FRIDAY, JANUARY 29, 1836.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 1, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Tuesday the 23d of February next, at two o'clock, on Wednesday the 2d of March, and on every succeeding Wednesday till further orders.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend His Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on the Saturday previous to the Levee on the 23d of February, and on the Monday previous to each succeeding Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 1, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Drawing-Room to be held at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 24th of February next, being for the celebration of Her Majesty's Birth-day, the Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 16th day of January 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" it is enacted, "that, from and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, all persons who, in conformity with the laws now in force in the said colonies respectively, shall, on or before the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, have been duly registered as slaves in any such colony, and who, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall be actually within any such colony, and who shall by such registries appear to be, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, of the full age of six years or upwards, shall, by force and virtue of the said Act, and without the previous execution of any indenture of apprenticeship, or any other deed or instrument for that purpose, become and be apprenticed labourers"; and whereas, by the said Act it is further enacted, that, subject to the obligations imposed by the said Act, or to be imposed as therein mentioned upon such apprenticed labourers as aforesaid, all and every the persons who, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall be holden in slavery within any such British colony as aforesaid shall, upon, and from and after the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, become and be, to all intents and purposes, freed and discharged of and from all manner of slavery, and shall be absolutely and for ever manumitted; and that the children thereafter to be born to any such persons, and the offspring of such children, shall, in like manner, be free from their birth; and that, from and after the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, slavery shall be, and is thereby, utterly and for ever abolished and declared unlawful throughout the British colonies, plantations, and possessions abroad:

And whereas by the said Act it is provided, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury may raise the sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling, towards compensating the persons entitled to the services of the slaves to be manumitted and set free by virtue of the said Act, for the loss of such services:

And whereas in the said Act it is recited, that various rules and regulations are or may be necessary for the purposes therein specified, and that such regulations could not without great inconvenience, be made, except by the respective governors' councils, and assemblies, or other local legislatures of the said respective colonies, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, in reference to those colonies to which the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council extends; and it is, therefore, by the said Act enacted and declared, that nothing in the said Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the enactment, by the respective governors, councils, and assemblies, or by such other local legislatures as aforesaid, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, of any such Acts of General Assembly, or Ordinances, or Orders in Council, as might be requisite for making and establishing such several rules and regulations as aforesaid, or any of them, or for carrying the same, or any of them, into full and complete effect:

And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that no part of the said sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling shall be applied or shall be applicable to the purposes therein aforesaid, for the benefit of any person entitled to the services of any slave in any of the colonies therein aforesaid, unless an Order shall have been first made by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, declaring that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in such colony for giving effect to the said Act, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned; nor unless a copy of such Order in Council, duly certified by one of the Clerks in Ordinary of His Majesty's Privy Council, shall, by the Lord President of the Council, have been transmitted to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or to the Lord High Treasurer, for the time being for their or his guidance or information; and every such Order shall be published three several times in the London Gazette, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, within six weeks next after the date thereof, if Parliament shall be then in session, and if not, within six weeks from the then next ensuing session of Parliament:

And whereas, in order to carry into effect the objects of the said recited Act, an Act hath been passed by the President, Council, and Assembly of the island of Nevis, intituled "An Act to provide for the maintenance, protection, and good government of apprenticed labourers, and to settle the jurisdiction and authority of special magistrates;" also "An Act to establish a local constabulary force on the several plantations in this island;" and also "An Act to alter and amend an Act, intituled 'An Act to provide for the maintenance, protection, and good government of apprenticed labourers, and to settle the jurisdiction and authority of special magistrates:':"

And whereas it is considered by His Majesty in Council, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the said island of Nevis, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Act:

His Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare, and it is hereby declared, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the said island of Nevis, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein are mentioned:

And the Right Honourable the Marquess of Lansdowne, the President of His Majesty's Privy Council, and the Right Honourable Lord Glenelg, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Rathurst.

[Extract from the Dublin Gazette of January 9, 1836.]

TAKE notice, that I, the Reverend Clement Wolseley, of No. 28, Upper Fitzwilliam-Street, in the City of Dublin, have made a demand from the principal occupier of the premises hereinafter mentioned, as landlord thereof, of the several fines due to me as landlord of all that and those the large brick house on the west side of Saint Stephen's-Green, formerly in the possession of Jane Pierce, Widow, and after in the possession of the Right Honourable Garret Earl of Mornington, together with the back side, garden, and offices behind the same, containing in the front of said dwelling-house to Stephen's-Green, 34 feet, and in rear from the front of said dwelling-house to Glover's-Alley 261 feet, be the same more or less, with the appurtenances; and also the house or tenement in Gregory's-Lane, at the end of the said garden, wherein Sir Ralph Freke formerly dwelt, and formerly in the possession of Elizabeth Bligh, Widow, deceased, with the back sides, garden, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, containing in front to Glover's Alley 57 feet, be the same more or less, with all rights, members, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, in as full, large, and ample manner as the said Jane Pierce, Widow, formerly held and enjoyed the same, and as Anthony Lord Brabazon also formerly held and enjoyed the same; all which said premises are situate, lying, and being in the Parish of Saint Peter's, in the County of the City of Dublin; and which said fines are due to me as landlord as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the covenant for renewal in the last renewal lease of said premises, bearing date the 3d day of September, in the year 1803, and made between Sir William Wolseley, Bart. of the one part; and Thomas Sherlock, of James's-Street, in the City of Dublin, Brewer, and Thomas Conroy, of the Grand Canal Harbour, in the County of the said City, Timber-Merchant, of the other part; the several lives therein having all long since dropped.—June 10, 1835.

CLEMENT WOLSELEY, Landlord, No. 28, Upper Fitzwilliam-Street, Dublin.

To all whom it may concern.

THO be peremptorily sold by auction, pursuant to a Decree of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, made in a cause Jennings v. Willoughby, before William Shawe, Esq. Registrar of the said Court, at the House of Benjamin Oldfield, the White Bear Inn, in Piccadilly, in Manchester, in the said County of Lancaster, on Monday the 15th day of February 1836, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, subject to such conditions as shall be then produced;

All that messuage or dwelling-house, used as a Public-house and Spirit-vaults, and called the Victory Tavern, fronting into Angel-Street and Ashley-Lane, in Manchester aforesaid, now in the occupation of Mr. John Coates, as tenant thereof.

The above premises are freehold of inheritance, and are free from all chief or ground rent. The house is very eligibly situated for a Tavern and Spirit-Vaults, in consequence of its peculiar frontage to two distinct streets, in one of the most populous districts of Manchester.

The tenant will shew the premises; and printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the Registrar's Office, in Preston, and at the Office of Messrs. Higson and Son, Solicitors, in Manchester.

DORKING, SURREY.

TO be sold, at Dorking, in the month of February 1836, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Williams versus Lanham, with the approbation of George Roone Roupell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court;

A freehold dwelling-house, situate in High-Street, in the Town of Dorking, now in the occupation of Mr. Henry Lanham, consisting of a bow-fronted room, formerly used as a shop, and a sitting-room behind, four bed-rooms, and two cellars, with a yard behind the house; immediate possession may be had.

Printed particulars are preparing and may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; and of Messrs. Hillier, Lewis, and Hillier, Solicitors, 6, Raymond-Buildings, Gray's-Inn; Mr. W. P. Clarke, Solicitor, New North-Street, Red Lion-Square, London; and of Messrs. Hart and Son, Solicitors, Dorking.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Rowe versus Mullis, with the approbation of Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room, Southampton-Buildings, London, on Wednesday the 24th day of February 1836, at the hour of Two o'Clock in the Afternoon;

Certain fee simple and leasehold lands, tenements, and hereditaments, the leasehold being for the residue of a term of one thousand years, situate in the several Parishes of Trewen and Southpetherwyn, in the County of Cornwall, and now in the several occupations of Roger Rowe and Catharine Mullis.

The property may be viewed on application to the tenants, and printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the Master's Chambers, Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Mr. Richard Kingdon Frost, Solicitor, Launceston, Cornwall; of Mr. Corde, Solicitor, 8, Guilford-Street, London; of Mr. Morgan, Solicitor, Launceston; and of Mr. Meggy, Solicitor, Crutched-Friars, London.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Menlove versus Lloyd, with the approbation of the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court;

Certain freehold estates, called the Osbaston and Pentre-Maes, or Maesbury Estates, situate in the several Townships of Osbaston and Maesbury, in the several Parishes of Kinnerley and Oswestry, in the County of Salop, containing 269A. or thereabouts, of arable, meadow, and pasture land, with farm-houses and suitable farm buildings, and several cottages and gardens, the property of the defendant Thomas Lloyd, Esq.

The time and place of sale will be shortly advertised, and particulars, which are in a course of preparation, will be published in due time.

TO be resold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Hughes versus Wynne, with the approbation of Henry Martin, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, in one lot (being lot 8 of the former sale);

A messuage and farm, called Ty-Rhedin, with outbuildings, sheep-walk, and lands, containing 82A. 2R. 29P. situate in the Parish of Llanfihangel, in the County of Denbigh.

The time of sale will shortly be advertised, when printed particulars and conditions of sale may be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; also of Messrs. Atkinson and Pilgrim, Solicitors, Church-Court, Lothbury; Mr. W. N. Cole, Solicitor, 38, Great Ormond-Street; Messrs. Richards and Clarke, Solicitors, Chapel-Street, Bedford-Row; Mr. E. R. Butler, Solicitor, Temple-Chambers, Fleet-Street; Mr. Yatman, Solicitor, Great Russell-Street, Bloomsbury; Mr. Toulmin, Solicitor, 6, Furnival's-Inn, London; also of Messrs. Oldfield, Solicitors, Farm, near Abergole, and at Holywell; Mr. Roberts, Bottiger, near Coraen; and at the principal Inns in the neighbourhood.

WHEREAS by an indenture of three parts, bearing date the 12th day of September 1744, and made between John Welchman, of Brackley, in Northamptonshire, Gentleman, and John Welchman, of Banbury, in the County of Oxford, Gentleman (only son and heir apparent of the said John Welchman), of the first part; the Honourable Benjamin Bathurst, of Fulwell, in the said County of Oxford, Henry Purefoy, of Shaldston, in the County of Buckingham, Esq. Thomas Forsbill, of Turweston, in Buckingham aforesaid, Gentleman, William Loxeday, Esq.
