

into a cart lane, and then following in a southerly direction the western side of the said cart lane, into North Colney-hatch-road; then, along North Colney-hatch-road, into the High North Road; then, proceeding north, along the High North Road to Nether-street road; then, westward, along Nether-street-road to the brook; then, following northward the line of the brook to where the parish of Finchley joins the chapelry of Tatteridge, in the parish of Bishops Hatfield and the parish of Barnet; then, following north east the boundary of the parish of Finchley and the parish of Barnet, to the place where the boundary commenced, as the said district is described in the map annexed to the said representation, and is therein coloured yellow:

And whereas the said Commissioners have further represented that baptisms, churchings, marriages, and burials should be performed in the said chapel; and that the fees for the said rites should, from and after the next avoidance of the parish church of Finchley, belong to the Minister of the said chapel for the time being:

That the consent of the Lord Bishop of London has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, in testimony of which he has signed and sealed the said representation; and humbly praying, that His Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into His royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to His Majesty in His royal wisdom shall seem meet:

His Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

WHEREAS a writ of ad quod damnum hath been issued out of the High Court of Chancery, directed to the Sheriff of the county of Northampton, commanding the said Sheriff, that, by the oath of honest and lawful men of his county, by whom the truth of the matter may be best known, he diligently enquire whether it will be to the damage of our Sovereign Lord the King, or of any other, if our Sovereign Lord the King should grant to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Northampton, a licence that they may stop up and destroy a certain public jetway or footpassage running behind two houses in the Market-square, Northampton, the property of the Town Council, one whereof is a public-house, called the Cook's Arms, and the other was lately in the occupation of Charles Wagstaff; and which jetway or footpassage is 39 feet, or thereabouts, in length, and 10 feet six inches, or thereabouts, in breadth, and leads from the street running into the said Market-square into Conduit-lane, in the said town.

Notice is therefore hereby given, that the said Sheriff of Northamptonshire will make the inquisition by the said writ directed, at the Guildhall, in the said town of Northampton, on the 28th day of September instant, at the hour of eleven in the forenoon of the same day.—Dated this 1st day of September 1836.

Theophilus Jeyes, Town Clerk, Northampton.

Tulloch's Invention for Marble and Stone Sawing and Grooving Machinery.

NOTICE is hereby given, that James Tulloch, formerly of Savage-gardens, in the city of London, Gentleman, and now of Montagu-place, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. intends to apply, by petition, to His Majesty in Council, for a prolongation of his term of sole using and vending of the invention described in the letters patent after mentioned, that is to say; letters patent, bearing date the 12th day of April, in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth (1824), for that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, His Majesty's dominion of Wales, and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, for an invention of "an improvement or improvements in the machinery to be employed for sawing and grooving marble and other stone, or in producing grooves or mouldings thereon;" letters patent, bearing date the 14th day of July 1825, for that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Scotland, for the same invention; and letters patent, bearing date the 7th day of September, in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty (1825), for that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, for the same invention. And the said James Tulloch intends to apply to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, on the 20th day of October next, or so soon after as the Judicial Committee shall sit, for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of his said petition. All persons intending to oppose the prolongation so petitioned for, must enter caveats, at the Privy Council-Office, on or before the said 20th day of October.

Archibald Rosser, Solicitor, No. 15, New Boswell-court, Lincoln's-inn.
