Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 22, 1836.

BY HIS MAJESTY'S COMMAND.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons attending the Drawing-Rooms and State Balls at St. James's-Palace, who wear any civil uniform, must appear in shoes with buckles, and breeches with knee buckles.

The Master of the Horse, the Master of the Buck Hounds, the Equerries and the Pages of Honour, all Officers of the Navy and Army, Militia and Yeomanry, the Lord Lieutenants of Counties and Deputy Lieutenants, are to appear at the Drawing-Rooms and State Balls in uniform trowsers and boots, agreeably to regulation.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's-House, St. James's, April 26, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Queen will hold a Drawing-Room on Thursday, May 5th.

It is absolutely necessary that all Ladies intending to be presented, should send their names, with that of the Lady presenting them, to the Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, on or before Tuesday, May 3d, in order that they may be submitted to Her Majesty.

All Ladies and Gentlemen attending the Drawing-

Room are requested to bring three cards; one to be left in the Anti-room, another to be given to the Lord in Waiting to the King, and the third to the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

No Lady can present another, unless she herself attends the Drawing-Room.

Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace, April 29, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all carriages coming to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 5th of May, are to fall into the line at the top of St. James's-street, come down the left hand side of the street, round the corner of Pall-mall, and enter at the iron gate nearest to the Palace, set down at the Arcade, return by the iron gate nearest to Marlborough-house, and pass through Pall-mall into St. James's-square. In taking up, they are to come down St. James's-street in like manner, pass through the same gates, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney coaches will be permitted to come within the iron gates, they must set down at the outside thereof, and go away through Pall-mall.

The gate at the top of Constitution-hill will be open only for the carriages of persons having the privilege of the entrée, which are to proceed down the Park, and enter the Palace at Stable-yard-gate, turn into the Ambassadors'-court, set down at the Arcade, and go out into Cleveland-row. The carriages of the Cabinet Ministers and Great Officers of State may afterwards wait in the King's-court, those of the Ambassadors and Foreign Ministers in the Ambassadors'-court, and those of all other persons having the entrée may wait in Stable-yard or St. James's-park, till called for; they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, pass away into Cleveland-row, and up the left hand side of St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket, to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and at Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshalmen in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entrée by any other approach to the Palace than the gates above mentioned.

Tickets for carriages belonging to persons having the entrée will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace, on Tuesday next, between the hours of eleven and three o'clock.

ARGYLL, Lord Steward.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of April 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America by sea, from or to any place to the said Act, such goods shall be forfeited; and it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereafter provided, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned provisions of the said Act, respecting such free ports, to the port of Old Harbour, in the island of Jamaica:

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, excepting to or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act contained; and it is thereby further enacted, that if any goods shall be imported into any port or place in any of the said possessions contrary ordered accordingly, that the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports respectively therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the port of Old Harbour, in the island of Jamaica; and that, from and after the ninth day of June next, all the privileges and advantages by the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said port of Old Harbour, as fully and effectually as if such port had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

LIGHT-HOUSE ON THE START POINT.

Trinity-House, London, April 27, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a light will be exhibited in the Light-house which has been erected on the Start Point, on the coast of Devonshire, on the evening of Friday the 1st of July next, and thenceforth continued every night, from sun-set to sun-rise, for the benefit of navigation.

The character of this light, which will burn at an elevation of 204 feet above the level of the sea at high water spring tides, will be that of a powerful revolving light, shewing a brilliant flash, at regulated intervals of one minute; and, in addition thereto, a stationary light will also be exhibited, in the same Light-house, in the direction of the Berry Head.

PORTLAND HIGH LIGHT.

Notice is also given, that, on and after Friday the said 1st of July next, the High Light at Portland will cease to be exhibited as a revolving light, and will be then and thenceforth continued as a fixed or stationary light, together with the Low-Light, both being visible as fixed lights, in the same direction seaward as heretofore.

By order,

J. Herbert, Secretary.

East India-House, April 26, 1836.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice, That a Quarterly General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday the 22d June next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon.

James C. Melvill, Secretary.

East India-House, April 26, 1836.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That the transfer-books of the said Company's stock will be shut on Thursday the 2d June next, at three o'clock, and opened again on Thursday the 14th July following:

And that the warrants for the dividend on the said stock, payable on the 6th July next, under the 11th section of the Act of the 3d and 4th William 4th, cap. 85, will be ready to be delivered on that day.

James C. Melvill, Secretary.
