East India-House, July 6, 1836.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That a Special General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-street, on Monday the 11th instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the desire of more than nine Proprietors of East India Stock, agreeably to the following letter, viz.

" To Sir James Rivett Carnac, Bart. Chairman of the Honourable the Court of Directors of the East India Company.

" SIR, London, July 4, 1836.

" We, the undersigned, Proprietors of East India Stock, duly qualified, referring to chapter I, section 3, of the bye-laws, which ordains, that ' all proceedings of Parliament which, in the opinion of the Court of Directors, may affect the rights, interests, or privileges of the East India Company, shall be submitted by them to the consideration of a General Court, to be specially summoned for that purpose, before the same shall pass into a law,' request that a Special General Court may be summoned, without delay, to take into consideration the Bill for the equalization of duties on East and West India sugars, now about to pass into a law, considering that the stipulations of the Bill, as it now stands, will prove injurious and unjust towards a large portion of the British territories in India, but particularly to those under the Presidencies of Madras and Bombay.
