

to, approve and direct in what manner, and at what time and place, certain copyhold premises, belonging to the said Insolvent, situate at Hexham aforesaid, shall be offered for sale by public auction.

THE Creditors of James Harrison the elder, late of Kingston-upon-Hull, also of Barton-upon-Humber, in the County of Lincoln, Bell-Founder, an Insolvent Debtor, are requested to meet the Assignee of his estate and effects at the Red Lion Inn, in Barton-upon-Humber, in the County of Lincoln aforesaid, on Saturday the 13th day of August next, at Three o'clock in the Afternoon precisely, for the purpose of approving of and directing in what manner, at what time and place, the copyhold estate of the said Insolvent shall be sold, by public auction or private contract, consisting of all that brick and tiled building and appurtenances thereunto belonging, lately and for many years used as a bell foundry, now under mortgage, situate near the George Inn, in Barton-upon-Humber aforesaid, in the present occupation of Mr. George Robinson, or such interest as the said Assignee may have therein; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS the Assignees of the estate and effects of William Sladen, late of Stamford Street, Ashton-under-Lyne, in the County of Lancaster, Chemist, Druggist, and Tea-Dealer (sued in the name of William Sladen), an Insolvent Debtor, whose petition is numbered 40,678, have caused an account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignees at the Office of Messrs. Higginbottom and Buckley, at Ashton-under-Lyne, in the County of Lancaster, Solicitors, on the 31st day of August next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignees will declare the amount of the balance in their hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignees, or any Creditor, object to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of Henry Howe, formerly of No. 3, Smith-Street, Somers'-Town, Middlesex, and late of No. 57, Thavies-Inn, in the City of London, Paymaster of the 8th, or King's Regiment of Foot, now on half-pay, and Schoolmaster, an Insolvent Debtor, lately a Prisoner in the Debtors' Prison for London and Middlesex, has caused an account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent

Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee at No. 135, Regent Street, in the Parish of Saint James, in the City of Westminster, Middlesex, on Monday the 29th of August next, at Eleven o'clock in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same, according to the Statute.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the scheduled Creditors of George Venables, formerly of Oswestry, in the County of Salop, and late of Machynlleth, in the County of Montgomery, Clerk, an Insolvent Debtor, who was some time since discharged from His Majesty's Gaol of Dolgelly, in the County of Merioneth, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will be held at the Wynnstay Arms Inn, in the Town of Oswestry aforesaid, on Saturday the 13th day of August next, at Twelve o'clock at Noon, when and where the Assignees will declare the amount of the balance then in their hands; and at which meeting the Creditors are to consider and determine, whether they the Creditors will accept of a composition which has been proposed by the said Insolvent, and by his now eldest son, of ten shillings in the pound, upon the debts admitted upon the said Insolvent's schedule, with interest on such composition from the 31st day of July 1830 to the day of payment, in full discharge of all dividends and of all other claims which they the Creditors can or may have on the said Insolvent's estate, they the Creditors allowing out of such composition such sum or sums as they may have received by way of dividends; and in case it shall be determined to accept of such composition, then they the Creditors are to authorise the Assignees to enter into such composition, and to execute a certain indenture of lease and indenture of release and assignment already prepared for conveying and vesting all the real estates of the said Insolvent, and of his said son; and also for assigning and vesting certain policies of assurance in the Law Life and Equitable Assurance Offices, in Richard Jones Croton, of Oswestry aforesaid, Gentleman, and Joseph Jones, of the Town of Poole, in the County of Montgomery, Gentleman, as Trustees upon certain trusts therein mentioned, being trusts, among others, for sale and mortgage for the purpose of raising a sufficient sum for the payment, among other charges, of the amount of such composition; and they the Creditors at such meeting are generally to authorise the Assignees how to act in the management of the said Insolvent's estate.

All Letters must be post-paid.
