PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, made in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter (except the possessions of the said Company), as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary:

And whereas by the same Act, after reciting that it was expedient to constitute and appoint some of the free ports, and other ports in America, to be free warehousing ports for all or any of the goods which may be legally imported into such ports respectively, it is enacted, that certain ports therein enumerated and described should be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act; and whereas by the same Act various enactments, with reference to the ports so made free warehousing ports as aforesaid, are contained in the words following, that is to say:

And that it shall be lawful for the several collectors and controllers of the said ports respectively, by notice in writing under their hands, to appoint from time to time such warehouses at such ports respectively, as shall be approved of by them, for the free warehousing and securing of goods therein for the purposes of this Act; and also in such notice to declare, what sort of goods may be so warehoused; and also, by like notice, to revoke or alter any such appointment or declaration; provided always, that every such notice shall be transmitted to the governor of the place, and shall be published in such manner as he shall direct:

And be it further enacted, that it shall be lawful for the importer of any such goods into the said ports, to warehouse the same in the warehouses so appointed, without payment of any duty on the first entry thereof; subject, nevertheless, to the rules, regulations, restrictions, and conditions hereinafter contained:

And be it further enacted, that all goods so warehoused shall be stowed in such parts or divisions of the warehouse, and in such manner, as the collector and controller shall direct; and that the warehouse shall be locked and secured in such manner, and shall be opened and visited only at such times, and in the presence of such officers, and under such rules and regulations, as the collector and controller shall direct; and that all such goods shall, after being landed upon importation, be carried to the warehouse, or shall, after being taken out of the warehouse for exportation, be carried to be shipped, under such rules and regulations as the collector and controller shall direct:

And be it further enacted, that upon the entry of any goods to be warehoused, the importer of such goods, instead of paying down the duties due thereon, shall give bond, with two sufficient sureties, to be approved of by the collector or controller, in treble the duties payable on such goods, with condition for the safe depositing of such goods in the warehouse mentioned in such entry, and for the payment of all duties due upon such goods, or for the exportation thereof, according to the first account taken of such goods upon the landing of the same; and with further condition, that no part thereof shall be taken out of such warehouse until cleared from thence upon due entry and payment of duty, or upon due entry for exportation; and with further condition, that the whole of such goods shall be so cleared from such warehouse, and the duties upon any deficiency of the quantity, according to such first account, shall be paid within two years from the date of the first entry thereof; and if, after such bond shall have been given, the goods, or any part thereof, shall be sold or disposed of, so that the original bondholder shall be no longer interested in, or have any controul over, the same, it shall be lawful for the collector or controller to admit fresh security to be given by the bond of the new proprietor or other person having controul over such goods, with his sufficient sureties, and to cancel the bond given by the original bondholder of such goods, or to exonerate him to the extent of the fresh security so given:

And be it further enacted, that if any goods which have been entered to be warehoused shall not be duly carried and deposited in the warehouse, or shall afterwards be taken out of the warehouse without due entry and clearance, or, having been entered and cleared for exportation from the warehouse, shall not be duly carried and shipped, or shall afterwards be relanded, except with permission of the proper officer of the customs, such goods shall be forfeited:

And be it further enacted, that upon the entry and landing of any goods to be warehoused the proper officer of the customs shall take a particular account of the same, and shall mark the contents on each package, and shall enter the same in a book to be kept for that purpose; and no goods which have been so warehoused shall be taken or delivered from the warehouse, except upon due entry, and under care of the proper officers for exportation, or upon due entry and payment of duty for home use; and whenever the whole of the goods warehoused under any entry shall be cleared from the warehouse; or whenever further time shall be granted for any such goods to remain warehoused, an account shall be made out of the quantity upon which the duties have been paid, and of the quantity exported, and of the quantity (to be then ascertained) of the goods still remaining in the warehouse, as the case may be, deducting from the whole the quantity contained in any whole packages (if any) which may have been abandoned for the duties; and if upon such account there shall in either case appear to be any deficiency of the original quantity, the duty payable upon the amount of such deficiency shall then be paid:

