WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of Our late Royal Father, His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the gold and silver coinage of the Realm," the Master and Worker of Our Mint, in London, was empowered to coin silver bullion into silver coins of the standard of eleven ounces and two pennyweights of fine silver, and eighteen pennyweights of alloy to the pound troy, and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy; and whereas We have thought fit to order that certain pieces of silver money should be coined to be called groats, or fourpences, and to be of the value, each, of one-third part of a shilling; and whereas, pursuant to Our said Order, and in virtue of the power given by the said Act, a coinage of the said groats or fourpences, at the rate and of the standard aforesaid, has been made, and every such groat or fourpence has for the obverse impression, Our Effigy, with the inscription, "Gulielmus III. D. G. Britanniar. Rex F. D." and for the reverse, a figure of Britannia, holding the Trident with one hand, and having the other hand placed upon a shield, bearing the Union Cross, with the words "Four Pence" round the figure, and the date of the year in the exergue, and with a milled graining round the edge; and whereas, pieces of silver money of the above description have been coined at Our Mint, and will be coined there, in pursuance of Orders issued, and to be issued, by Us; We have, therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation; and we do hereby ordain, declare, and command that the said pieces of money so coined, and to be coined, shall be current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom, by the names aforesaid, and at the value hereinbefore assigned to them,

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, this third day February, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and in the sixth year of Our reign.

At the Court at St. James's, February 5, 1836.

A CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned for this day, the following Knights Companions, in their mantles and collars, assembled in the Entrée-room, viz: His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, Prince George of Cambridge, the Earl of Westmorland, the Marquess Camden, the Duke of Newcastle, the Duke of Wellington, the Duke of Dorset, the Marquess of Exeter, the Duke of Richmond, the Duke of Norfolk, and the Duke of Grafton, attended by the under-named Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, viz: the Lord Bishop of Winchester, Prelate of the Order; the Honourable and Reverend the Dean of Windsor, Register of the Order; Sir William Woods, Knt. (Clarenceux King of Arms), Deputy to Sir Ralph Bigland, Knt. Garter Principal King of Arms; and Sir Augustus-William-James Clifford, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

At half past two o'clock, the Knights Companions were called over by Deputy Garter, and, with the Officers of the Order, proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign, in the Royal Closet.

The Sovereign, being seated in the chair of state, the Knights Companions, by His Majesty's command, took their respective seats according to the order of their stalls, the Prelate standing on the right hand of the Sovereign, and the Register, Deputy Garter, and Black Rod at the bottom of the table.

The Prelate then signified to the Chapter, the Sovereign's royal will and pleasure, that the two vacant stalls in the Royal Chapel of St. George at Windsor be filled; and as by the statutes none but a Knight can be elected, his Grace Alexander Duke of Hamilton and Brandon was introduced by Deputy Garter and Black Rod, and knighted by His Majesty with the sword of state, and his Grace, having kissed the Sovereign's hand, retired. After which Henry Marquess of Lansdowne was, in like manner, introduced and knighted with the same ceremonies.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Prelate, were by him presented to the Sovereign, who was pleased to command him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that the Most Noble Alexander Duke of Hamilton and Brandon had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by the Sovereign's command, his Grace was received at the door of the Chapter-room by the Duke of Norfolk and the Duke of Grafton, the two junior Knights Companions present, and conducted between them to His Majesty, preceded by Deputy Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order on a crimson velvet cushion) and by Black Rod. The Duke of Hamilton, kneeling near the Sovereign, and Deputy Garter presenting on his knee the Garter, His Majesty, assisted by His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland and Prince George of Cambridge, the two senior Knights Companions present, buckled it on his Grace's left leg, the Prelate pronouncing the usual admonition.

Deputy Garter next presented, in like manner, the ribband with the George, and His Majesty, with the assistance of the said two senior Knights Companions, placed the same over his Grace's left shoulder, the Prelate pronouncing the admonition. The Duke having again kissed the Sovereign's hand, and received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, withdrew.

The Chapter then proceeded to a second election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Prelate, and presented to the Sovereign, the Most Honourable Henry Marquess of Lansdowne, Lord President of His Majesty's Council, was, by the Sovereign's command, declared duly elected, whereupon his Lordship was introduced and invested with the Garter and the ribband and George, in the same manner as the Duke of Hamilton had been, and the like formalities having been observed, the Marquess withdrew.

The Chapter being ended, Deputy Garter again called over the Knights Companions, who, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign, with the usual reverences.

At the Court at St. James's, February 5, 1836.

