Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, APRIL 19, 1836.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, April 11, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold a Drawing-Room on Thursday, April 21st.

It is absolutely necessary that all Ladies intending to be presented, should send their names, with that of the Lady presenting them, to the Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, on or before Tuesday, April 19th, in order that they may be submitted to Her Majesty.

All Ladies and Gentlemen attending the Drawing-Room are requested to bring three cards; one to be left in the Anti-room, another to be given to the Lord in Waiting to the King, and the third to the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

No Lady can present another, unless she herself attends the Drawing-Room.

Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace, April 15, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all carriages coming to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 21st of April, are to fall into the line at the top of St. James's-street, come down the left hand side of the street, round the corner of Pall-mall, and enter at the iron gate nearest to the Palace, set down at the Arcade, return by the iron gate nearest to Marlborough-house, and pass through Pall-mall into St. James's-square. In taking up, they are to come down St. James's-street in like manner, pass through the same gates, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney coaches will be permitted to come within the iron gates, they must set down at the outside thereof, and go away through Pall-mall.

The gate at the top of Constitution-hill will be open only for the carriages of persons having the privilege of the entrée, which are to proceed down the Park, and enter the Palace at Stable-yard-gate, turn into the Ambassadors'-court, set down at the Arcade, and go out into Cleveland-row. The carriages of the Cabinet Ministers and Great Officers of State may afterwards wait in the King's-court, those of the Ambassadors and Foreign Ministers in the Ambassadors'-court, and those of all other persons having the entrée may wait in Stable-yard or St. James's-park, till called for; they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, pass away into Cleveland-row, and up the left hand side of St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket, to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and at Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshals in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entrée by any other approach to the Palace than the gates above mentioned.

Tickets for carriages belonging to persons having the entrée will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace, on Tuesday next, between the hours of eleven and three o'clock.

ARGYLL, Lord Steward.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of April 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, excepting to or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act contained; and it is thereby further enacted, that if any goods shall be imported into any port or place in any of the said possessions contrary to the said Act, such goods shall be forfeited; and it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereafter provided, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned Provisions of the said Act, respecting such free ports, to the port of Old Harbour, in the island of Jamaica:

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports respectively therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the port of Old Harbour, in the island of Jamaica; and that, from and after the ninth day of June next, all the privileges and advantages by the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said port of Old Harbour, as fully and effectually as if such port had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council:

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves," it is enacted, "that, from and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, all persons who, in conformity with the laws now in force in the said colonies respectively, shall, on or before the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, have been duly registered as slaves in any such colony, and who, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall be actually within any such colony, and who shall by such registries appear to be, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, of the full age of six years or upwards, shall, by force and virtue of the said Act, and without the previous execution of any indenture of apprenticeship, or any other deed or instrument for that purpose, become and be apprenticed labourers;" and whereas, by the said Act it is further enacted, that, subject to the obligations imposed by the said Act, or to be imposed as therein mentioned upon such apprenticed labourers as aforesaid, all and every the persons who, on the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, shall be holden in slavery within any such British colony as aforesaid, shall, upon and from, and after the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, become and be, to all intents and purposes, freed and discharged of and from all manner of slavery, and shall be absolutely and for ever manumitted; and that the children thereafter to be born to any such persons, and the offspring of such children, shall, in like manner, be free from their birth; and that, from and after the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, slavery shall be, and is thereby, utterly and for ever abolished and declared unlawful throughout the British colonies, plantations, and possessions abroad:

And whereas by the said Act it is provided, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury may raise the sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling, towards compensating the persons entitled to the services of the slaves to be manumitted and set free by virtue of the said Act, for the loss of such services:

And whereas in the said Act it is recited, that various rules and regulations are or may be necessary for the purposes therein specified; and that such regulations could not, without great inconvenience, be made, except by the respective governors, councils, and assemblies, or other local legislatures of the said respective colonies, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, in reference to those colonies to which the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council extends; and it is, therefore, by the said Act enacted and declared, that nothing in the said Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the enactment, by the respective governors, councils, and assemblies, or by such other local legislatures as aforesaid, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, of any such Acts of General Assembly, or Ordinances, or Orders in Council, as might be requisite for making and establishing such several rules and regulations as aforesaid, or any of them, or for carrying the same, or any of them, into full and complete effect:

And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that no part of the said sum of twenty millions of pounds sterling shall be applied or shall be applicable to the purposes therein aforesaid, for the benefit of any person entitled to the services of any slave in any of the colonies therein aforesaid, unless an Order shall have been first made by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, declaring that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in such colony for giving effect to the said Act, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned; nor unless a copy of such Order in Council, duly certified by one of the Clerks in Ordinary of His Majesty's Privy Council, shall, by the Lord President of the Council, have been transmitted to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or to the Lord High Treasurer, for the time being, for their or his guidance or information; and every such Order shall be published three several times in the London Gazette, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, within six weeks next after the date thereof, if Parliament shall be then in session, and if not, within six weeks from the then next ensuing session of Parliament:

And whereas, in order to carry into effect the objects of the said recited Act, an Act hath been passed by the Governor, Council, and Assembly of the island of Tobago, intituled "An Act to carry into effect the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" and also an Act to amend an Act, intituled "An Act to carry into effect the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" and to repeal certain clauses of an Act, commonly called the Slave Act, passed on or about the fifteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, and

" to substitute other clauses in this Act in lieu thereof;" and also an Act, intituled " An Act to establish rules and regulations for the classification of those persons hereafter to become apprenticed labourers, and for ascertaining to which class they shall respectively belong;" and also an Act, intituled " An Act to authorise the temporary appointment of special magistrates, for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled ' An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" and also an Act to amend an Act, intituled " An Act to carry into effect the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled, ' An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies;" for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" and also an Act, intituled " An Act to provide for the building of places of confinement and punishment, and to establish a police force in the said island, and also to repeal fifty-fifth, fifty-sixth, and fifty-seventh clauses of the Act, intituled ' An Act to carry into effect the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, intituled ' An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves:"

And whereas it is considered by His Majesty in Council, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the said island of Tobago, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Act:

His Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare, and it is hereby declared, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the island of Tobago, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein are mentioned:

And the Right Honourable the Marquess of Lansdowne, the President of His Majesty's Privy Council, and the Right Honourable Lord Glenelg, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

THE Creditors of John Weatherhead, late of Low Friar-Street, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Slater, an Insolvent Debtor, are requested to meet at the Office of Mr. William Johnston, Solicitor, No. 26, Saint Nicholas Church-Yard, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, on Wednesday the 4th day of May next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon of the same day precisely, for the purpose of choosing an Assignee or Assignees of the said Insolvent's estate and effects.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of Charles Hardwick, formerly of Manningtree, in the County of Essex, Grocer and Shopkeeper, and lastly of Lawford, in the said County, Shopkeeper and Gardener, an Insolvent Debtor, will be held at the Office of Messrs. Philbrick and Savill, situate in Head-Street, Colchester, in the said County of Essex, on Wednesday the 4th day of May next, at the hour of Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, to approve of the manner and place at which the real estate of the said Charles Hardwick shall be sold by public auction.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of James Davis, late of the Borough of Penryn, in the County of Cornwall, Grocer, an Insolvent Debtor, lately a Prisoner in the Gaol of Bodmin, in the said County, has caused his account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee at the Office of Messrs. James and Hodge, Solicitors, Truro, in the said County, on the 24th of June next, at Eleven in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the said Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

In the Matter of William Brooks, an Insolvent.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of William Brooks, late of Coniston, near Hull, in the County of York, Bricklayer and Plaisterer, an Insolvent Debtor, some time since discharged from His Majesty's Gaol of the Castle of York, in and for the County of York, will be held at the House of Mr. Thomas Geldard, in the Market-Place of the Town of Kingston-upon-Hull, known by the name of the Cross Keys Inn, on Tuesday the 10th day of May next, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon of the same day, to approve and direct in what manner, and at what place or places, the real estate of the said Insolvent shall be sold by public auction; and also to take into consideration and determine upon the propriety of authorising the Assignee to assign his interest in the whole or any part or parts of the real estate of the said Insolvent unto the Mortgagee or Mortgagees thereof; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing or defending any suit or suits, at law or in equity, as also to his submitting to arbitration any difference or dispute which may arise between him and any other person or persons whomsoever, touching or relating to the estate and effects of the said Insolvent.

THE Creditors of Joseph Taylor, formerly of High Crosby, in the Parish of Crosby-upon-Eden, in the County of Cumberland, Husbandman, then of No. 55, Richmond-Row, Liverpool, Lancashire, Bacon-Dealer, and late of Ousby, in the said County of Cumberland, Yeoman, who was lately discharged from His Majesty's Gaol at Carlisle, in the County of Cumberland, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, at the Office of Messrs. Law and Bendle, Solicitors, Carlisle, on Monday the 9th day of May next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee, selling and disposing of all or any part of the real customary and personal estate of the said Insolvent, or the equity of redemption of the said Insolvent therein, either by public auction or private contract, to such person or persons, and on such terms and conditions, and at such time or times as the said Assignee may think fit; and to authorise the said Assignee at such sale or sales to buy in any part of the same real and customary estate, effects, and premises, and the equity of redemption in the said real estate, and afterwards to resell the same, in either of the ways before mentioned, without being answerable for any deficiency happening on such second sale.