And be it further enacted, that it shall be lawful for the collector or controller, under such regulations as they shall see fit, to permit moderate samples to be taken of any goods so warehoused without entry, and without payment of duty, except as the same shall eventually become payable, as on a deficiency of the original quantity:

And be it further enacted, that it shall be lawful for the collector and controller, under such regulations as they shall see fit, to permit the proprietor, or other person having controul over any goods so warehoused, to sort, separate, and pack and repack any such goods, and to make such lawful alterations therein, or arrangements and assortments thereof, as may be necessary for the preservation of such goods, or in order to the sale, shipment, or legal disposal of the same; and also to permit any parts of such goods so separated to be destroyed, but without prejudice to the claim for duty upon the whole original quantity of such goods; provided always, that it shall be lawful for any person to abandon any whole packages to the officers of the customs for the duties, without being liable to any duty upon the same:

And be it further enacted, that goods warehoused at any warehousing port in any of the British possessions in America, being first duly entered, may be delivered, under the authority of the proper officer of the customs, without payment of duty, except for any deficiency thereof, for the purpose of removal to another warehousing port in the same possession, under bond, to the satisfaction of such officer, for the due arrival and rewarehousing of such goods at such other port:

And be it further enacted, that all goods which have been so warehoused or rewarehoused shall be duly cleared, either for exportation or for home consumption, within two years from the day of the first entry for the warehousing thereof; and if any such goods be not so cleared, it shall be lawful for the collector and controller to cause the same to be sold, and the produce shall be applied, first, to the payment of the duties, next, of warehouse rent and other charges, and the overplus (if any) shall be paid to the proprietor; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the collector and controller to grant further time for any such goods to remain warehoused, if they shall see fit so to do:

And be it further enacted, that upon the entry outwards of any goods to be exported from the warehouse, the person entering the same shall give security, by bond, in treble the duties of importation on the quantity of such goods, with two sufficient sureties, to be approved by the collector or controller, that the same shall be landed at the place for which they be entered outwards, or be otherwise accounted for to the satisfaction of the collector and controller:

And be it further enacted, that all vessels, boats, carriages, and cattle made use of in the removal of any goods liable to forfeiture under this Act shall be forfeited; and every person who shall assist, or be otherwise concerned, in the unshipping, landing, or removal, or in the harbouring of such goods, or into whose hands or possession the same shall knowingly come, shall forfeit the treble value thereof, or the penalty of one hundred pounds, at the election of the officers of the customs; and the averment in any information or libel to be exhibited for the recovery of such penalty, that the officer proceeding has elected to sue for the sum mentioned in the information, shall be deemed sufficient proof of such election, without any other or further evidence of such fact:

And be it further enacted, that all goods, and all ships, vessels, and boats, and all carriages, and all cattle, liable to forfeiture under this Act, shall and may be seized and secured by any officer of the customs or navy, or by any person employed for that purpose, by or with the concurrence of the commissioners of His Majesty's customs; and every person who shall, in any way, hinder, oppose, molest, or obstruct any officer of the customs or navy, or any person so employed as aforesaid, in the exercise of his office, or any person acting in his aid or assistance, shall, for every such offence, forfeit the sum of two hundred pounds:

And be it further enacted, that, under authority of a writ of assistance granted by the superior or supreme Court of Justice, or Court of Vice Admiralty having jurisdiction in the place, who are hereby authorised and required to grant such writ of assistance upon application made to them for that purpose by the principal officers of His Majesty's customs, it shall be lawful for any officer of the customs, taking with him a peace officer, to enter any building or other place in the daytime, and to search for and seize and secure any goods liable to forfeiture under this Act, and, in case of necessity, to break open any doors and any chests or other packages for that purpose; and such writ of assistance, when issued, shall be deemed to be in force during the whole of the reign in which the same shall have been granted, and for twelve months from the conclusion of such reign:

