"ments contained, in that behalf, in an Act of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" and to amend the said Acts relative to apprenticed labourers;" and also "An Act, supplemental, in aid of the apprenticeship laws, and for raising a sum of money, to repair and enlarge the common jail of the Virgin Islands, to provide for the payment of the keepers and officers thereto, the maintenance of the prisoners therein, and for regulating the discipline to be observed in such jail;"

His Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare, and it is hereby declared, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the said Virgin Islands, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein are mentioned:
