TAKE notice, that I, the Reverend Clement Wolseley, of No. 28, Upper Fitzwilliam-Street, in the City of Dublin, have made a demand from the principal occupier of the premises hereinafter mentioned, as landlord thereof, of the several fines due to me as landlord of all that and those the large brick house on the west side of Saint Stephen's-Green, formerly in the possession of Jane Piersse, Widow, and after in the possession of the Right Honourable Garret Earl of Mornington, together with the back side; garden, and offices behind the same, containing in the front of said dwelling-house to Stephen's-Green, 34 feet, and in rear from the front of said dwelling-house to Glover's-Alley 261 feet, be the same more or less, with the appurtenances; and also the house or tenement in Gregory's-Lane, at the end of the said garden, wherein Sir Ralph Freke formerly dwelt, and formerly in the possession of Elizabeth Bligh, Widow, deceased, with the back sides, garden, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, containing in front to Glover's-Alley 57 feet, be the same more or less, with all rights, members, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, in as full, large, and ample manner as the said Jane Pierse, Widow, formerly held and enjoyed the same, and as Anthony Lord Brabazon also formerly held and enjoyed the same; all which said premises are situate, lying, and being in the Parish of Saint Peter's, in the County of the City of Dublin; and which said fines are due to me as landlord as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the covenant for renewal in the last renewal lease of said premises, bearing date the 3d day of September, in the year 1803, and made between Sir William Wolseley, Bart. of the one part; and Thomas Sherlock, of James's-Street, in the City of Dublin, Brewer, and Thomas Conroy, of the Grand Canal Harbour, in the County of the said City, Timber-Merchant, of the other part; the several lives therein having all long since dropped.—June 10, 1835.

CLEMENT WOLSELEY, Landlord, No. 28, Upper Fitzwilliam-Street, Dublin.

To all whom it may concern.

VICE-CHANCELLOR.—Wednesday, the 20th day of January, in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, 1836, between Sarah Brett, Spinster, plaintiff; John Spencer Colepeper and Thomas Hacker Body, defendants (by Original Bill):—and between Sarah Brett, Spinster, plaintiff; John Spencer Colepeper, Thomas Hacker Body, and Augustus Lernout Whitmore, defendants (by Original and Amended and Reamended Bill):—and between Sarah Brett, Spinster, plaintiff; John Spencer Colepeper, Thomas Hacker Body, and Augustus Lernout Whitmore, defendants (by Supplemental Bill).

UPON opening of the matter this present day unto this Court, by Mr. Rudall, of Counsel for the plaintiff, it was alleged, that it appears by the affidavit of John Llewellyn, David Hughes, and Robert Stanton, that the plaintiff's original bill in this cause was filed on the 11th day of July 1834, for the purpose of setting aside a certain memorandum of agreement, dated the 22d day of May then last, and certain indentures of lease and release, of the 9th and 10th days of June then last, and a certain indenture of lease executed by the said defendant, John Spencer Colepeper, dated the 11th day of the said month of June, in the said bill more particularly mentioned, upon the ground of fraud; and that the deponent, John Llewellyn, did, on the said 11th day of June 1834, serve the said John Spencer Colepeper with a subpoena issuing out and under the seal of this Court, by delivering a true copy of the said subpoena unto the said John Spencer Colepeper, who was commanded to appear in this Court, within four days from the service thereof, at the suit of the said plaintiff; and, at the time of such service as aforesaid, the said deponent produced and shewed the said defendant, John Spencer Colepeper, the said original subpoena so under seal as aforesaid; and that the said John Spencer Colepeper having refused or neglected to appear as aforesaid to the said bill of complaint, an attachment, issuing out of and under the seal of this Court, was issued against the said John Spencer Colepeper for his said contempt in not appearing as aforesaid to the said bill, and the said plaintiff hath been unable to arrest him by virtue thereof; that from the statements in the answer of the defendant, Thomas Hacker Body, to the said original bill, it became necessary to amend the said bill, and which said bill being amended accordingly, destroyed the effect of the said contempt in not appearing to the said original bill as aforesaid; that the plaintiff having been advised by Counsel that a supplemental bill ought to be filed, for the purpose of obtaining an injunction to restrain certain proceedings at law commenced by the defendant, Augustus Lernout Whitmore, as the Attorney for and on the behalf of the defendant, John Spencer Colepeper, against the plaintiff; and by an order of this Court made in this cause, dated the 23d day of November last, it was ordered, that the service of the said subpoena to appear to and answer the said plaintiff's said original and amended and reamended bill and supplemental bill on the defendant,

John Spencer Colepeper's, Attorney at Law, should be good service on the said defendant; that it appears by the affidavit of Robert Stanton, that he did, on the 3d day of December last, duly serve the said Augustus Lernout Whitmore (who is the Attorney at Law for the said defendant, John Spencer Colepeper) with a subpoena to appear in this Court, within four days (exclusive of the day of such service) to the plaintiff's original and amended and reamended bill and supplemental bill in this cause; and the said deponent, at the time of such service, also served the said Augustus Lernout Whitmore with the said order: that it further appears, by the said affidavit of the said John Llewellyn, David Hughes, and Robert Stanton, that the said deponent, David Hughes, did, on or about the 5th day of July 1834, call on (amongst other persons) the defendant, Augustus Lernout Whitmore, for the purpose of ascertaining the place of residence of the said John Spencer Colepeper, when the Clerk of the said Augustus Lernout Whitmore, by the order and direction of the said Augustus Lernout Whitmore, gave to the said deponent a paper writing, purporting that to be the address of the said John Spencer Colepeper, by which he was described as residing at No. 19, Trafalgar-Street, Walworth, in the County of Surrey, where the said deponent proceeded, and although he made very diligent search and enquiry for the said John Spencer Colepeper at every house No. 19, and at many other houses there, the said deponent could not discover the said John Spencer Colepeper, nor could he find that he was known in that street or neighbourhood; and the deponent, John Llewellyn, has, on several occasions, made very diligent search and enquiry for the purpose of finding the said John Spencer Colepeper, and that on the 11th day of January instant, the said deponent again went to every house No. 19, Trafalgar-Street aforesaid, and enquired for the said John Spencer Colepeper, and the said deponent was informed that the said John Spencer Colepeper did not reside at either of the said houses, nor was he known in that street or neighbourhood; and that the said John Spencer Colepeper hath not yet appeared to the said plaintiff's said original and amended and reamended bill and supplemental bill, as commanded by the said last mentioned subpoena; and the said deponent verily believes such address to be a fictitious address, and that the said John Spencer Colepeper absconds to avoid appearing to the plaintiff's bills in this cause:—Whereupon, and upon hearing the said affidavit of the said John Llewellyn, David Hughes, and Robert Stanton, and the affidavit of the said Robert Stanton read, this Court doth order that the defendant, John Spencer Colepeper, do appear to the plaintiff's said original and amended and reamended bill and supplemental bill, on or before the 9th day of February 1836.
