

of Liverpool, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may henceforth take upon him and them the surname of Blundell, in addition to and after their present surnames of Blundell-Hollinshead:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

NOTICE.

NEWSPAPERS.

United Kingdom.

PRINTED newspapers liable to the stamp duty, and duly stamped, which have passed, or which are to pass, by the General Post within the United Kingdom, will be delivered free of all charge, being no longer subject to penny or two-penny post rates, as heretofore.

Newspapers not having passed, or to pass, through the General Post, but which are put into, and delivered through, the penny or two-penny post of any city, town, or place, will be charged one penny each on delivery.

British Colonies and Possessions.

Printed newspapers, duly stamped, addressed to any of His Majesty's colonies and possessions beyond seas, sent by His Majesty's packets, will be forwarded free of charge; if to be sent by private ships, a postage of one penny each must be paid on putting them into a post-office.

Newspapers sent to India, the Cape of Good Hope, New South Wales, &c. will no longer be charged by weight, but one penny each.

Newspapers printed in the British colonies and possessions, brought to the United Kingdom by His Majesty's packets, will be delivered free of charge; if brought by private ships, they will be charged one penny each on delivery.

Newspapers may be sent from one British colony to another, via the United Kingdom, by His Majesty's packets, free of postage.

Foreign Parts.

Printed newspapers, duly stamped, addressed to the under-mentioned countries and places, may be forwarded by His Majesty's packets, free of charge, viz.

France.	Buenos Ayres.
Hamburgh.	Columbia.
Bremen.	Caraccas.
Denmark.	Carthagenæ.
Greece.	Bogota.
Corfu and Ionian Islands.	Hayti or St. Domingo.

If sent by private ships, one penny each must be paid on putting them into a post-office.

Newspapers published in any of the afore-named countries and places, and brought by His Majesty's packets, will be delivered free of charge, except those from France, which are liable to one half-penny each on delivery; if brought by private ships, they will be charged one penny each.

Printed newspapers, duly stamped, and sent by His Majesty's packets, or by private ships, to other foreign countries and places, not enumerated in the preceding list, must be charged two pence each when put into the post. Newspapers from such countries, brought into the United Kingdom by His Majesty's packets, or by private ships, will be charged two pence each upon delivery.

Newspapers intended to be sent either to the British colonies and possessions, or to foreign parts, must be put into the post within seven days after the day on which they were published; and foreign newspapers must be printed in the language of the country from which they have been forwarded. On failure of either of these provisions, they will be charged as letters.

If the person to whom a newspaper from the British colonies, or from foreign parts, is directed shall have removed from the place to which such newspaper shall be addressed, prior to the delivery thereof at the place of its address, it may (provided it has not been opened or used, but not otherwise) be re-directed and forwarded to such person, at any other place within the United Kingdom, free of any additional charge; but if it shall have been opened or used, it will, on re-direction, be charged with the rate of a single letter from the place at which it shall have been re-directed or re-posted, to the place where delivered.

General Regulations.

All newspapers forwarded by post must be sent without covers, or in covers open at the sides; they are otherwise chargeable with postage as letters.

Newspapers, British or foreign, containing any letter, paper, or thing enclosed, or with any writing or marks of reference or information whatever upon them, or upon the covers, other than the address, will be charged with treble the duty of letter postage.

Postmasters are authorised and required to examine and search all newspapers, to protect the revenue from fraud; and the Postmaster-General is empowered by the Act of Parliament, to proceed against parties attempting any frauds upon the revenue through the medium of newspapers.

By command,

Henry Freeling, Assistant Secretary.

General Post-Office, August, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that we, the undersigned, being the greatest part in value of the owners or proprietors of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments situate in the parish of Hayes and in the precinct of Norwood, in the county of Middlesex, out of and in respect of which divers sums of money are issuing and payable by way of corn rent in lieu of tithes, under and by virtue of the provisions of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the forty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled "An Act for inclosing lands in the parish of Hayes, in the county of Middlesex, and for extinguishing the tithes in that parish," with the view of and in order to the varying and diminishing the sums of money at present paid by us respectively under the said Act,
