Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 21, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's next Levee will be held on Thursday the 28th instant, instead of Wednesday the 27th, and the future Levees on every succeeding Wednesday until further orders.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 22, 1836.

BY HIS MAJESTY'S COMMAND.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons attending the Drawing-Rooms and State Balls at St. James's-Palace, who wear the civil uniform, must appear in shoes with buckles, and breeches with kneec buckles.

The Master of the Horse, the Master of the Buck Hounds, the Equerries and the Pages of Honour, all Officers of the Navy and Army, Militia and Yeomanry, the Lord Lieutenants of Counties and Deputy Lieutenants, are to appear at the Drawing-Rooms and State Balls in uniform trowsers and boots, agreeably to regulation.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of April 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British "possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America by sea, from or to any place to the said Act, such goods shall be forfeited; and it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereafter provided, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned provisions of the said Act, respecting such free ports, to the port of Old Harbour, in the island of Jamaica:

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, excepting to or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act contained; and it is thereby further enacted, that if any goods shall be imported into any port or place in any of the said possessions contrary ordered accordingly, that the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports respectively therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the port of Old Harbour, in the island of Jamaica; and that, from and after the ninth day of June next, all the privileges and advantages by the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said port of Old Harbour, as fully and effectually as if such port had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PURIFICATION OF SEA WATER.

AT a General Meeting of Shareholders of the Patent Purifying Sea Water Company, held at Radley's New London Hotel, Bridge-street, Blackfriars, on Wednesday the 20th of April, at twelve o'clock, convened by public advertisement, to take into consideration the reports of the Directors and Committee, and to determine on the adoption of such measures as the Shareholders then present may resolve upon,

Sir John Philippart in the Chair,

On the motion of Mr. Blackmore, seconded by Mr. Medley,

Resolved unanimously,—That the report of the Committee be withdrawn.

On the motion of Mr. Burnand, seconded by Mr. Brown,

Resolved unanimously,—That the report of the Directors, presented on the 9th of December 1835, be approved.

Resolved unanimously,—That the accounts of the Company, as made up by Mr. Wells, the Secretary, and presented on the 9th of December 1835, be approved and passed, and signed by the Chairman of this meeting.

Resolved unanimously,—That the best thanks of the Proprietors be given to the Chairman and the Directors for their great exertions on behalf of the Company.

The Chairman then read the plan for the formation of a new Company.

Resolved unanimously,—That the plan for the new Company, as read by the Chairman, be adopted.

Resolved unanimously,—That, it being on many accounts desirable to introduce various alterations for completing the objects for which this Company was originally formed, it is advisable that a Committee of seven shareholders be appointed to carry the same into effect; and that, as a preliminary measure, all situations at present held in the Company are vacated; and that the following Gentlemen form the Committee:—

Joseph Barker, Esq.
John Robert Ogden, Esq.
W. H. Burnand, Esq.
Thomas Sedgwick, Esq.
John Barwise, Esq.

Resolved unanimously,—That it be an instruction to the Committee to consider and adopt such resolutions as may be necessary to effect the following objects:—First, the securing to such of the original shareholders, as, within fourteen days from this day, shall notify their wish to receive it, the full amount of the subscriptions paid on their shares. Second, the proper and necessary arrangements for carrying on the Company.

Resolved unanimously,—That the thanks of the meeting be given to Mr. Stothert, for his conduct in placing the Company in its present favourable situation.

Resolved unanimously,—That the foregoing resolutions be published in the London Gazette, in all the Morning and in three Evening Newspapers, and in such other manner as the Committee may deem fit.

John Philippart, Chairman.

Resolved unanimously,—That the thanks of the meeting be given to Sir John Philippart for his able and polite conduct in the chair..

At the Rolls.

MASTER OF THE ROLLS.—Tuesday the 12th day of April, in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, 1836, between John Perry and the Rev. Jenkin Jones, Clerk, Executors of the last Will and Testament of Joseph Southern, deceased, Plaintiffs; James Keane, Daniel Keane, and others, Defendants.

FORASMUCH as his Lordship the Master of the Rolls was this present day informed by Mr. Lane, of Counsel for the plaintiffs, that the plaintiffs, on the 28th day of November 1835, exhibited their bill in this Court against the defendants, as by the Six Clerks' certificate now read appears, and took out process of subpoena requiring them to appear and answer the same, and that all the defendants (except the said defendant Daniel Keane), appeared thereto and put in their answer to the said bill, but the said defendant Daniel Keane hath not yet appeared to the said bill; that upon enquiry after the said defendant at his last usual place of abode he is not to be found, so as to be served with such process, but doth absent himself to avoid being served therewith, as by affidavit appears; and that the said defendant Daniel Keane has been in England within two years next before the issuing of the said subpoena, as by affidavit also appears; it is thereupon ordered, that the defendant, Daniel Keane, do appear to the said bill, on or before the 5th day of May next.

H. E. B.—Entd.—E. R.

WHEREAS Thomas Betton, of the Parish of Shoreditch, in the County of Middlesex, by his will, dated 15th of February 1723, gave and bequeathed as follows, viz.: I give and bequeath the rest and residue of my estates, wheresoever and whatsoever, to the Worshipful Company or Corporation of Ironmongers of the City of London, and to their successors, making them my Executors upon this special trust and confidence in them reposed, that is to say, that they do, with all convenient speed that may be after my decease, place my estate out at interest upon good securities, positively forbidding them to diminish the capital sum by giving away any part thereof, or that the interest and profit arising be applied to any other use or uses than hereafter mentioned and directed, viz.: that they do pay one full half part of the said interest and profit of my whole estate yearly, and every year for ever, unto the redemption of British slaves in Turkey or Barbary; and whereas a part of the said charity fund has been set apart to provide for the redemption of British slaves; and by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, in a certain cause wherein His Majesty's Attorney General is informant, and the Worshipful Company of Ironmongers are defendants, it has been referred to George Boone Roupell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to review his report approving of a scheme for the application of the surplus income of the charity fund, regard being had to the intention of the Testator as expressed in his will: therefore, any society incorporated by charter, or otherwise established as a permanent society for any charity purpose similar to, or consistent with, the intentions of the said Testator, expressed as aforesaid, are, on or before the 20th day of May 1836, by their Solicitors, to bring in their claims and establish the same before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London.
