AT the Court at St. James's, the 3d day of February 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" it is enacted, "that, from and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, all persons who, in conformity with the laws now in force in the said colonies respectively, shall, on or before the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, have been duly registered as slaves in any such colony, and who, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall be actually within any such colony, and who shall by such registries appear to be, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, of the full age of six years or upwards, shall, by force and virtue of the said Act, and without the previous execution of any in-danture of apprenticeship, or any other deed or instrument for that purpose, become and be apprenticed labourers;" and whereas, by the said Act it is further enacted, that, subject to the obligations imposed by the said Act, or to be imposed as therein mentioned upon such apprenticed labourers as aforesaid, all and every the persons who, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall be holden in slavery within any such British colony as aforesaid, shall, upon and from and after the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, become and be, to all intents and purposes, freed and discharged of and from all manner of slavery, and shall be absolutely and for ever manumitted; and that the children thereafter to be born to any such persons, and the offspring of such children, shall, in like manner, be free from their birth; and that, from and after the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, slavery shall be, and is thereby, utterly and for ever abolished and declared unlawful throughout the British colonies, plantations, and possessions abroad:

And whereas by the said Act it is provided, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury may raise the sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling, towards compensating the persons entitled to the services of the slaves to be manumitted and set free by virtue of the said Act, for the loss of such services:

And whereas in the said Act it is recited, that various rules and regulations are or may be necessary for the purposes therein specified and that such regulations could not, without great inconvenience, be made, except by the respective governors, councils, and assemblies, or other local legislatures of the said respective colonies, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, in reference to those colonies to which the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council extends; and it is, therefore, by the said Act enacted and declared, that nothing in the said Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the enactment, by the respective governors, councils, and assemblies, or by such other local legislatures as aforesaid, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, of any such Acts of General Assembly, or Ordinances, or Orders in Council, as might be requisite for making and establishing such several rules and regulations as aforesaid, or any of them, or for carrying the same, or any of them, into full and complete effect:

And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that no part of the said sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling shall be applied or shall be applicable to the purposes therein aforesaid, for the benefit of any person entitled to the services of any slave in any of the colonies therein aforesaid, unless an Order shall have been first made by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, declaring that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in such colony for giving effect to the said Act, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned; nor unless a copy of such Order in Council, duly certified by one of the Clerks in Ordinary of His Majesty's Privy Council, shall, by the Lord President of the Council, have been transmitted to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or to the Lord High Treasurer, for the time being, for their or his guidance or information; and every such Order shall be published three several times in the London Gazette, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, within six weeks next after the date thereof, if Parliament shall be then in session, and if not, within six weeks from the then next ensuing session of Parliament:

And whereas, in order to carry into effect the objects of the said recited Act, certain Acts have been passed by the President, Council, and Assembly of the island of Montserrat, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery in this island;" also "An Act for the protection and maintenance of apprenticed labourers in this island; and for ensuring the punctual discharge by such apprenticed labourers of the services due by them to their employers, and generally for regulating the conduct and for the punishment of any offences committed by such apprenticed labourers;" also "An Act for the classification of apprenticed labourers;" also "An Act for giving to the special magistrates jurisdiction over apprenticed labourers, and directing their mode of proceeding in the exercise of such jurisdiction;" also "An Act for establishing a police in the said island;" and also "An Act to repeal the proviso contained in the fourth clause of an Act, intituled 'An Act for the abolition of slavery in this island:':"

And whereas it is considered by His Majesty in Council, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the said island of Montserrat, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Act:

His Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare, and it is hereby declared, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the said island of Montserrat, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein are mentioned:

And the Right Honourable the Marquess of Lansdowne, the President of His Majesty's Privy Council, and the Right Honourable Lord Glenelg, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a printed copy of a Bill now depending in Parliament, intituled "a Bill for making a railway from the basin of the Kensington Canal, at Kensington, to join the London and Birmingham and Great Western Railways, at or near Holdsdon-green, in the county of Middlesex, and to be called 'the Birmingham, Bristol, and Thames Junction Railway,'" with a plan annexed thereto, will, on or before Monday the 14th day of March instant, be deposited with the parish clerks of the several parishes of Hammersmith, Kensington, Fulham, and Chelsea, in the county of Middlesex, for the inspection and examination of all parties concerned.—Dated this 4th day of March 1836.

