*H. Holland.
Thos. Copeland.
Henry Alexander.*

AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th day of May 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned shall be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act; and that every port so appointed shall be, for all the purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities in His Majesty by the said Act in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the port of Grand Key, Turk's Island, in the Bahamas, shall be a free warehousing port for all the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst,

AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th day of May 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British “possessions abroad,” it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, excepting to or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act contained; and it is thereby further enacted, that if any goods shall be imported into any port or place in any of the said possessions contrary to the said Act, such goods shall be forfeited; and it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereinafter provided, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas by the hereinbefore recited Act it is also enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned shall be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act; and that every port so appointed shall be, for all the purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned provisions of the said Act, respecting such free ports and free warehousing ports, to the port of Harbour Grace, in the island of Newfoundland:

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports respectively therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the port of Harbour Grace, in the island of Newfoundland; and that, from and after the tenth day of July next, all the privileges and advantages by the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said port of Harbour Grace, as fully and effectually as if such port had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities in His Majesty by the said Act in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the port of Harbour Grace, in the island of Newfoundland, hereinbefore appointed a free port as aforesaid, shall also, from and after the tenth day of July next, be a free warehousing port for all the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Church Commissioners'-Office,
April 2, 1836.

THE following is a copy of an Order of His Majesty in Council, assigning a district, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3rd. cap. 134, to the church built at Hulme, in the parish of Manchester:

At the Court at St. James's, on the 23d day of March 1831, present, the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other emoluments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain, and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and whereas by the said Act it is further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish or extra parochial place into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such districts, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division;" and whereas by another Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act, or the said Act, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which may hereafter be built or required, under the powers of the said Act, or this Act, and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case, by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates;" and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to His Majesty in Council, stating that, in pursuance of the power vested in them, they have caused to be built, in the township of Hulme, in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Laneaster and diocese of Chester, a chapel, which affords accommodation for 2002 persons, including 1071 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; that such last-mentioned chapel has been consecrated and divine service is regularly performed therein:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented to His Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending the said parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said chapel, under the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," for the purpose and to the intents in the said section of the last-mentioned Act; and that such district should be named St. George's District in the township of Hulme, with boundaries as follows:

"This district is bounded on part of the north westerly side, in an irregular line from A. to B. on the accompanying plan, by the River Medlock; on the north easterly side from B. to C. by the middle of a certain waste-weir appertaining to the Duke of Bridgewater's canal; on part of the northerly side in an irregular line from C. to D. by the said canal, and on the other part from D. to E. by the River Medlock; which parts of the River Medlock, canal, and middle of waste-weir divide this district from the township of Manchester; on part of the easterly side in an irregular line from E. to F. by the Chorlton-hall Estate, in the township of Chorlton-Row, late belonging to Messrs. Cooper, Marsland, and Duckworth, and now appropriated as building-land; and on other part from F. to G. by Moss-Side-lane, in the township of Chorlton-Row; on part of the southerly side from G. to H. by a certain close of land, in the township of Chorlton-Row, belonging to James Darbishire, and in his holding, called Pleasure-ground; and on other part from H. to I. by the middle of a certain street called Embden-place; on part of the south easterly side from I. to K. by a garden, in the township of Chorlton-Row, belonging to James Wood, and in his holding; on other parts of the south easterly and easterly sides, and on the remaining part of the northerly side from K. to L. by a certain close of land, in the township of Chorlton-Row, belonging to George Hadfield, Esq. and now in the holding of William Johnson, called Broad-field; on the remaining part of the south easterly side from L. to M. by a certain other close of land, in the township of Chorlton-Row, belonging to the said George Hadfield, and now in the occupation of the said William Johnson, called Long-field and Little field; and other parts of the southerly and easterly sides from M. to N. by a certain close of land, called Field before the House, being part of an estate, in the township of Moss-Side, belonging to the Rev. Samuel Bradshaw, and now in the holding of Thomas Brown, called Green-hill Estate; and on other part of the easterly side from N. to O. by a garden in the Green-hill Estate aforesaid; on other part of the southerly side from O. to P. by the garden last mentioned and a certain brook or rivulet, called Cornbrook, dividing this district from the township of Moss-Side; and on the remaining part of the easterly side from P. to Q. by a certain close of land, called Teddy's-acre, in the township of Moss-Side, belonging to Wilbraham Egerton, Esq. and now in the holding of Thomas Pickford; on other part of the southerly side from Q. to R. by the highway, in the township of Moss-Side, leading from Moss-Side to Rusholme; on part of the westerly side from R. to S. by Moss-lane, in the township of Moss-Side; on other part of the southerly side from S. to T. by Cornbrook aforesaid, dividing this district from the township of Moss-Side; on other parts of the westerly and southerly side from T. to U. by a certain close of land, in the township of Stretford, belonging to Thomas Joseph Trafford, Esq. called Kiln-field, being part of a farm now in the holding of James Cookson; on part of the south westerly side from U. to V. by a close of land, called Brook-shoot, being part of the said farm in the holding of James Cookson; on other part from V. to W. by a close of land, in the township of Stretford, belonging to Thomas Joseph Trafford, Esq. aforesaid, also called Brook-shoot, being part of a farm now in the holding of James Goodier, called Clapper-hill; on other parts in an irregular line from W. to X. by Cornbrook aforesaid, dividing this district from the township of Stretford, and by certain shrubberies or plantations, in the township of Stretford, belonging to John Pooley, and in his holding, and by several gardens, in the township of Stretford, belonging to the said John Pooley, and by the turnpike-road from Manchester to Crossford-bridge; on the remaining part of the westerly side from X. to Y. by an occupation road, in the township of Stretford, leading from the residence of William Serjeant, Esq. to Chester-road; on other part of the southerly side from Y. to Z. by the south side of Cheste-road aforesaid; on other part from Z. to a. by the middle of Cornbrook aforesaid, dividing this district from the township of Stretford; and on the remaining parts from a. to b. by an orchard and garden, in the township of Stretford, belonging to Thomas Joseph Trafford, Esq. and now in the holding of Thomas Smith; on other part of the south westerly side from b. to c. by a garden, in the township of Stretford, belonging to John Owen, and now in the holding of Mr. Walter Downs; on other part of the north westerly side from c. to d. by the south easterly side of Boat-lane; and on the remaining part of the south westerly side in an irregular line from d. to e. by Cornbrook aforesaid, dividing this district from the township of Stretford; and on the remaining part of the north westerly side from e. to A. by the River Irwell, dividing this district from the township of Salford, the whole being more particularly described on the accompanying plan."

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Chester has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, and of the said Act of the 58th year of His said late Majesty King George the Third, and in testimony of such his approbation, the said Lord Bishop of Chester hath put his signature and seal at the foot thereof; and humbly praying, that His Majesty would be pleased to take the said premises into consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to His Majesty shall seem meet:

His Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed district be accordingly assigned to the aforesaid chapel, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Wm. L. Bathurst.
