

The Besiegers shall not come nearer the Town than their Works, before the day of Surrender.

Several Articles concerning the States and particular Privileges of the Country.

The Garrison shall march out on Wednesday the 7th Instant by 12 a Clock at farthest, and at eight in the Morning shall deliver up a Gate to the Besiegers, who shall place there a Guard of 100 men, and the Besieged for their security may place another Guard near them; That three Holiages shall be given on each side, and that these Articles shall be Signed by the Marechal de Crequi and the Prince de Chimay.

According to this Capitulation the Garrison marched out the 7th Instant in the Morning about 1500 strong, the Governor at the Head of them.

A List of the Officers Killed and Wounded during the Siege of Luxemburg.

The Marquis d'Humieres, Colonel of Foot, killed; The Count de Tornerre, Colonel of the Regiment of Orleans wounded; The Marquis de la Vallette, Brigadier of Horse wounded; The Marquis de Montpezat and the Marquis de Bourmont d'Anglure, killed; The Duke de Choiseul, the Vidame of Laon, and Mr. Howard were wounded, and are since dead; The Chevalier de Megrigny, and the Sieur de la Caillemore were killed and 9 Lieutenants wounded. Of the Regiment of Champagne 6 Captains killed, 2 Lieutenants killed and 5 wounded, 1 under Lieutenant killed. Of the Regiment of Anjou 5 Captains and 1 Lieutenant wounded. Of the Regiment de la Ferre, the Major and 1 Captain killed, and 6 Lieutenants killed and 4 wounded. Of the Regiment de Navarre, the Major and 14 Captains wounded, 2 Lieutenants killed and 4 wounded. Of the Regiment Royal, 4 Captains and 4 Lieutenants, and 1 under Lieutenant wounded. Of the Regiment d'Enguien, 1 Captain and 2 Lieutenants wounded and 1 Lieutenant killed. Of the Regiment of Piedmont 11 Captains wounded. Of the Regiment d'Auvergne 3 Captains and 4 Lieutenants wounded and 1 Lieutenant killed. Of the Regiment Lyonnais 1 Captain killed and 9 Lieutenants wounded. Of the Regiment of Conti the Major and 1 Captain killed, 5 Captains and 7 Lieutenants wounded. Of the Regiment of Normandy 2 Capt and 4 Lieutenants wounded and 1 Lieutenant killed. Of the Regiment of the Crown 2 Capt. and 4 Lieut. wounded. Of the Regiment of Conde 4 Lieut. wounded. Of the Regiment de la Chastre 2 Capt. and 4 Lieut. wounded. Of the Regiment of Turenne 2 Lieut. wounded. Of the Regiment of Soissons 2 Capt. and 1 Lieut. wounded. Of the Regiment of Bourbon 1 Capt. killed and 1 wounded, and 4 Lieut. wounded. Of the Regiment of Rovergne 3 Capt. 4 Lieut. wounded and 1 Lieut. killed. Of the Regiment of Burgundy 3 Capt. and 7 Lieut. wounded. Of the Regiment of Vermandois 3 Capt. and 4 Lieut. wounded. Of the Regiment of Lanquedocque 1 Captain and 8 Lieut. wounded. Of the Regiment of Hamilton 1 Capt. and 1 Lieut. wounded. Of the Regiment of Fusiliers 1 Capt. killed and 3 wounded, and 3 Lieut. wounded. Of the Regiment of the Marine 1 Capt. killed. Two Commissaries of the Artillery killed and 3 wounded, 4 Aydes des Camps wounded. Two Ingeniers killed and 1 wounded: There were between 4 and 500 Soldiers killed and 700 wounded. The Besieged lost above 800 men.

Paris, June 10. An Ordonnance hath been published here since our last, by which the King commands his Ships of War to attack and seize the Ships belonging to the Republick of Genoua or their Subjects, which they shall meet with at Sea; and the Ships and Goods of the Genoueses that are at present in the Ports of this Kingdom are likewise ordered to be seized. The French it's said have lost 3000 men and a great many Officers in the Assault they made upon Gironne; They had entred the Town, but were beaten out again: And the Marechal de Belfonds was retired with the Army. We have advice that the French Fleet is gone to the Coast of Catalonia. This day Te Deum was sung here for the taking of Luxemburg.

Deil, June 6. The 4th Instant a French Ketch of about 60 Tuns, bound to the Eastward, was lost upon the Godwin Sand; but the Men were saved.