And be it further enacted, that if any person shall, by force or violence, assault, resist, oppose, molest, hinder, or obstruct any officer of the customs or navy, or other person employed as aforesaid, in the exercise of his office, or any person acting in his aid or assistance, such person, being thereof convicted, shall be adjudged a felon, and shall be proceeded against as such, and punished at the discretion of the court before whom such person shall be tried:

And be it further enacted, that all things which shall be seized as being liable to forfeiture under this Act, or under any Act made for the prevention of smuggling, or relating to the revenue of customs, or to trade or navigation, shall be taken forthwith and delivered into the custody of the collector and controller of the customs at the Custom-house next to the place where the same were seized, who shall secure the same by such means, and in such manner, as shall be provided and directed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs; and, after condemnation thereof, the collector and controller shall cause the same to be sold by public auction, to the best bidder; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs to direct in what manner the produce of such sale shall be applied, or, in lieu of such sale, to direct that any of such things shall be destroyed, or shall be reserved for the public service:

And be it further enacted, that all penalties and forfeitures which may have been heretofore, or may be hereafter, incurred under this or any other Act relating to the customs, or to trade, or navigation, shall and may be prosecuted, sued for, and recovered in any court of record, or of vice-admiralty, having jurisdiction in the colony or plantation where the cause of prosecution arises, and in cases where there shall happen to be no such courts, then in any court of record, or of vice-admiralty, having jurisdiction in in some British colony or plantation near to that where the cause of prosecution arises; provided, that in cases where a seizure is made in any other colony than that where the forfeiture accrues, such seizure may be prosecuted in any court of record, or of vice-admiralty, having jurisdiction either in the colony or plantation where the forfeiture accrues, or in the colony or plantation where the seizure is made, at the election of the seizer or prosecutor; and in cases where there shall happen to be no such courts in either of the last mentioned colonies or plantations, then in the court of record, or of vice-admiralty, having jurisdiction in some British colony or plantation near to that where the forfeiture accrues, or to that where the seizure is made, at the election of the seizer or prosecutor:

And be it further enacted, that if any goods, or any ship or vessel, shall be seized as forfeited under this Act, or any Act hereafter to be made, and detained in any of the British possessions in America, it shall be lawful for the judge or judges of any court having jurisdiction to try and determine such seizures, with the consent of the collector and controller of the customs, to order the delivery thereof, on security by bond, with two sufficient sureties, to be first approved by such collector and controller, to answer double the value of the same, in case of condemnation; and such bond shall be taken to the use of His Majesty, in the name of the collector of the customs in whose custody the goods, or the ship or vessel, may be lodged, and such bond shall be delivered and kept in the joint custody of such collector and his controller; and, in case the goods, or the ship or vessel, shall be condemned, the value thereof shall be paid into the hands of such collector, who shall thereupon, with the consent or privity of his controller, cancel such bond:

And be it further enacted, that no suit shall be commenced for the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture under this Act, except in the name of some superior officer of the customs or navy, or other person employed as hereinbefore mentioned, or of His Majesty's Advocate or Attorney-General for the place where such suit shall be commenced; and if a question shall arise, whether any person is an officer of the customs or navy, or such other person as aforesaid, videlicet evidence may be given of such a fact, and shall be deemed legal and sufficient evidence:

And be it further enacted, that if any goods shall be seized for nonpayment of duties, or any other cause of forfeiture, and any dispute shall arise whether the duties have been paid for the same, or the same have been lawfully imported, or lawfully laden or exported, the proof thereof shall lie on the owner or claimer of such goods, and not on the officer who shall seize and stop the same :

And be it further enacted, that no claim to any thing seized under this Act, and returned into any of His Majesty's courts for adjudication, shall be admitted, unless such claim be entered in the name of the owner, with his residence and occupation, nor unless oath to the property in such thing be made by the owner, or by his attorney or agent by whom such claim shall be entered, to the best of his knowledge and belief ; and every person making a false oath thereto shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanour, and shall be liable to the pains and penalties to which persons are liable for a misdemeanour :

