Lord Chamberlain's-Office, July 19, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's next Levee will be held at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 27th instant, instead of Wednesday the 20th instant.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of July 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs," it is, among other things, enacted, that goods of places within the limits of the East India Company's charter shall be imported only into such ports of the United Kingdom as shall be approved of by the Lords of the Treasury, and declared by an Order in Council to be fit and proper for such importation :

And whereas the port of Plymouth, in the county of Devon, has been approved of by the Lords of His Majesty's Treasury for that purpose ; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the said port of Plymouth is fit and proper for the importation of goods from places within the limits of the East India Company's charter :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Westminster, July 14, 1836.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read ; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to repeal so much of two Acts of the ninth and tenth years of King George the Fourth, as directs the period of execution and the prison discipline of persons convicted of the crime of murder.

An Act to amend an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, for the better administration of justice, at the holding of petty sessions by justices of the peace, in Ireland.
