from Viluord to Pont Bintz, feveral Regiments b:ing ordered to Rendervous thers, whichare, it's faid, to march towards Ninowe, where the French were this day.
Faris, June $Z$ Out Lesters from the Camp before Luxmburg. give us an account that the Parley which the befi ged defired on the firl Inflant, had been broken off upon their demanding pight tate rime; and thar the following nighr the I rerch ! prang a Mine, aud lodged rhemfelves upon theatracked Baltion, bur with a configerable Jofs, They urice from Yalenciennefsthat the King inrended to part from thence ghe third Inltant fur Cambray; and that the Marefclaal de schoniberg heing the fecond with 1500 Horie very near asonk, the Cavaley of that place made a Sally, but were quictily forced to retrirestagain. We have advice from Gemoua, than the Fpench have'drown fonte thoufind Bombes into that place, which had fet Fire td feveral parts of the Town, and occafioned a great difforder àmong the Peaple ; and that 2000 Lamdrtien and 2000 Seamef cottraanded bye thy Eoke of Mortemay, had made a defcent at St. Pierre ded

Arener, and burnt greaten part of that Suburb, after which, the whid brgining to bl in precry fre $b$, they returred to their Shyps and Gaileys: In thishofifecat the French tit fevcral
