WHEREAS the Chairman of the Select Committee appointed by the House of Commons to try and determine the merits of the petition of Robert King and others, complaining of an undue election and return for the city of Dublin, did, on the 16th of April, A. D. 1835, inform the House, that the said Select Committee had made an order for the nomination and appointment of Commissioners to examine evidence in Ireland respecting certain facts, allegations, matters, and things referred to the said Commissioners and specially assigned and limited in the said order;

And whereas I have this day received a copy of the minutes of the proceedings of the said Commissioners, under their hands and seals;

Now I do hereby, and by virtue of an Act, passed in the forty-second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for regulating the trial of controverted elections or returns of Members to serve in the United Parliament for Ireland," direct the aforesaid Select Committee to reassemble and meet again upon Monday the 29th day of February instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, to take the proceedings of the said Commissioners into consideration.

Given under my hand, this 9th day of February 1836, J. ABERCROMBY, Speaker.