Blunt, Roy, Blunt, and Duncan, 10, Liverpool-street, Solicitors for the Bill.

IN pursuance of the provisions contained in an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for inclosing lands within the parish of Yelling, in the county of Huntingdon, and for making a compensation for the tythes," I, Samuel Newton, Esq. of Croxton-park, in the county of Cambridge, being one of the owners and proprietors by the said Act made liable to the payment of yearly rents, or sums of money therein mentioned, and assessed to the poor-rates of the parish of Yelling at the sum of £20, or upwards, do hereby give notice, that application will be made at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be holden in and for the county of Huntingdon, to have three persons named and appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining, by the means in the said Act mentioned, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat, within the said county of Huntingdon, for the fourteen years then last past, which said arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them, shall, by their report to be made and delivered as in the said Act is mentioned, set forth such average price, to the end that the yearly rents or sums of money, by the said Act made payable to the said Rector of Yelling, may be increased or diminished as in and by the said Act is provided or enacted.—Dated this 3d day of March 1836.

Sam. Newton.

East India-House, March 1, 1836.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the bye-law of the East India Company, late chapter VII, section 6, it is ordained,

"That a list shall be published thirty days before the annual election of Directors, containing the names of such Proprietors, qualified agreeable to law, as shall signify, in writing to the Secretary, their desire of becoming Candidates for the Direction, thirty-two days before such annual election;"

The Court of Directors of the said Company do hereby give notice, in order that the Proprietors may conform to the said bye-law, that the ensuing election of six Directors of the East India Company for four years, is appointed for Wednesday the 13th April next; and that such list will be published thirty days before the said election, as the above-mentioned bye-law directs.

James C. Melvill, Secretary.

South Sea-House, February 19, 1836.

THE Court of Directors of the South Sea Company give notice, that a General Court of the said Company will be held at this House, on Thursday the 17th of March next, at eleven in the forenoon, being one of the Half-yearly General Courts appointed by the charter.

N. Simpson, Secretary.

Bolivar Mining Association.

No. 9, Austin-Friars, March 3, 1836.

AT an Extraordinary Meeting of the Managing Trustees, specially called for the purpose, and held at their Office this day, it was resolved,

"That the several auxiliary shares in this Association, on which the second call or instalment of one pound per share, now due, shall not be paid to Sir Charles Price, Bart. and Co. the Bankers of the Association, on or before the 17th day of March now next, be declared absolutely forfeited.

"That this resolution be inserted in the London Gazette and two daily newspapers."

By order of the Managing Trustees,

Alexander Allen, Secretary.

Protector Fire Insurance Company,
35, Old Jewry, March 4, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Proprietors of the Protector Fire Insurance Company will be holden, on Saturday the 2d day of April next, at the City of London Tavern, in Bishopsgate-street, for the purpose, if they, the Proprietors present at such Meeting, or a majority of at least two thirds of the number of votes of such Proprietors, shall so resolve, of confirming a resolution of the Directors, passed at a Special Meeting of them the Directors, convened according to the deed of settlement, at which Meeting the Directors resolved, that it is considered expedient that this Association should be dissolved.

At the above Meeting of the Proprietors, an agreement will be produced between the Directors of the Phoenix Company and the Directors of the Protector Company, by which, subject to the sanction and confirmation, under the deeds of settlement, of the Proprietors of the respective Companies, the Phoenix Company are to take to the concerns of the Protector Company, and have all the assets and rights thereof, subject to the payment, out of the available assets thereof, as far as the same will extend, of all losses, and also to the payment to every Proprietor, on the 11th July next, of one shilling and six pence per share, as the interest from the 24th June 1835 to the 24th June 1836, and to the payment to every Proprietor, on or before the 29th April 1837, of £2 per share for every share; and the Phoenix Company are to be subject to all the liabilities of the Protector Company, and, if there should be any deficiency, the Phoenix Company is to make up such deficiency. This agreement will, at the above Meeting, be submitted to the Proprietors for their sanction and confirmation.

At the above Meeting of the Proprietors, there will also be produced an agreement between the Directors of the two Companies, that, with a view the better to secure the transfer of the connections and business of the Protector to the Phoenix Company, the Directors of the Phoenix Company will appropriate 710 shares in that Company to and amongst the Directors of the Protector Company, who may become Directors of the Phoenix Company, and such of the Proprietors of the Protector Company as may be thought most likely to advance the interests of the Phoenix Company.

Wilmer Harris, Secretary.

N. B. The chair will be taken at twelve o'clock at noon precisely.

*THOS. ESCOLME FISHER.
Saint Ives, March 2, 1836.*

[Extract from the Dublin Gazette of January 9, 1836.]

TAKE notice, that I, the Reverend Clement Wolseley, of No. 28, Upper Fitzwilliam-Street, in the City of Dublin, have made a demand from the principal occupier of the premises hereinafter mentioned, as landlord thereof, of the several fines due to me as landlord of all that and those the large brick house on the west side of Saint Stephen's-Green, formerly in the possession of Jane Pierse, Widow, and after in the possession of the Right Honourable Garret Earl of Mornington, together with the back side, garden, and offices behind the same, containing in the front of said dwelling-house to Stephen's-Green, 34 feet, and in rear from the front of said dwelling-house to Glover's-Alley 261 feet, be the same more or less, with the appurtenances; and also the house or tenement in Gregory's-Lane, at the end of the said garden, wherein Sir Ralph Freke formerly dwelt, and formerly in the possession of Elizabeth Bligh, Widow, deceased, with the back sides, garden, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, containing in front to Glover's Alley 57 feet, be the same more or less, with all rights, members, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, in as full, large, and ample manner as the said Jane Pierse, Widow, formerly held and enjoyed the same, and as Anthony Lord Brabazon also formerly held and enjoyed the same; all which said premises are situate, lying, and being in the Parish of Saint Peter's, in the County of the City of Dublin; and which said fines are due to me as landlord as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the covenant for renewal in the last renewal lease of said premises, bearing date the 3d day of September, in the year 1803, and made between Sir William Wolseley, Bart. of the one part; and Thomas Sherlock, of James's-Street, in the City of Dublin, Brewer, and Thomas Conroy, of the Grand Canal Harbour, in the County of the said City, Timber-Merchant, of the other part; the several lives therein having all long since dropped.—June 10, 1835.

CLEMENT WOLSELEY, Landlord, No. 28, Upper Fitzwilliam-Street, Dublin.

To all whom it may concern.

British Guiana, District of Berbice.—Marshal's-Office.

Second and Last Edict.

IN pursuance of an extract from the proceedings of the Roll Court, bearing date the 11th January 1836;

I, the undersigned, First Marshal of this District, in the name and behalf of George Goethieb Lowenfeld and Edward Bryant, two of the deliberating Executors to the will of Wolfert Katz, deceased, and of Robert Robertson, as Attorney of Eliza Munro and William Munro, her husband, the said Eliza Munro and William Munro considered as one also Executrix and Executor aforesaid, and, de rato cavens, Benjamin Warren, the remaining Executor, now absent from the Colony, do hereby, for the second and last time, by edict, cite all known and unknown creditors against the private estate of above named Wolfert Katz, deceased, as also those against his plantations Fryheid, Philadelph, Cottontree, Belair, Gebroeder en Zusters, and St. Gravenhagen, to appear at the Roll Court, to be holden at the Court-House, in New Amsterdam, at Ten o'Clock A. M. on the 6th day of June 1836, and following days, in order to render their respective claims, properly attested and in due form.