The King, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, has been pleased, by letters patent under His royal sign manual and the great seal of the Order, bearing date this day, to dispense with all the statutes usually observed in regard to installation, and to give and grant unto the Most Noble Alexander Duke of Hamilton and Brandon, and unto the Most Honourable Henry Marquess of Lansdowne, Lord President of the Council, Knights of the said Most Noble Order, and duly invested with the ensigns thereof, full power and authority to exercise respectively all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, in as full and ample a manner as if the said Duke and the said Marquess had been formally installed, any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

AT a meeting of the Creditors who had proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date the 25th day of November 1815, awarded and issued against Daniel Fowler and Robert Green, of Lime-Street, in the City of London, Merchants, Dealers, and Chapman (carrying on trade in the firm of Fowler, Green, and Co.), held on the 4th day of February instant, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, pursuant to a notice in the London Gazette, in order to take into consideration proposals made to the Assignees respecting the moneys payable on certain policies of assurance, effected by the said Daniel Fowler (now deceased) on his own life, and by him assigned by way of mortgage or otherwise; and to assent to or dissent from the Assignees acceding to such proposals, or otherwise to authorise and empower them to compromise the pending question respecting the said policies and moneys; and on other special affairs; and to which meeting the separate Creditors of the said Daniel Fowler, as well as the joint Creditors, were invited; it was reported to the Creditors present, that the Bankrupt, Daniel Fowler, had at different times effected the following five policies on his own life:—

2d February 1804, Equitable, £3000.

1st May 1804, Do. £2000.

12th February 1807, London Life, £3000.

14th October 1806, Rock, £500.

28th June 1811, Do. £1500.

In all supposed, with accumulations, to produce £14,500. that the same had been the subject of various assignments, under and by virtue of which, the moneys thereby assured are now claimed by the Trustees of the said Daniel Fowler's marriage settlement, but the Assignees had considered that due notice of such assignments had not been given, upon which, or the effect thereof, differences of opinion had arisen; that farther difficulties had arisen in consequence of the said Daniel Fowler having been Bankrupt more than once; under these circumstances, that proposals had been made to the Assignees, that the money due on the policy in the Equitable for £3000. (except the bonus) should be received by, and belong to, Mrs. Fowler's Trustees; and that the said bonus, together with the moneys due on all the other policies, should be equally divided, that is to say, one half should be received by the Assignees for the Creditors, and the other half by Mrs. Fowler's Trustees; it was thereupon resolved, that the Assignees should be at liberty, and they were authorised to accede to such proposal, or to enter into any other terms or arrangements they might think fit on behalf of the Creditors, to settle the disputes respecting the said policies, provided the Assignees should be able to effect a further arrangement with the separate Creditors of the said Daniel Fowler (none of whom attended the said meeting), whereby one half at least of the moneys which should be received by the Assignees, under any such arrangement, should be divided among the joint Creditors; the said joint and separate Creditors, and especially the separate Creditors, of the said Daniel Fowler, who have proved their debts under the said Commission, are therefore requested to meet the Assignees at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street aforesaid, on Wednesday the 2d day of March next, at Twelve o'Clock precisely, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying into execution the resolution of Creditors above referred to; and particularly that the said separate Creditors may express their assent to or dissent from the said Assignees distributing among the joint Creditors of the said Bankrupts, one half of any sum or sums of money which the Assignees may receive under any arrangement which they may effect, respecting the said policies and moneys assured thereby; and the Creditors are requested to take notice, that if one third of them in value shall not attend, the Assignees will apply to the Commissioner acting under the said Commission, for authority to act.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Henry Hutchinson, of the Ship Lord William Bentinck, and of the Jerusalem Coffee-House, Cowper's-Court, Cornhill, in the City of London, Master Mariner, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 2d day of March next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being authorised and empowered to dispute the validity of two certain mortgages, executed by the Bankrupt to Messrs. Frederick and Charles Edward Mangles, of the Ship the Lord William Bentinck and her freight, or to their disputing either of them, and either in whole or in part; and to assent to or dissent from their filing any bill in equity to set aside the same, or to their taking such other proceedings, either at law or in equity, as they may be advised to obtain possession of the said ship and freight, or either of them, or to defend any suits, at law or in equity, that may be brought or instituted against them in respect thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making such arrangement or compromise, in respect of such mortgages, or either of them, or adopting such measures in respect thereof, as they may in their discretion think fit and expedient; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto, or to the affairs of the estate, as in their discretion they shall think expedient; and on other special affairs.
