JAMES STARK, Witness.
JAMES ANDERSON, Witness.

THO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Rowe versus North, with the approbation of Lord Henley, one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Clarendon-Rooms, in Liverpool, on Friday the 27th day of May 1836, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, in 19 lots;

Several freehold, copyhold, and leasehold estates, eligible for building, situate in Liverpool, Everton, West Derby, and Eccleston, in the County of Lancaster, comprising several messuages, with the appurtenances and pieces of land; also three pews in the church of Saint Philip, Liverpool; and a moiety of two freehold annual ground rents of £2 10s. and 12s. per annum issuing out of premises in Byrom-Street, in Liverpool aforesaid, and premises in Eccleston aforesaid; and the property of the late George Rowe, Esq.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. J. and H. Lowe, Garey, and Sweeting, Solicitors, Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Mr. John North, Solicitor, Liverpool; of Messrs. Wilkinson and Christian, Solicitors, Liverpool; of Messrs. Winstanley and Sons, Auctioneers, Liverpool; and at the place of sale.

WHEREAS William Meulh, formerly of Taunton, in the County of Somerset, Esq. deceased (who died in or about the month of January 1790), by his will bequeathed to his sister Ann Gethings, and her children, a legacy of £300, and to his sister Philippa Maria Atkins, and her children, a legacy of £400: and whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery of England, made in two causes, intitled respectively Pyne versus Franklin, and bearing date the 12th day of July 1833, it was ordered that it should be referred to Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court whether the said Ann Gethings and Philippa Maria Atkins died before the said Testator William Meulh, or were living at his decease, and if they were respectively then living, whether they had since died, and who were their respective personal representatives, and whether they respectively had any and what children living at the said Testator's death, or born after his decease, and whether such children respectively had since died, and whether they respectively survived their parents, the said Ann Gethings and Philippa Maria Atkins, and who were their respective legal personal representative; and whereas by another Order made in these causes, bearing date the 12th day of February 1836, it was ordered that the said Master should state to the Court which of the children of the said Ann Gethings and Philippa Maria Atkins, respectively, are now living, and that he should insert advertisements in the public papers of England and Ireland, in respect of the said Ann Gethings and her children, and of the said Philippa Maria Atkins and her children, and in respect of the legacies given to them respectively: and whereas it hath been alleged that the said Ann Gethings was the wife of Thomas Gethings, formerly a Lieutenant in the Army, and who afterwards resided at Ballyjarkin, in the County of Wexford,
