FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1836.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 1, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Tuesday the 23d of February next, at two o'clock, on Wednesday the 2d of March, and on every succeeding Wednesday till further orders.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend His Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on the Saturday previous to the Levee on the 23d of February, and on the Monday previous to each succeeding Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 1, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Drawing-Room to be held at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 24th of February next, being for the celebration of Her Majesty's Birth-day, the Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 10th day of January 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" it is enacted, "that, from and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, all persons who, in conformity with the laws now in force in the said colonies respectively, shall, on or before the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, have been duly registered as slaves in any such colony, and who, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall be actually within any such colony, and who shall by such registries appear to be, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, of the full age of six years or upwards, shall, by force and virtue of the said Act, and without the previous execution of any indenture of apprenticeship, or any other deed or instrument for that purpose, become and be apprenticed labourers"; and whereas, by the said Act it is further enacted, that, subject to the obligations imposed by the said Act, or to be imposed as therein mentioned upon such apprenticed labourers as aforesaid, all and every the persons who, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall be holden in slavery within any such British colony as aforesaid shall, upon, and from and after the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, become and be, to all intents and purposes, freed and discharged of and from all manner of slavery, and shall be absolutely and for ever manumitted; and that the children thereafter to be born to any such persons, and the offspring of such children, shall, in like manner, be free from their birth; and that, from and after the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, slavery shall be, and is thereby, utterly and for ever abolished and declared unlawful throughout the British colonies, plantations, and possessions abroad:

And whereas by the said Act it is provided, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury may raise the sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling, towards compensating the persons entitled to the services of the slaves to be manumitted and set free by virtue of the said Act, for the loss of such services:

And whereas in the said Act it is recited, that various rules and regulations are or may be necessary for the purposes therein specified and that such regulations could not without great inconvenience, be made, except by the respective governors councils, and assemblies, or other local legislatures of the said respective colonies, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, in reference to those colonies to which the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council extends; and it is, therefore, by the said Act enacted and declared, that nothing in the said Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the enactment, by the respective governors, councils, and assemblies, or by such other local legislatures as aforesaid, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, of any such Acts of General Assembly, or Ordinances, or Orders in Council, as might be requisite for making and establishing such several rules and regulations as aforesaid, or any of them, or for carrying the same, or any of them, into full and complete effect:

And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that no part of the said sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling shall be applied or shall be applicable to the purposes therein aforesaid, for the benefit of any person entitled to the services of any slave in any of the colonies therein aforesaid, unless an Order shall have been first made by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, declaring that adequate and satisfactory provision has been made by law in such colony for giving effect to the said Act, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned; nor unless a copy of such Order in Council, duly certified by one of the Clerks in Ordinary of His Majesty's Privy Council, shall, by the Lord President of the Council, have been transmitted to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or to the Lord High Treasurer, for the time being, for their or his guidance or information; and every such Order shall be published three several times in the London Gazette, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, within six weeks next after the date thereof, if Parliament shall be then in session, and if not, within six weeks from the then next ensuing session of Parliament:

And whereas, in order to carry into effect, the objects of the said recited Act, an Act hath been passed by the President, Council, and Assembly of the island of Nevis, intituled "An Act to provide for the maintenance, protection, and good government of apprenticed labourers, and to settle the jurisdiction and authority of special magistrates;" also "An Act to establish a local constabulary force on the several plantations in this island;" and also "An Act to alter and amend an Act, intituled 'An Act to provide for the maintenance, protection, and good government of apprenticed labourers, and to settle the jurisdiction and authority of special magistrates:'"

And whereas it is considered, by His Majesty in Council, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the said island of Nevis, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Act:

His Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare, and it is hereby declared, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the said island of Nevis, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein are mentioned:

And the Right Honourable the Marquess of Lansdowne, the President of His Majesty's Privy Council, and the Right Honourable Lord Glenelg, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

CHAPLAINS' BOUNTY.

MONEY being in the hands of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy to pay Bounty for the year 1835, to such Chaplains of the Royal Navy as are entitled thereto under His Majesty's Orders in Council; notice is hereby given, that the payment of the same will commence at the Pay-Office, Somerset-place, on Monday the 1st February next, at eleven o'clock in the morning.

And it is desired that, in future, the Chaplains entitled to the Bounty will, as soon as it may become due, cause their declarations to be delivered into this Office, in order to expedite the payment.

THE Commissioners for paving, &c. that part of the parish of Clerkenwell called St. James's, do hereby, in pursuance of the direction in that behalf contained in a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, chap. 29, sect. 99, intituled "An Act for better paving, improving, and regulating the streets of the metropolis, and removing and preventing nuisances and obstructions therein," give notice, that they will, on the 25th day of March now next ensuing, pay off one other fourth part of the principal money and interest secured by an assignment, for which the sum of £2000 was paid into the hands of the said Commissioners by George Vance, of No. 27, Sackville-street, Esq.; and the said George Vance, or any other person or persons legally holding the said assignment, is and are hereby required to take notice, that he or they may, on or after the said 25th day of March now next ensuing, receive and be paid the said other fourth part of such principal money and interest, by applying at the Office of the said Commissioners for paving, &c. Upper Rosoman-street, Clerkenwell; upon which said 25th day of March now next ensuing, all interest will cease to be paid upon the said other fourth part of the principal money secured by the said assignment. Dated this 20th day of January 1836.

