Venice, June 10. This Morning the Procurator Moresini Captain General of the Forces of this State, sailed from hence with 16 Ships, 5 Galeasses, and 2 Gallies, to joyn the rest of the Fleet. They have on board a great many Land-men, which are commanded under the General by the Count de Straffoldo. From Dalmatia they write, that the Turks having attempted to retake Duarez from the Morlaques, they were defeated with the loss of 200 men. By a Vessel arrived from Cyprus we have advice, that the Grand Signior hath caused all the Goods belonging to the Subjects of this State to be seized.

Milan, June 7. Our Governor the Count de Melgar, has, since his return from Genova, given out Commissions for twenty Companies of Foot, which are to be raised in Lombardy; and there is a discourse of making another Levy of Germans.

Legborne, June 6. The 31. past, arrived in this Port three French Men of War commanded by Monsieur Tourville, who sailed again the third Instant, being, it's said, bound for Tripoly. The Pope Gallies, and a Part of our great Duke, are gone to joyn the Venetian Fleet.

Vienna, June 11. The Reports from Hungary give an account that the Imperial Troops had passed the Waag at several places without holding a General Rendezvous; and that on the eighth Instant the Duke of Lorraine had his Quartets near Comorra, having about 30000 men in a Body, not reckoning those that are commanded by the Baron de Mercy and those of the Prince de Lubomirski; and that the Count de Staremberg our Governor arrived the seventh at his Highnesses Quarters, being accompanied with Father Marc d'Aviano, and the Baron Abele. Count Maximilian de Staremberg is likewise gone to the Army, being to command the Artillery; and in few days the Gallies, and other small Vessels that are to be commanded by the Count de Vecchi, will be in a condition to part from hence. The Letters from Buda of the first Instant tell us, that the Poles and Cossacks, have defeated a great Body of Turks and Tartars on the Frontiers of Moldavia; and that of these 16000 and eight Bassas were slain; and that Serasquier Bassa, who at the Siege of this City, was Aga of the Janissaries, and was appointed by the Grand Signior to command his Forces this Campaign in Hungary, upon the news of this defeat, had orders sent him to march with the best of his Troops towards Valachia; The Turks thinking it of the greatest importance to them, to secure themselves on that side.

Linz, June 13. They write from Hungary, that the Duke of Lorraine was on his march with the Imperial Army towards Buda, having left Newbrusel blockaded up by the Troops commanded by the Baron de Mercy; and we hope that place will not be able to hold out much longer, all our advices assuring us it is reduced to the last extremity. The Count de Dracowitz has undertaken to raise a Regiment of Hungarians for the Emperors Service. And the Palatine of Hungary does assemble the Troops of that Kingdom.

Cologné, June 20. The Deputies which our Magistrates sent to Bonne, returned last night, but we know not yet what report they have made of their Commission. The French do demolish the Fortifications of Frier, except the Walls which will be left standing for the security of the place; and we have advice that the Mareschal de Crequi hath likewise put Garrisons into Witlich and Bern Cassell.

Hamburg, June 20. The Danish Troops are marching to the General Rendezvous in Hohstein; The King of Denmark is at present at Lixebroe, but purpoues to go from thence to Oldesloe. The Dukes of Lunenburg have put some Troops into Dominz belonging to the Duke of Mecklenburg. Our last Letters from Cracow gave an account that the King of Poland was arrived on the Frontiers of Podolitz, where his Army was to Rendezvous; and that all things were preparing for the Siege of Caminiec.

Hague, June 23. The Provinces of Holland, Friseland, Groningen, Utrecht and Ower Yssel have agreed to the Truce proposed by his Most Christian Majesty. And the Deputies of Zealand and Gelderland are expecting the return of the Expresses they sent to their Principals, which it's not doubted but will likewise bring the contents of these Provinces. So that it's believed the States General will to morrow take a formal Resolution in this important Matter, and sign the Treaty proposed. The States of Holland have, it's said, ordered that the Papers of Amsterdam that were sealed up, shall be restored to the Deputies of that City.

Brussels, June 23. The French Army commanded by the Marschal de Schomberg continues encamped at Leffines, and it's said they are near 60000 strong. The Dutch and Spanish Troops we are told will change their Camp to-morrow, having consumed all the Forage where they now are. We had yesterday our Spanish Letters, which brought nothing considerable, except the account they give of the raising of the Siege of Gironne, and the retreat of the French Army: They tell us that the French lost in the Assault they made upon that place, above 4000 men and 107 Captains. Our Letters from Cologne of the 20th Instant inform us, that the Elector was removed from thence to Bonne, being very much dissatisfied with the Magistrates of Cologne. And from Trier we have an account that the Marschal de Crequi had put some Troops into that City, and that they were demolishing the Fortifications of it. The advices from Hungary say, The Imperial Army marches directly towards Buda, with intention to Besiege it; and confirm the news we had of a great Victory obtained by the Poles and Cossacks on the Frontiers of Moldavia; of the Turks and Tartars, who were marching to relieve Caminiec, 18000 with five or six Passes were killed or taken; and upon this defeat the Aga of the Janisaries, who was marching with a great Army towards Hungary, was called back and ordered to march towards Valachia and Moldavia.

Paris, June 24. The Marschal de Schomberg, according to our last advices from Flanders, was still encamped at Leffines, expecting the Resolution of the States General upon the offers that have been made to them by his Most Christian Majesty. On Sunday last we had an account that the Marschal de Crequi had put some men into Trier; and that they were working with great diligence to demolish the out-works, and to fill up the Ditches: It's said Prince Waldeck had a design to put 4000 Germans into that place, but coming too late, was obliged to retire again. On Wednesday last the Duke of Mecklenburg, who has been some time here, was arrested by order of the King, and carried to Vincennes. The last Letters from Catalonia said, the Marschal de Belfonds was encamped at S. Pere Pescador, not being at present in a condition to undertake any thing considerable.

Westminster, June 18. This day according to a Rule made by the Court of Kings Bench, Sir Peter Daniel and Samuel Dashwood Esq; the present High Sheriff of Middlesex, attended the said Court with a Jury by them summoned, to enquire of Damages upon an Action of Scandalum Magnatum, brought by his Royal Highness against Titus Oates, for saying his Royal Highness was a Traitor, with several such other Malignant and Scandalous Reflections upon his Royal Highness, to which Action the said Oates suffered Judgment to pass by Default; and after public examination of several Witnesses in Court, who gave a full proof of the Words contained in the Declaration, and of divers others most Malicious and Scandalous words spoken of his Royal Highness by the said Oates, the Jury assented to his Royal Highness's Damages.

Francis Smith was brought to the Kings Bench Bar to receive the Judgment of the Court, being convicted of Publishing several Scandalous and Seditious Libels, and now lately of that called the Race Sheet. The Court ordered, He should pay a Fine of 500

That he should stand thrice in the Pillory, and the said Libel be burnt by the hands of the common Hangman; That he should find Sureties for his good Behaviour during his Life; and that he should be committed till all this was performed.
