Whitehall April 14, 1836.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto William Coates, of Addingham, in the county of York, and of Jesus College, in the University of Cambridge, Esq. His royal licence and authority that he may (in compliance with a direction contained in the last will and testament of his grandmother Mary Cunliffe, widow), henceforth use, assume, and take upon himself the surname of Thompson only, instead of that of Coates, and also use and bear the arms of Thompson; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, April 15, 1836.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Robert Dawson, of Winckfield, in the county of Berks, Gentleman, second son of the late William Dawson, of Wakefield, in the county of York, Esq. deceased, by Eleanor, his wife, daughter of Philip-Thomas Lee, Esq. also deceased, His royal licence and authority that he, the said Robert Dawson and his issue may, out of grateful and affectionate respect for the memory of his late mother, henceforth take, use, and bear the surname of Lee, in addition to and before that of Dawson:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

IN obedience to an order of the Committee, appointed by the Court of Common Council to carry into execution the several Acts of Parliament made and passed for the improvement of the River Thames, westward of London-bridge, in pursuance of an Act of the fiftieth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending, altering, and enlarging the powers of two Acts, passed in the fourteenth and seventeenth years of His said Majesty, in relation to the navigation of the River Thames, westward of London-bridge, within the liberties of the city of London, and for the further improvement of the said navigation;" and also of another Act of the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of four Acts of His said Majesty for improving the navigation of the River Thames, &c." I do hereby give notice, that, between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 7th day of October next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 7th day of October next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £33,900, raised by the authority of the afore-
