Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 22, 1836.

BY HIS MAJESTY'S COMMAND.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons attending the Drawing-Rooms and State Balls at St. James's-Palace, who wear any civil uniform, must appear in shoes with buckles, and breeches with knee buckles.

The Master of the Horse, the Master of the Buck Hounds, the Equeires and the Pages of Honour, all Officers of the Navy and Army, Militia and Yeomanry, the Lord Lieutenants of Counties and Deputy Lieutenants, are to appear at the Drawing-Rooms and State Balls in uniform trowsers and boots, agreeably to regulation.

[In the Gazettes of the 22d and 29th of April last, a transposition occurred by accident in the second and third insertions of the Order in Council of the 13th April, respecting the Port of Old Harbour, in the Island of Jamaica, we, therefore, reinsert the Order correctly, as it was given in the first insertion, in the Gazette of the 19th of April.]

AT the Court at St. Janies's, the 13th day of April 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British

" possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, excepting to or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act contained; and it is thereby further enacted, that if any goods shall be imported into any port or place in any of the said possessions contrary to the said Act, such goods shall be forfeited; and it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereafter provided, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned Provisions of the said
