TUESDAY, JUNE 7, 1836.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 27, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's next Levee will take place on Wednesday the 8th of June, and in future the Levees will be held on Wednesdays as usual until further orders.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 22, 1836.

BY HIS MAJESTY'S COMMAND.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons attending the Drawing-Rooms and State Balls at St. James's-Palace, who wear any civil uniform, must appear in shoes with buckles, and breeches with knee buckles.

The Master of the Horse, the Master of the Buck Hounds, the Equeries and the Pages of Honour, all Officers of the Navy and Army, Militia and Yeomanry, the Lord Lieutenants of Counties and Deputy Lieutenants, are to appear at the Drawing-Rooms and State Balls in uniform trowsers and boots, agreeably to regulation.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th day of May 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned shall be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act; and that every port so appointed shall be, for all the purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities in His Majesty by the said Act in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the port of Grand Key, Turk's Island, in the Bahamas, shall be a free warehousing port for all the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th day of May 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British "possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, excepting to or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act contained; and it is thereby further enacted, that if any goods shall be imported into any port or place in any of the said possessions contrary to the said Act, such goods shall be forfeited; and it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereafter provided, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas by the hereinbefore recited Act, it is also enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned shall be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act; and that every port so appointed shall be, for all the purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned provisions of the said Act, respecting such free ports and free warehousing ports, to the port of Harbour Grace, in the island of Newfoundland:

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports respectively therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the port of Harbour Grace, in the island of Newfoundland; and that, from and after the tenth day of July next, all the privileges and advantages by the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said port of Harbour Grace, as fully and effectually as if such port had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities in His Majesty by the said Act in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the port of Harbour Grace, in the island of Newfoundland, hereinbefore appointed a free port as aforesaid, shall also, from and after the tenth day of July next, be a free warehousing port for all the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.

2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom the Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court, in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N.B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 6, c. 11, as the case may be.

In the Matter of Samuel Maud, an Insolvent Debtor.

THE Creditors of Samuel Maud, formerly of Heaton, near Bradford, in the West Riding of Yorkshire, Farmer, Wool-sorter, and Innkeeper, and lately of Mauningham, near Bradford aforesaid, Wool-sorter, an Insolvent Debtor, who was discharged from the Gaol of York Castle, in the County of York, on or about the 3d day of July 1832, are requested to meet at the Office of Mr. Wells, Solicitor, in Darley-Street, in Bradford aforesaid, on Thursday the 23d day of June instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon of the same day precisely, for the purpose of choosing an Assignee or Assignees of the said Insolvent's estate and effects.

THE Creditors of George Rees, of the Golden Cross Inn, Little London, Chichester, in the County of Sussex, Victualler, an Insolvent Debtor, and lately discharged from the King's Bench Prison, are desired to attend a meeting at the Office of T. F. Hilditch, No. 21, Calthorpe-Street, Guildford-Street, London, Solicitor to the Assignee, on Wednesday the 22d day of June instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of prosecuting or compounding a certain action at law, lately commenced by the said Assignee; and generally upon the affairs of the said Insolvency.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of Henry Spencer, late of Silsden, near Keighley, in the County of York, Nail-Maker, an Insolvent Debtor, and late a Prisoner in the Castle of York, in the County of York, will be held at the Office of Mr. Procter Hall, in Keighley aforesaid, on Monday the 27th day of June instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, to approve and direct in what manner, and at what place or places, the real or personal estate of the said Insolvent shall be sold by public auction; and also to assent to or dissent from the Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of the said Insolvent's estate and effects; or to his compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of John Laslett, late in Lodgings in Pound-Lane, in the City of Canterbury, out of business, an Insolvent Debtor, who was lately discharged from His Majesty's Gaol of the City of Canterbury, in the County of the same City, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will be held on Wednesday the 22d day of June instant, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Office of Mr. William Lee, Solicitor, at Jail-Street, in the Town and Port of Sandwich, in the County of Kent, to approve and direct in what manner, and at what place or places, the real estate of the said Insolvent shall be sold by public auction.
