Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 19, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's next Levee will be held at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 27th instant, instead of Wednesday the 20th instant.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of July 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs," it is, among other things, enacted, that goods of places within the limits of the East India Company's charter shall be imported only into such ports of the United Kingdom as shall be approved of by the Lords of the Treasury, and declared by an Order in Council to be fit and proper for such importation :

And whereas the port of Plymouth, in the county of Devon, has been approved of by the Lords of His Majesty's Treasury for that purpose ; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the said port of Plymouth is fit and proper for the importation of goods from places within the limits of the East India Company's charter :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read ; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that the schooner Frederick and Betsey, of Boston, Harrison, master, was wrecked off the port of Wells, in the county of Norfolk, on the 2d of May last, and that the vessel was plundered to a large amount by some evil-disposed persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except to those who may have been ring-leaders on the occasion) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

J. RUSSELL.

WHEREAS by an Act of the last session of Parliament, cap. 62, the Lords of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, are empowered, in certain cases therein named, to substitute a declaration in lieu of an oath, solemn affirmation, or affidavit heretofore taken, or hereafter to be taken.—Notice is hereby given, that their Lordships have been pleased, in pursuance of the said Act, to substitute, in writing under the hands and seals of Edward Adolphus Seymour, Esq. commonly called Lord Seymour, Robert Steuart, and Richard More O'Ferrall, Esqrs. being three of the said Lords Commissioners, a declaration in lieu of the oath, solemn affirmation, or affidavit heretofore taken in pursuance of any Act of Parliament, or by an official regulation relating to the office for auditing the Public Accounts; a copy of which instrument, substituting such declaration, is as follows, viz.:

We, Edward Adolphus Seymour, Esq. commonly called Lord Seymour, Robert Steuart, and Richard More O'Ferrall, Esqrs. being three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the Act of Parliament of the fifth and sixth of King William the Fourth, cap. 62, do, by this writing under our hands and seals, direct, that in lieu of all and every oath, solemn affirmation, or affidavit (oaths of office excepted) heretofore required to be taken or made by any Act or Acts of Parliament made relating to the office of the Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts, or by any official regulation of the said office, save and except any oath which the said Commissioners are authorised by any Acts of Parliament, and have heretofore been used and accustomed to administer, and shall hereafter think fit to administer, to any Accountant or other person on the examination or investigation of any account, or any matter or thing relating thereto, or touching the receipt and expenditure of any public moneys, the following declaration shall be substituted, that is to say:

"I (or we) do solemnly and sincerely declare, that (here insert the particulars inserted, or required to be inserted, in any oath, solemn affirmation, or affidavit, in lieu of which this declaration is substituted); and I (or we) make this solemn declaration, conscientiously believing the same to be true."

And we do hereby further direct, that the same declaration, so far as it regards the substitution for any oath, solemn affirmation, or affidavit as aforesaid, heretofore required by any official regulation of the said office, shall be made and signed by the person required to make the same, in the presence of the officer or person heretofore used to administer such oath, solemn affirmation, or affidavit.

In witness whereof we have, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament of the fifth and sixth of King William the Fourth, cap. 62, hereunto set our hands and seals, this 18th day of July 1836.

SEYMOUR. (L.S.)
R. STEUART. (L.S.)
R. MORE O'FERRALL. (L.S.)

JOHN UNWIN.
FREDERICK SARGENT.

WHEREAS by an Act of the last session of Parliament, cap. 62, the Lords of His Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, are empowered, in certain cases therein named, to substitute a declaration in lieu of an oath, solemn affirmation, or affidavit heretofore taken, or hereafter to be taken.—Notice is hereby given, that their Lordships have been pleased, in pursuance of the said Act, to substitute, in writing under the hands and seals of William Viscount Melbourne, Robert Steuart, Esq. and Richard More O'Ferrall, Esq. being three of the said Lords Commissioners, a declaration in lieu of the oath, solemn affirmation, or affidavits heretofore taken in pursuance of any Act of Parliament relating to the Customs and Excise Departments of His Majesty's Revenue, or to the Post-office, or by any official regulation in any of the said Departments; a copy of which instrument, substituting such declaration, is as follows, viz.:

We, William Viscount Melbourne, Robert Steuart, Esq. and Richard More O'Ferrall, Esq. being three of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the Act of Parliament of the fifth and sixth King William the Fourth, cap. 62, do, by this writing under our hands and seals, direct, that in lieu of all and every oath, solemn affirmation, or affidavit (oath of office excepted, and except any oath required to be taken upon examination and enquiries made by any Surveyor-General of the Customs, or any Inspector-General of the Customs, for ascertaining the truth of facts relative to the Customs, or the conduct of officers or persons employed therein, or upon the like examinations and enquiries made by the Collector and Controller of any outport in the United Kingdom, or of any port in the Isle of Man, or made by any person or persons in any of the British possessions abroad appointed by the Commissioners of Customs to make such examinations and enquiries; or any affidavit required to be made of any facts shewing that any duty or duties are in danger of being lost, in order to the issuing of a warrant by the Collector of Excise for recovery of such duties, in Scotland or Ireland respectively; or any oath required to be made by any Officer of Excise, setting forth the ground of his suspicion of goods forfeited under any Act or Acts relating to the Revenue of Excise being deposited or concealed in any place, in order to obtaining a warrant for entering such place and seizing such goods; or any oath administered to any person before the Commissioners of Excise or Justices of the Peace for recovery of any penalty or forfeiture, or obtaining any abatement, return, or allowance of duties; or any oath or affirmation of facts which, in case of any seizure of any goods, or detection of any offence, the Commissioners of Excise may, on restoring such seizure, or in forbearing to prosecute for such offence, or on staying any proceedings commenced for the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture, require to shew that no fraud has been committed or intended) heretofore required to be taken or made by any Act or Acts of Parliament made relating to the Customs and Excise Departments of His Majesty's Revenue, or to the Post-office, or by any official regulation in either of the said Departments, the following declaration shall be substituted, that is to say:

" I (or we if more than one) do solemnly and sincerely declare, that (here insert the particulars inserted, or required to be inserted, in any oath, solemn affirmation, or affidavit heretofore required by any Act of Parliament relating to the said Departments, or either of them, or by any official regulation in the same); and I, or we, make this solemn declaration, conscientiously believing the same to be true."

And we do hereby further direct, that the same declaration, so far as it regards the substitution for any oath, solemn affirmation, or affidavit heretofore required by any official regulation in either of the said Departments, shall be made and signed by the person required to make the same, in presence of the officer or person heretofore used to administer such oath, affirmation, or affidavit.

In witness whereof, we have, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament of the fifth and sixth of King William the Fourth, cap. 62, hereunto set our hands and seals, this 11th day of July 1836.

Bankruptcy of Gottfried von Vahl, Greifswalde.

BY a decree of this day the estate and effects of Gottfried von Vahl, Councillor of Commerce, Knight, &c. have been formally declared Bankrupt, and, by a proclamation issued on the same day, the Creditors are required, sub pœna pœnæ, to specify and prove their claims on the above estate, in this Court, at Ten o'Clock in Morning, on either of the three days fixed for the liquidation, viz. the 16th of July, 6th of August, and 27th of August next; and likewise to substantiate any preference that may be deemed to attach to any particular claim. Judgment of exclusion will be passed on the 17th September next. At the first meeting, on the 16th of July, the Creditors are to decide upon the choice of the Assignees, and of a Solicitor to the estate, and other matters connected therewith, with a view to simplifying the proceedings in this Bankruptcy. Any person not appearing will be held as having consented to the resolutions of the major part of the Creditors present; at the same time foreign Creditors are desired to appear either personally or by attorney, in default of which the resolutions of the Creditors present will, in all cases, be deemed binding upon the absentees.

Given at Greifswalde, this 20th of May 1836.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.

2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom the Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court, in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required; will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N.B: Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose; at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 61, sec. 4, c. 11, as the case may be.
