Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1836.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th day of August 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the amendment of the law respecting pilots and pilotage, and also for the better preservation of floating lights, buoys, and beacons," the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond are empowered and required, after due examination, to appoint and licence, under their common seal, fit and competent persons duly skilled to act as pilots, for the purpose of conducting all ships and vessels sailing, navigating, and passing, as well up and down or upon, the Rivers of Thames and Medway, and all and every the channels, creeks, and docks thereof, or therein or leading or adjoining thereunto, between Orfordness and London-bridge, as also from London-bridge to the Downs, and from the Downs, westward, as far as the Isle of Wight, and, in the English Channel, from the Isle of Wight up to London-bridge; and the said pilots, so appointed and licenced, are empowered to demand and receive for such services certain rates or prices enumerated in a table, marked A. to the said Act annexed:

And by the said Act the said Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond are also empowered from time to time, with the consent of His Majesty in His Most Honourable Privy Council, to increase, reduce, alter, or modify all or any or either of the said rates or prices so enumerated in the said table, and to fix and determine the period from and after which such altered or substituted rates or prices are to be demanded; so that such period be not less than three calendar months from the time at which notice thereof shall be given, by hanging up printed tables of the altered or substituted rates or prices in some public or conspicuous place in the Custom-house of London, and also at the Trinity-house in London:

And whereas the said Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond have submitted to His Majesty in Council certain proposals, to the effect that the several rates or prices specified in the said table, marked A. to the said Act annexed, be subject to a reduction of one fourth part in respect of the pilotage of vessels towed by steam vessels; provided that if the assistance of a steam vessel shall be rendered for a part only of the distance for which any such rate or price is now payable, the said reduction of one fourth shall be made on such part only of the said rate or price as shall be proportionate to the distance towed:

And whereas it hath appeared to His Majesty in Council expedient that the said proposals should be confirmed;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty vested, His Majesty doth, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, assent to and confirm the said proposals; and it is hereby ordered, that such assent and confirmation shall be signified, in writing, to the said Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, to the intent that, in further pursuance of the said Act, the said Corporation do fix and determine the period from and after which such reduced rates or prices shall alone be demanded or received, and do give due notice thereof:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Commissions signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the West Riding of the County of York, and of the City and County of the City of York.

By order of the Board,

Henry Hill, Secretary.

Poor Laws.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Honourable the House of Commons in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act of Parliament to alter and amend an Act of Parliament made and passed in the sixteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to continue the corporation of the guardians of the poor within the isle of Wight, and to confirm the powers and authorities now vested in the said corporation, and to provide new powers and regulations for the members of the same, and to repeal an Act, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for establishing a house or houses of industry in the isle of Wight, for the reception, maintenance, and employment of the poor belonging to the several parishes and places within the said island.'"

And notice is hereby further given, that it is intended by the said Act to propose an alteration in the existing rates for the relief of the poor within the said island, by authorising and empowering the corporation of the guardians of the poor to make from time to time one general equal rate and assessment on all lands, tenements, tithes, and hereditaments within the said isle, on the full annual value of the same respectively, for the purposes of the said Act of the sixteenth year of King George the Third, in lieu and stead of separate and distinct rates as now made by the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of the several parishes and places within the said isle as separate and distinct rates and assessments, and wholly to abolish the several averages and quotas now payable by the several parishes and places within the said isle towards the purposes of the said Act of the sixteenth year of King George the Third; and wholly to abolish the law of settlement, so far as relates to any person having a legal settlement in any parish within the said isle, and to declare the whole isle one parish for the purpose of settlement.—Dated this 14th day of September 1836.

William Hearne, Clerk and Solicitor to the Guardians of the Poor within the Isle of Wight.

Tulloch's Invention for Marble and Stone Sawing and Grooving Machinery.

NOTICE is hereby given, that James Tulloch, formerly of Savage-gardens, in the city of London, Gentleman, and now of Montagu-place, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. intends to apply, by petition, to His Majesty in Council for a prolongation of his term of sole using and vending of the invention described in the letters patent after mentioned, that is to say; letters patent, bearing date the 12th day of April, in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth (1824), for that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, His Majesty's dominion of Wales, and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, for an invention of "an improvement or improvements in the machinery to be employed for sawing and grooving marble and other stone, or in producing grooves or mouldings thereon;" letters patent, bearing date the 14th day of July 1825, for that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Scotland, for the same invention; and letters patent, bearing date the 7th day of September, in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty (1825), for that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, for the same invention. And the said James Tulloch intends to apply to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, on the 20th day of October next, or so soon after as the Judicial Committee shall sit, for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of his said petition. All persons intending to oppose the prolongation so petitioned for, must enter caveats, at the Privy Council-Office, on or before the said 20th day of October.

Archibald Rosser, Solicitor, No. 15, New Boswell-court, Lincoln's-inn.

CONTRACTS FOR SALT BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 1, 1836.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 22d of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

Salt Meat, of the cure of the United Kingdom, equal to 11,000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 12,000 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, seven eighth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one eighth part thereof in bannels, into His Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed—one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1837, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of His Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or the resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be delivered at the above Office, and be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, at Somerset-place, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

Union Assurance Society, Fire and Life, September 16, 1836.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Annual General Meeting of the Members of the Society and Subscribers to the additional capital will be holden at the Office, in Cornhill, on Friday the 30th instant, to ballot for Directors, from twelve o'clock until one o'clock in the day.—The chair will be taken at one o'clock precisely, to report the said election, and to submit the accounts of the Society for the last year.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.

2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom the Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court, in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N.B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 6, sec. 4, c. 11, as the case may be.

THE Creditors of James Burt Pearson, formerly of the Haunch of Venison, Brook-Street, Grosvenor-Square, Middlesex, Victualler, then of Putney-Lane, Putney, Surrey, out of business, then of the Friend at Hand, Plat-Terrace, Saint Pancras, Victualler, and late of No. 1, Nelson Street, Camden-Town, both in Middlesex, out of business, an Insolvent Debtor, who was discharged from the Debtors' Prison, in London and Middlesex, in the City of London, in the year 1830, are requested to meet at the Office of Mr. Edmund Sharp, Solicitor, No. 2, Devonshire-Terrace, High-Street, Mary-le-Bone, Middlesex, on the 5th day of October next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon of the same day precisely, for the purpose of choosing an Assignee or Assignees of the said Insolvent's estate and effects.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of Hugh David, late of Tywch, in the Parish of Llanbeblig, in the County of Carnarvon, Labourer, who was lately discharged from His Majesty's Gaol of Carnarvon, in the County of Carnarvon, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will be held on Wednesday the 28th day of September instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Office of Mr. William Lloyd Roberts, Attorney at Law, situate in Northgate-Street, in the Town of Carnarvon, in the said County of Carnarvon, to approve and direct in what manner, and at what place or places, the real estate of the said Insolvent shall be sold by public auction.

WHILEAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of Alexander Wyatt, late of Worthing, in the County of Sussex, Boarding-House-Keeper, an Insolvent Debtor, whose petition is numbered 42,773, C., hath caused an account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee at the Marine Hotel, in Worthing, in the County of Sussex, on the 24th day of October next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.