And be it further enacted, that no person shall be admitted to enter a claim to any thing seized in pursuance of this Act, and prosecuted in any of the British possessions in America, until sufficient security shall have been given in the court where such seizure is prosecuted, in a penalty, not exceeding sixty pounds, to answer and pay the costs occasioned by such claim ; and, in default of giving such security, such things shall be adjudged to be forfeited, and shall be condemned :

And be it further enacted, that no writ shall be sued out against, nor a copy of any process served upon, any officers of the customs or navy, or other person as aforesaid, for anything done in the exercise of his office, until one calendar month after notice, in writing, shall have been delivered to him, or left at his usual place of abode, by the attorney or agent of the party who intends to sue out such writ or process ; in which notice shall be clearly and explicitly contained the cause of the action, the name and place of abode of the person who is to bring such action, and the name and place of abode of the attorney or agent ; and no evidence of the cause of such action shall be produced except of such as shall be contained in such notice ; and no verdict shall be given for the plaintiff unless he shall prove on the trial that such notice was given ; and in default of such proof the defendant shall receive in such action a verdict and costs :

And be it further enacted, that every such action shall be brought within three calendar months after the cause thereof ; and shall be laid and tried in the place or district where the facts were committed ; and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence ; and if the plaintiff shall become nonsuited, or shall discontinue the action, or if upon a verdict or demurrer judgment shall be given against the plaintiff, the defendant shall receive treble costs, and have such remedy for the same as any defendant can have in other cases where costs are given by law :

And be it further enacted, that in case any information or suit shall be brought to trial on account of any seizure made under this Act, and a verdict shall be found for the claimant thereof, and the judge or court before whom the cause shall have been tried shall certify on the record that there was probable cause of seizure, the claimant shall not be entitled to any costs of suit, nor shall the person who made such seizure be liable to any action, indictment, or other suit, or prosecution, on account of such seizure ; and if any action, indictment, or other suit or prosecution, shall be brought to trial against any person on account of such seizure, wherein a verdict shall be given against the defendant, the plaintiff, besides the things seized, or the value thereof, shall not be entitled to more than two pence damages, nor to any costs of suit, nor shall the defendant in such prosecution be fined more than one shilling :

And be it further enacted, that it shall be lawful for such officer, within one calendar month after such notice, to tender amends to the party complaining or his agent, and to plead such tender in bar to any action, together with other pleas, and if the jury shall find the amends sufficient, they shall give a verdict for the defendant, and in such case, or in case the plaintiff shall become nonsuited, or shall discontinue his action, or judgment shall be given for the defendant upon demurrer, then such defendant shall be entitled to the like costs as he would have been entitled to in case he had pleaded the general issue only ; provided always, that it shall be lawful for such defendant, by leave of the court where such action shall be brought, at any time before issue joined, to pay money into court as in other actions :

And be it further enacted, that in any such action, if the judge or court before whom such action shall be tried, shall certify upon the record that the defendant or defendants in such action acted upon probable cause, then the plaintiff in such action shall not be entitled to more than two pence damages, nor to any costs of suits :

And be it further enacted, that all penalties and forfeitures recovered in any of the British possessions in America under this Act, or under any Act made for the prevention of smuggling, or relating to the revenue of customs, or to trade or navigation, shall be paid into the hands of the collector or controller of the port or place in the British possession in America where the same shall have been recovered, and shall be divided, paid, and applied as follows : that is to say, after deducting the charges of prosecution from the produce thereof, one third part of the net produce shall be paid into the hands of the collector of His Majesty's customs at the port or place where such penalties or forfeitures shall be recovered for the use of His Majesty ; one third part to the governor or commander in chief of the said colony or plantation ; and the other third part to the person who shall seize, inform, and sue for the same ; excepting such seizure as shall be made at sea by the commanders or officers of His Majesty's ships of war, duly authorised to make seizures, one moiety of which seizures, and of the penalties and forfeitures recovered thereon (first deducting the charges of prosecution from the gross produce thereof), shall be paid as aforesaid to the collector of His Majesty's customs, to and for the use of His Majesty, and the other moiety to him or them who shall seize, inform, and sue for the same, any law, custom, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding, subject, nevertheless, to such distribution of the produce of the seizures so made at sea, as well with regard to the moiety hereinbefore granted to His Majesty, as with regard to the other moiety given to the seizor or prosecutor, as His Majesty shall think fit to order and direct by any Order or Orders of Council, or by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be made for that purpose :