Thomas Cromwell, Clerk to the said Commissioners.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Office of Ordnance, Pall-Mall,
January 4, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply the following articles for the use of the Army; the deliveries of which are to commence on and for the 1st day of March 1836, and to continue (subject to the usual conditions of the contracts) until the following periods:

Meat, 31st March; Bread, Forage, Oats,
30th April; both days inclusive, viz.

BEEF and MUTTON, to His Majesty's Land Forces (the Foot Guards excepted) in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned Counties and Island,

Berks,	Lancaster,
Devon,	Lincoln,
Dorset,	Norfolk,
Essex,	Somerset,
Gloucester,	Suffolk,
Hants,	Warwick;
Isle of Wight,

And in North and South Wales;

BREAD, to His Majesty's Land Forces (the Foot Guards excepted) in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the under-mentioned County,

Devon;

FORAGE, to His Majesty's Cavalry and Artillery Horses in Barracks, in the under-mentioned Counties,

Berks,	Norfolk,
Essex,	Northumberland,
Lancaster,	Warwick,
Middlesex,	York;

OATS, to His Majesty's Cavalry and Artillery Horses in Cantonments and Quarters, in the under-mentioned Counties,

Hants,

That proposals in writing, addressed to the Secretary to the Board, sealed up and marked on the outside "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at the Ordnance-Office, Pall-Mall, on or before Tuesday the 9th day of February next; but none will be received after eleven o'clock on that day

Proposals must be made separately for each county and island, except for the counties comprising North and South Wales, all of which must be included in one tender; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed form of tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied by virtue of the same, the amount of the stamps on the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, will be refunded to him.

Persons who may make tenders are particularly requested not to make use of any forms but those recently printed, which may be had upon application at the Office of the Secretary to the Board of Ordnance, Pall-Mall, between the hours of ten and four.

N. B. The practice of allowing letters to and from Contractors and their Agents, to pass free of postage, is discontinued; but the official correspondence between the Contractors and Regimental and other Officers will be forwarded as usual. The Board of Ordnance and their Officers will not, however, be responsible for any letters, money, or orders for money, which may be so forwarded.

By order of the Board,
R. Byham, Secretary.

ALL persons having any claim or demand against the estate of William Parrott, late of Sipson, in the Parish of Hammonds-worth, deceased, are requested forthwith to send the particulars thereof to Mrs. Parrott, Widow and Administratrix, or to Mr. William Lane, of Frith-Street, Soho, her Solicitor.

[Extract from the Dublin Gazette of January 9, 1836.]

TAKE notice, that I, the Reverend Clement Wolsey, of No. 28, Upper Fitzwilliam-Street, in the City of Dublin, have made a demand from the principal occupier of the premises hereinafter mentioned, as landlord thereof, of the several fines due to me as landlord of all that and those the large brick house on the west side of Saint Stephen's Green, formerly in the possession of Jane Pierce, Widow, and after in the possession of the Right Honourable Garret Earl of Mornington, together with the back side, garden, and offices behind the same, containing in the front of said dwelling-house to Stephen's-Green, 34 feet, and in rear from the front of said dwelling-house to Glover's-Alley 261 feet, be the same more or less, with the appurtenances; and also the house or tenement in Gregory's-Lane, at the end of the said garden, wherein Sir Ralph Freke formerly dwelt, and formerly in the possession of Elizabeth Bligh, Widow, deceased, with the back sides, garden, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, containing in front to Glover's Alley 57 feet, be the same more or less, with all rights, members, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, in as full, large, and ample manner as the said Jane Pierce, Widow, formerly held and enjoyed the same, and as Anthony Lord Brabazon also formerly held and enjoyed the same; all which said premises are situate, lying, and being in the Parish of Saint Peter's, in the County of the City of Dublin; and which said fines are due to me as landlord as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the covenant for renewal in the last renewal lease of said premises, bearing date the 3d day of September, in the year 1803, and made between Sir William Wolsey, Bart. of the one part; and Thomas Sherlock, of James's-Street, in the City of Dublin, Brewer, and Thomas Conroy, of the Grand Canal Harbour, in the County of the said City, Timber-Merchant, of the other part; the several lives therein having all long since dropped.—June 10, 1835.

CLEMENT WOLSELEY, Landlord, No. 28, Upper Fitzwilliam-Street, Dublin.