Kings-Linn, June 2. The Duke of Norfolk, our Lord Lieutenant, having appointed a general Muster of the Militia of the County of Norfolk, and of the City and County of Norwich; His Grace arrived at Norwich on Whitsun-Monday, having been received several Miles out of Town by the Magistrates of that City, and a numerous company of Gentry, and attended by some of the Trained Bands from St. Stephens Gate to his Grace's House. The next day his Grace took a view of the City Regiment, and on Wednesday and Thursday of the Blew, Purple, and White Regiments of Foot, and the Regiment of Horse of the County of Norfolk, on Blisse-Hill, and was there Nobly Entertained by the respective Colonels in their Tents; And from thence his Grace Marched these four Regiments through the City to the Town Close, and afterwards gave the Officers and the rest of the Gentlemen that accompanied his Grace, a very Noble and Splendid Entertainment in the New-Hall. On Friday and Saturday following, his Grace saw the four Companies at Tarmouth, being Entertained at the Bayliff's house; And on Thursday last the Yellow Regiment of the said County, which was drawn up at Gaywood-Green, where the Colonel gave his Grace a very handsome Entertainment in his Tents; Our two Companies being at the same time in Arms within this Town where his Grace keeping the Festival of the happy Birth and Restauration of our Gracious Sovereign, was very Nobly Entertained with all the Gentry at the Mayors house, at the Charge of the Corporation. The whole in every place having been performed with great Order and Demonstrations of Loyalty and Affection to His Majesty and His Government.

Advertisements.

THE HAMPSHIRE Feast is appointed to be on the 24th Instant at Drapers-Hall. And all Gentlemen may be supplied with Tickets (at or before the 19th of June) at Captain Symonds within Ludgate, Mr. Christopher Hysley Bookseller in Little Britain, Mr. Richard Dowle over against the Church in Shore-Ditch, Mr. Thomas Holt on St. Margarets-Hill in Southwark, Mr. John Ansell at the Cross-Keys Tavern Covent Garden, Mr. John Blake at the Crown and Scapier in St. James's-Market, Mr. William Mezes at the Bull-Head in Bartholomew-Lane, and at the Royal Coffee House at Charing Cross.

The Memoirs of the Duke of Rochefoucault, containing the material Transactions of State since the death of Louis the XIII. King of France. The Wars of Paris and Guienne &c. With the Memoirs of Monsieur de la Chastre, Translated into English, and sold by James Partridge at the Post-House between Charing Cross and Whitehall.

A New Map of Canaan, seven Foot long and six deep, containing a particular Description of the whole Land with all the Countries bordering upon it, as Moab, Ammon, Egypt, &c. The Encampings of the Israelites in the Wilderness; with the Names of every Country, City, Town, Mountain, River, Lake, Wilderness and Plain, &c. mentioned in Scripture, with many References to Josephus and other Authors. The several Names in different Ages to one and the same place, are applied to it. Price Coloured and Rold 30 s. Sold by Robert Green at the Rose and Crown in Budge-Row, and by William Berry at the Globe near Charing Cross.

Several Gentlemen that were heretofore Scholars at the Biggin School in Hitchin in the County of Hertford, having agreed to have a Yearly Feast among themselves, have appointed the first meeting to be on Tuesday the 24th of this Instant, and all such Gentlemen as (having been Scholars there) are willing to joyne with them in this friendly design, may have Tickets for the said Feast at Mr. Daniel Braces Coffee-house in Bread-street, Mr. Edward Goldings Stationer at the Rose and Rainbow in Aldersgate-street, and Mr. John Viles at the Temple Tavern in Fleet-street.

The Huntingtonshire Feast will be kept at Goldsmiths-Hall, on the 19th of this Instant June. Tickets may be had at the places following, viz. At Mr. Thomas Drines, Stationer at the corner of Chancery-Lane Fleet-street; at Mr. Morficks, in Wellminster-Hall, at Mr. Joseph Hindmarsh, Bookseller, at the Black Bull near the Royal Exchange Cornhill.

The Herefordshire Annual Feast will be kept at Merchant Taylors-Hall the 26. of this Instant June, and all Gentlemen may be supplied with Tickets at Mr. Will. Knots at the Stationers-Arms in the Pall Mall, Mr. Charles Harpers over against St. Dunstons Church in Fleet-street Bookseller, Mr. James Duppers at the Three Cups Tavern in Holbourn, Mr. Paul Caryes at the Fetters Tavern in Cheapside, Mr. John Clarkes at the Boul and Tun Inn in Fleet-street, and at Mr. John Parpoints at the Magpie Tavern near Aldgate.

Near Great Turnstile in Holbourn over against the Sword and Buckler Inn will be sold all sorts of Household Goods, as Tapitry, and other Hangings, Silk, Cambler and Wrought Beds, Linnen, Pictures, &c. to be sold on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday next, and the week following.

Lost on the 29th past in the Evening out of Grevill Street in Brook Buildings in Holbourn, a little young white Shock Bitch newly crimed, but shorne too forwards, her Eyes and left Ear black, with a round black Spot on the same side of the Buttock, her Tail cut but not short. Whoever brings her to Mr. Humphrey Storrton in Acock's Row in Shoemakers Row in Black-Fryers, shall have ten Shilling for their pains.