And be it further enacted, that all actions or suits for the recovery of any of the penalties or forfeitures imposed by this Act, may be commenced or prosecuted at any time within three years after the offence committed by reason whereof such penalty or forfeiture shall be incurred, any law, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding :

Provided always, and be it further enacted, that in any case in which proceedings shall have been, or shall hereafter be, instituted in any court of vice-admiralty, or other competent court in any of His Majesty's possessions abroad, against any ship, vessel, boat, goods, or effects, for the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture under any Act for the prevention of smuggling, or relating to the revenue of customs, or to the trade or navigation of the United Kingdom, or of any of His Majesty's possessions abroad, the execution of any sentence or decree, restoring such ship, vessel, boat, goods, or effects, to the claimant thereof, which shall be pronounced by the said vice-admiralty court in which such proceedings shall have been had, shall not be suspended by reason of any appeal which shall be prayed and allowed from such sentence, provided that the party or parties appellate shall give sufficient security, to be approved of by the court, to render and deliver the ship, vessel, boat, goods, or effects, concerning which such sentence or decree shall be pronounced, or the full value thereof, to be ascertained either by agreement between the parties, or in case the said parties cannot agree, then by appraisement under the authority of the said court, to the appellant or appellants, in case the sentence or decree so appealed from shall be reversed, and such ship, vessel, boat, goods, or effects be ultimately condemned :

And whereas it is expedient that all those parts of the said Act, made in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, which are hereinbefore particularly recited, should be extended and applied to Port Elizabeth, in the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, so that the said port may be made a free warehousing port, within the meaning, and for the purposes of, the said Act :

His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in further pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in Him by the last recited Act, order, and it is hereby ordered, that all and every the said enactments and declarations in the said Act so passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, so far as the same are hereinbefore recited, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended and applied to the said port of Port Elizabeth ; and it is ordered, that the said port of Port Elizabeth shall be, and it is hereby declared to be, a free warehousing port, within the meaning, and for the purposes, of the above recited Act ; and, from and after the day on which this present Order shall be promulgated within the said colony of the Cape of Good Hope, all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, respecting the free warehousing ports therein mentioned, shall be deemed and construed to extend to the said Port

Elizabeth as a free warehousing port, as fully and effectually as if such port were inserted among the free warehousing ports in the said Act contained :

Provided nevertheless, and it is further ordered, that any goods warehoused at any warehousing port in the Cape of Good Hope, being first duly entered, may be delivered, under the authority of the proper officer of the customs, without payment of duty, except for any deficiency thereof, for the purpose of removal to another warehousing port in the same colony, under bond, to the satisfaction of such officer, for the due arrival and rewarehousing of such goods at such other port :

And it is further ordered, that the governor, or the officer for the time being administering the government, of the said colony of the Cape of Good Hope shall, and is hereby required to, promulgate this present Order within one calendar month next after the receipt thereof by him; and this Order shall take effect within the said colony, and have the force of law there upon, from, and after the date of such promulgation thereof as aforesaid, and not before.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

And in order to facilitate the navigation of vessels by night, through the Inner Channel, between the Newcome and the shore, the Stanford Light-vessel will, at the same time, be removed to a suitable berth for that purpose, and the passage through this Channel will then be marked by two white buoys upon the shoal near to the entrance into Lowestoft-harbour, and by four black buoys upon the Newcome Sand, the south westernmost of which will be distinguished by a staff and vane.