To all whom it may concern.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Parsons versus Holl, before William Brougham, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, in the month of February 1836;

A dwelling-house, with a warehouse and coal-shed, on the west side of Carpenter-Street, Grosvenor-Square, in the County of Middlesex, and the goodwill and trade of a retail Coal and Coke Dealer, carried on therein by the late Richard Parsons, deceased; and four dwelling-houses on the east and west sides of Carpenter-Street aforesaid, held under a lease from the Marquess of Westminster, for a long term, at a ground rent.

The day of sale will shortly be published, when printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings; of Mr. Richard Smith, Solicitor, 67, Chancery-Lane; Messrs. Browne, Martin and Thomas, Solicitors, Commercial-Chambers, Mitcheing Lane; Mr. Bartley, Solicitor, Somerset-Street, Portman Square; and of Messrs. Hill and Randall, Solicitors, 36, Welbeck-Street, Cavendish-Square.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Harrison v. Harrison, it is referred to Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court, whether the eleven societies mentioned in the will of Henry Harrison, late of Exmouth-Street, Clerkenwell, in the County of Middlesex, Gentleman (the testator in the pleadings of this cause mentioned), dated the 19th day of May 1821, are now in existence, or whether any and which of them have been dissolved or discontinued; and whereas the societies mentioned in such will are therein described as follow, that is to say, the society for the relief of the Poor Pious Clergymen in the Established Church, which then or lately had been held in the Castle and Falcon, Aldersgate-Street; the society called the London Itinerant Society, then held at Surrey Chapel, known by the name of the Rev. Rowland Hill's Chapel; the school known by the name of the Friendly Society, held in Fox-Court, Gray's-Inn-Lane; the society known by the name of the Good Samaritan Society, held in New-Street, Gough-Square; the society called the London Society, held in North-Street, Finsbury-Square; the society then or lately held at No. 10, Nevil's-Court, Fetter-Lane, for carrying on the Gospel among the Heathen; the society for the relief of the Deaf and Dumb persons, situate in the Kent-Road, in the County of Surrey; the voluntary society meeting in London, commonly called the Society for Missions to Africa and the East; the society for carrying on a Sunday school then held in Shoe-Lane; the Benevolent and Maternal Society, held at Spa-Fields Chapel, for the relief and assistance in Child-birth of Poor Married Women at their own habitations; the meeting or chapel of the Particular Baptists, behind the White Horse Inn, in Downton, in the County of Wilts:—Now, therefore, such of the said societies as are existing, are hereby required to come in, on or before the 22d day of February 1836, by their proper officers, and make out their claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be preemptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Clarke versus Clarke, it was referred to John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court, what children of the defendant John Were Clarke, of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, Esq. and Mary Ann Were Welsford, in the plaintiff's Bill named respectively, were living, and what were the ages of such children respectively, and also whether the said defendant John Were Clarke, and Mary Ann Were Welsford, respectively, had had any other and what children who lived to attain the age of twenty-one years and had since died, and who were or was their legal personal representatives or representative respectively:—therefore any person or persons claiming to be such children as aforesaid, or claiming to be the legal personal representatives or representative of any of such children who lived to attain the age of twenty-one years, and have since died, are or is, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in before the said Master, Mr. Dowdeswell, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove such identity or representation as aforesaid, or in default thereof such persons will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes of Greenwood against Churchill, and Robinson against Lord Carrington, it was ordered that it should be referred to the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, to take an account of what is due for principal and interest to the plaintiff Keziah Greenwood, and to several of the defendants in the said causes; in respect to their several securities; and also to enquire and state to the Court, whether the estates and premises comprised in certain indentures of the 17th and 18th days of July 1825, and the said several securities, or any of them, are subject to any and what other charge or incumbrance, and the priorities thereof respectively, and who are entitled thereto, and how much is due in respect thereof:—therefore all persons, other than as aforesaid, claiming to be entitled to any charge or incumbrance on the said estates, are forthwith to come in and make out their claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The estates and premises comprised in the said indentures, are situate in the Parishes of Deddington, Tridwell, Souldern, Clifton, Westcott Barton, and Steeple Barton, in the County of Oxford, and were late the property of Mr. Samuel Churchill, a Bankrupt.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Barton against Barton, the Creditors of William Henry Barton, late of Hadlow, in the County of Kent, Farmer and Miller, deceased (who died on or about the 15th day of November 1834), are, on or before 15th day of February 1836, to come in and prove their debts before the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be preemptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause in which the President, Vice Presidents, Treasurer, and Members of the School for the Indigent Blind are plaintiffs, and James Goren is defendant, and in another cause between the same plaintiffs, and Thomas John Green and others defendants; all persons claiming to be the Next of Kin of Susannah Curtis, formerly of Park-Lane, in the County of Middlesex; but late of Thistle-Grove, Brompton, in the same County, Widow, at the time of her decease (which happened on or about the 1st day of November 1832), or to be the legal personal representatives of any of such next of kin who have since died, are forthwith to come in and make out their kindred and prove their claims before the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
