

If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignees, or any Creditor, object to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of Carrol Satchell, formerly of the Island of Jersey, since of Brighton, and late of East Stonehouse, in the County of Devon, retired Quarter-Master of the 3d Royal Veteran Battalion, an Insolvent Debtor, lately a Prisoner in the Prison of Saint Thomas the Apostle, in the County of Devon, has caused his account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee at the Office of Messrs. J. and C. Rogers, in Manchester-Buildings, in the City of Westminster, on the 24th day of October next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the said Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.—34,177 C.

THE Creditors of William Baker, late of No. 115, Tythebarn-Street, in Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Smallware Dealer and Builder, an Insolvent Debtor, who was discharged from His Majesty's Gaol of the Castle of Lancaster, in the County of Lancaster, on or about the 4th day of July 1833, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England, are requested to meet the surviving Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, at the Office of Messrs. Kaye and Andrade, Solicitors, in Castle-Street, in Liverpool aforesaid, on Monday the 10th day of October next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing and prosecuting one or more suit or suits in equity against the said Insolvent, Thomas Hearn and George Nelson, and Catharine Norris Baker, and all other proper parties, or some or one of them, to recover three several pieces of copyhold land, with the three dwelling-houses and premises thereon erected, situate in Walker-Street, Low-Hill, near Liverpool aforesaid; and also to compel the said Insolvent, Thomas Hearn, George Nelson, and Catharine Norris Baker, and all other proper parties, to surrender and convey all estate or interest of and in the said hereditaments and premises that may be vested in them, or any of them, unto the said surviving Assignee for the benefit of the Creditors of the said Insolvent, and for a discovery of the estate of the said Insolvent; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee submitting to arbitration or otherwise agreeing or settling any matter, claim, or dispute between the said Assignee and the said Insolvent, Catharine Norris Baker, Thomas Hearn, and George Nelson, or any of them, touching or in anywise relating to the said premises in Low-Hill aforesaid, or the rents or profits thereof which have accrued since the Insolvency of the said Insolvent; and generally to authorise the said Assignee to do every lawful act and acts that he may think necessary in and about the premises; and on other special affairs.
