

Hamburg, June 16. The King of Denmark hath appointed the Rendezvous of his Forces to be on the 19th of this month between Itzehoe and Kelling-buysen; And accordingly his Troops and a Train of Artillery are marching thither. The Swedes do fortifie Wismar, 1000 men being daily at work there. Our Polish Letters give an account, that the King of Poland was gone from Fawarow to put himself at the Head of his Army, which we are assured will consist of above 60000 fighting men: They say the Turks are resolved to bring a great Army into the Field on that side.

Brussels, June 20. The Dutch Forces continue encamped between Vilvoord and Louvaine; The Prince of Orange having his Quarters at Haren: The Marquis de Grana has drawn the Spanish Horse and Dragoons out of the several Garisons, who are encamped by themselves near Digheem, making together 3500 Horse and Dragoons under the command of the Prince de Vaudemont and Count Salazar; And his Excellency hath sent his Train of Artillery to the Camp. The French Army is encamped between Lessines and Grammont, being daily reinforced with fresh Troops: On Sunday last the Prince de Conti came to Mabeuge, with a Detachment of 10000 men from Luxemburg, and hath, it's believed, by this time joyned the Mareschal de Schomberg.

Hague, June 20. The States of Holland having after long and serious debates resolved to accept the Truce of 20 years proposed by his Most Christian Majesty: The Nobles and two of the Eighteen Towns viz. Rotterdam and Medenblicke dissenting; They went in a Body to Communicate the Resolutions they had taken to the States General. The Provinces of Friezeland, Groningen, Zealand and Utrecht, have, it's said, likewise accepted of the Truce, and the other two Provinces seem inclined to it, so that it's believed the States General will in a day or two, come to an unanimous Resolution in this matter. And yesterday in the Evening the Deputies of the State were with the French Ambassador, to desire a Prolongation of the time given them by his Most Christian Majesty for a few days, which his Excellency consented to.

Paris, June 21. They write from Flanders that the Mareschal de Schomberg was advanced to Lessines within eight Leagues of Brussels; and that it was believed he would approach nearer to that City, if the Truce was not signed at the Hague, within the term given by his Most Christian Majesty. The City of Trier hath received a French Garison; and the Mareschal de Crequi is marched towards Limburg. From Catalonia we have advice that, the Mareschal de Belfonds was encamped at Gorgoigne, and that he was going to put his Troops into Quarters during the great Heats.

Westminster, June 13. This day William Sacheverell, George Gregory, and Charles Hutchinson, Esquires, and the other Persons convicted the last Term of a great Riot at Nottingham, appeared at the Kings Bench Bar, to receive the Judgment of the Court upon their said Conviction; which was, that Mr. Sacheverell should pay a Fine of 500 Marks; Mr. Gregory 300 Marks, Mr. Hutchinson 200 Marks; Fines being likewise set upon the rest according to the value of their several Estates. And that all of them find Sureties for their Good Behaviour for a Twelve month.

Westminster, June 14. This day Sir Thomas Armstrong was brought from Newgate to the Kings Bench Bar, where being asked what he could say for himself, why Execution should not be awarded against him, he standing attainted by Outlawry upon an Indictment of High Treason for Conspiring the Death of the King, &c. and having nothing material to offer, the Court made a Rule, that he should be executed on Friday next at Tyburn.

The Master, Wardens and Assistants of the Trinity-House of Deptford Strand, do hereby give notice to all Commanders, Masters of Ships, and others Concerned, That there is now wrecked in the Swyn, three new Beacons, one upon the Wreck of the Black-tail, another upon the Shooe, and the third upon the Whitaker, and that there is also laid a White Buoy at the East end of the middle Ground.

