FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1836.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of October 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" after reciting, that it was necessary that provision should be made for the apportionment, amongst the proprietors of the slaves to be manumitted by virtue of the said Act, in each of the said colonies respectively, of that part of the said compensation fund which should be so assigned, as in the said Act is therein before recited, to each of the respective colonies; it was, amongst other things, enacted, that any person having, or claiming to have, any right, title, or interest in or to any mortgage, judgement, charge, incumbrance, or other lien upon any slave or slaves to be manumitted under the said Act, might prefer such claims before the said Commissioners;

And it was further enacted, that the said Commissioners should proceed in the manner to be prescribed by any general rules to be framed in manner particularly mentioned, to enquire into, and adjucate upon, any such claims as might be so preferred to them, and should upon each such claim make their adjudication and award, in such manner and form as should be prescribed by any such general rules; and if any person interested in, or affected by, any such adjudication or award should be dissatisfied therewith, it should be lawful for such person to appeal therefrom to His Majesty in Council, and notice of any such appeal should be served upon the said Commissioners:

And it should be competent to His Majesty in Council to make and establish all such rules and regulations as to His Majesty should seem meet, respecting the time and manner of preferring and proceeding upon such appeals, and respecting the course to be observed in defending the same; which rules should be so framed as to promote, as far as might be consistent with justice, all practicable economy and dispatch in the proceeding until the decision thereof:

And it was further enacted, that the several adjudications and awards of the said Commissioners, unless duly appealed from within the respective times to be limited by His Majesty in Council for that purpose, should be final and conclusive and binding upon all persons interested therein, or affected thereby; and that the decisions of His Majesty in Council upon any such appeal should, in like manner, be final, binding, and conclusive:

And whereas His Majesty hath this day taken into consideration the propriety of making and establishing certain rules and regulations, for limiting the time within which appeals shall be preferred to His Majesty in Council from any adjudication or award of the said Commissioners:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in execution of the power in His Majesty in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that whenever it shall happen that any person interested in, or affected by, any adjudication or award of the said Commissioners, shall be dissatisfied therewith and shall be desirous to appeal therefrom to His Majesty in Council, then and in every such case, such person or persons shall duly lodge a petition of appeal, within fourteen days from the date of such adjudication or award, and shall forthwith serve a notice of such appeal upon the said Commissioners, by leaving the same at the office of the said Commissioners, and that no appeal from any adjudication or award of the said Commissioners shall be received, nor the proceedings under such adjudication or award be in any way suspended, unless such petition of appeal shall be so lodged, and notice thereof be so served on the said Commissioners, within the said period of fourteen days from the date of such adjudication or award as herein-before mentioned.

Foreign-Office, October 13, 1836.

A DISPATCH, dated 24th September 1836, has been received by Viscount Palmerston, G. C. B. His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from Mr. Villiers, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at Madrid, containing a notice, of which the following is a translation, respecting the erection of a new light-house at San Sebastian:

(Translation.)

NOTICE TO NAVIGATORS.

Light-House at San Sebastian (Guipuzcoa).

THE ancient light-house at the port of San Sebastian, placed at the summit of Mount Igueldo, has been suppressed, and is about to be replaced by another light-house at the brow of Mount Orgullo, which forms the eastern part of the quay of that port, and where the castle of La Mota is situated.

The new light-house lies at 43° 19' 33" north latitude, and 4° 17' 57" east longitude of Cadiz, at the distance of less than a mile to the east of the ancient one. The light itself will stand 221 feet above the level of the sea. It will be a constant, and not an intermitting light, but sufficiently bright to be distinguished on clear nights, without moonlight, from a distance of above fifteen miles.

It will be lighted for the first time on the evening of the 14th September next, and will continue to be so every evening till the 3d May following; and it will be lighted, during the same period, in each succeeding year.

HALF-PAY AND RETIRED-PAY TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the receipt in the Wages Department at the Admiralty-office, Somerset-place, of the declaration or certificate of identity required from each Officer by His Majesty's Orders in Council, a bill for the amount of the half-pay or retired-pay due will be made out in this Department, which will be payable by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, on the following days, viz.

On the 10th and 11th of October next, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

On the 12th, 13th, and 14th of October, to Lieutenants at 5s. a day and under, and their Attorneys.

On the 15th and 17th of October, to Lieutenants at 7s. and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 19th, 20th, and 21st of October, to Admirals, Lieutenant-Generals, Major-Generals, Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, Commanders, and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

Great inconvenience having been experienced by the claims of Officers, who have not chosen to receive their half-pay or retired-pay on the days fixed for their rank, being brought forward on the days appointed for the payment of half-pay and retired-pay to Officers of different ranks; notice is hereby given, that no such claims can in future be attended to on the days not appointed for Officers of those ranks; but for the accommodation of such Officers, and also for the convenience of those who may not have transmitted their declarations or certificates sufficiently early to admit of payment on the above-mentioned days, a recall will take place on the 24th and 25th of October.

After which the half-pay and retired-pay will be payable on the first and third Wednesday in every month, excepting during the general payment.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay or retired-pay in person, are requested to deliver their declarations or certificates into the Wages-office at the Admiralty, Somerset-place, or transmit them to the Secretary of the Admiralty, immediately on the expiration of each quarter; and those employing agents are also requested to furnish their agents with their declaratiions or certificates with the same dispatch, for unless such documents are delivered into this Office early, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue.

As it sometimes happens that Officers apply personally for their half-pay or retired-pay, without having previously sent in their declarations or certificates as required by the usual advertisement, any delay or inconvenience to which they might be subject by this oversight, it is in the power of the Officers themselves to prevent, by an adherence to the existing regulations.

Under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy, besides the above-mentioned modes, Officers may receive their half-pay or retired-pay in any of the following ways, viz.

1st. By drawing a bill for the amount, in which case they are to give notice thereof, by letter, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked, in the corner, "Half-pay, or Retired-pay, Accountant-General," and thereupon a proper form of a bill of exchange will be sent to them.

2d. By a remittance bill, or permanent remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence, by the Collector of Customs or Excise.

3d. By extract, at a Dock-yard, where there is an establishment of Pay Clerks.

In either of which two latter cases, they must give a like notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked in the same manner, and a remittance bill, or extract, will thereupon be made out and transmitted to them.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.