Whereas in default of which per petuum silentium will be decreed against the non-appears according to law.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

Berbice, this 11th day of January 1836.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in the cause Duffield versus Elwes, with the approbation of Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Thursday the 31st day of March 1836, at the hour of Two o'Clock in the Afternoon;

A leasehold house, with coach-house and stable behind it, in Devonshire-Terrace, Saint Mary-le-Bone, being part of the leasehold estate of George Elwes, Esq. deceased.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings; and of Messrs. Law and Tindal, No. 10, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn, London.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Bensley versus Sanderson, with the approbation of Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, and to whom the said cause stands referred, at the Public Sale-Room, in Southampton-Buildings, some time in or about the month of April 1836, of which due notice will be given;

A leasehold chapel, called Providence Chapel, with the almshouse and ground thereto belonging, situate in Gray's-Inn-Lane, in the Parish of Saint Pancras, in the County of Middlesex, as now enclosed with iron railing in front and rear, late the property of the Rev. William Huntington, deceased.

Printed particulars and conditions of sale may be shortly had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; of Messrs. Wright and Trail, 20, Upper North-Place, Gray's-Inn-Road; of Messrs. Palmer, France, and Palmer, 24, Bedford-Row, Holborn; of Messrs. Brundrett, Randall, Simmons, and Brown, 10, King's Bench-Walk, Temple; of Messrs. Sheffield and Sons, 25, Great Prescott-Street, Goodman's-Fields; and of Messrs. Derby and Raven, 2, Harcourt-Buildings, Temple.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes of Greenwood against Churchill, and Robinson against Lord Carrington, it was ordered that it should be referred to the Right Honourable Robert Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, to take an account of what is due for principal and interest to the plaintiff Keziah Greenwood, and to several of the defendants in the said causes, in respect of their several securities; and also to enquire and state to the Court, whether the estates and premises comprised in certain indentures of the 17th and 18th days of July 1826, and the said several securities, or any of them, are subject to any and what other charge or incumbrance, and the priorities thereof respectively, and who are entitled thereto, and how much is due in respect thereof:—therefore all persons, other than as aforesaid, claiming to be entitled to any charge or incumbrance on the said estates, are, on or before the 16th day of March 1836, to come in and make out their claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

The estates and premises comprised in the said indentures are situate in the Parishes of Deddington, Tridwell, Souldern, Clifton, Westcott Barton, and Steeple Barton, in the County of Oxford, and were late the property of Mr. Samuel Churchill, a Bankrupt.

WHEREAS Thomas Betton, of the Parish of Shoreditch, in the County of Middlesex, by his will, dated 15th of February 1723, gave and bequeathed as follows, viz.: I give and bequeath the rest and residue of my estates, wheresoever and whatsoever, to the Worshipful Company or Corporation of Ironmongers of the City of London, and to their successors, making them my Ex-ecutors upon this special trust and confidence in them reposed, that is to say, that they do, with all convenient speed that may be after my decease, place my estate out at interest upon good securities, positively forbidding them to diminish the capital sum by giving away any part thereof, or that the interest and profit arising be applied to any other use or uses than hereafter mentioned and directed, viz.: that they do pay one full half part of the said interest and profit of my whole estate yearly, and every year for ever, unto the redemption of British slaves in Turkey or Barbary; and whereas a part of the said charity fund has been set apart to provide for the redemption of British slaves; and by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, in a certain cause wherein His Majesty's Attorney General is informant, and the Worshipful Company of Ironmongers are defendants, it has been referred to George Boone Roupell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to review his report approving of a scheme for the application of the surplus income of the charity fund, regard being had to the intention of the Testator as expressed in his will: therefore any society incorporated by charter, or otherwise established as a permanent society for any charity purpose similar to or consistent with the intentions of the said Testator, expressed as aforesaid, are forthwith, by their Solicitors, to bring in their claims and establish the same before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London.