These are to give notice, that there is lately taken, and in the Custody of the Keeper of Newgate, London, a Notorious Offender, by Name Nicholas Graydinge or Grayden, a middle statured man, fresh coloured, light brown Hair, thin visaged, his Nose pretty thin, about 24 years of Age, with a dark coloured Cloth Suit with Silver and Gold Buttons. He is vehemently suspected to be concerned in these Robberies and Burglaries following, viz. In a Burglary committed in Norfolk some time since with three more, where one of their Companions was killed. In a Robbery on the Highway with Walter Gilman nigh Newport in Hessex, where they thort a Horse: In another Robbery with the said Gilman and one Furniell, for robbing two Burchers that live about four Miles from Ailesbury: In another Robbery at Stowe in the Woods in Gloucestershire. He usually when he hath committed any Robberies, to go for Ireland till the noise be over. There was taken with him a large Silver Rapier with a Bow and Silver figure in the Shell, with a Scrowl Leaf on each side of the Figure; a Mass Face on the middle of the Bow, a railed Silver handle and a three Square Blade. A Silver Watch with a tudded Case, the Lining out of the lower part of the Case, long frised Hours on the Dial Plate; it has likewise the days of the Month, and goes 30 hours; the Makers name is Thomas Rothram de Lewis. If any one has been robbed by the said Graydinge, or of the said Watch and Sword, let them repair to the said Keeper, where they may see the said Offender, and the Watch and Sword, if owned, restored, prosecuting the Offender according to Law.

Advertisements.

The Feast of the Loyal Gentry and Livery-men which was held last year in Westminster-Hall, will be kept there this year on Thursday the 10th day of July next: The Tickets are to be disposed of by Mr. William Cademan in the New Exchange, Mr. William Heniman in Westminster-Hall, and at Mr. Walter Davis's in Amen-Corner in London.

The Yorkshire Annual Feast will be kept at Merchant Taylors Hall on Tuesday the 24th of this Instant June: And all Gentlemen may be supplied with Tickets at the Publick Counting House at the Bridge House in Southwark, at Mr. Edward Goulton's Engraver under the Piazza on the South side of the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at Mr. William Petty's at the Three Angels and Crown Tavern in Cheapside, at Mr. William Petty's at the Grey Hound Inn in Holbourn, and at Mr. William Wyley's at the Golden Lyon Tavern at Charing Cross.

Several Gentlemen that were heretofore Scholars at the Biggin School in Hitchin in the County of Hertford, having agreed to have a yearly Feast among themselves, have appointed the first meeting to be on Tuesday the 24th of this Instant June, and all such Gentlemen as (having been Scholars there) are willing to joyn with them in this Friendly design, may have Tickets for the said Feast at Mr. Daniel Brace's Coffee House in Bread-street, Mr. Edward Goldings Stationer at the Rose and Rain-bow in Aldergate-street, and Mr. John Viles's at the Temple Tavern in Fleet-street.

These are to give notice, that the Herefordshire Feast will not be kept on the 26th but on Wednesday the 25th of this Instant June, at Merchant Taylors Hall, and that all Herefordshire Gentlemen may be furnished with Tickets at Mr. William Norr's at the Stationers Arms in the Pall-Mall, at Mr. Charles Harpers over against St. Dunstons Church in Fleet-street, Book-feller, at Mr. James Duppas at the Three Tun Tavern in Holbourn, at Mr. Paul Caryes at the Feathers Tavern in Cheapside, at Mr. John Clarkes at the Bolt and Tun Inn in Fleet-street, and at Mr. John Parpoints at the Magpye Tavern near Alldgate.

One, not far from the Royal Exchange in London upon Monday the Ninth of this Instant June, a Necklace of Pearl with four Strings, each string containing 109 Pearls or there about, with a narrow Black Ribbon at each end, if any Person have found the same, and please to bring it to Mr. Manning at the Blew Anchor Tavern in Sweetings Rents near the Exchange shall have half the real Price that any known Goldsmith or Jeweller shall value them at.

These are to give notice, that there will be a Plate run for one Heat, of about four Miles, by Horses, Mares, or Geldings, that never run for above Five Pounds a side, or for a Plate of above Ten Pounds value before: And also a second Plate Three Heats by Horses, Mares, or Geldings, not exceeding Ten Pounds value, on Wednesday the 23d day of July next, at a place called Doncaster old Horse Course near Doncaster in the County of York, the first Horses to be shown and entered there a week before for this year, but for the future a Month before; and the day after (being a Fair) there will be a show of Horses.