TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1836.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of October 1836.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the twentieth day of October instant, be further prorogued to Thursday the eighth day of December next,

AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of October 1836.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst others, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that the diocese of Oxford should be increased by the county of Buckingham, now in the diocese of Lincoln, and by the county of Berks, now in the diocese of Salisbury; and that all parishes which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, should be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate; and that such variations should be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as might appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop; and that all the archdeacons of England and Wales should be in the gift of the bishops of the respective dioceses in which they are situate:

It is, amongst other things, enacted, that the Lord

Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as shall be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations; and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act of Parliament, passed in this present year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for carrying into effect so much of the recommendations in the said Act contained, respecting the bishoprics of Oxford and Salisbury, as relates to the county and archdeaconry of Berks.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Bishop of Salisbury and Richard Bishop of Oxford, respectively, to such parts of this scheme as relate to their respective bishoprics, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, that the whole county of Berks, and those parts of the county of Wilts which are insolated therein, forming together the archdeaconry of Berks and part of the diocese of Salisbury, shall be forthwith absolutely detached and dis severed from the said diocese, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to and included in and form part of the diocese of Oxford; and that the said archdeaconry, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, within the limits thereof, and the present and every future archdeacon thereof, and all rural deans, and the whole clergy, and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be forthwith exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the see of Salisbury, and of the present and every future bishop thereof, and shall be under and subject to the episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the present bishop of Oxford and his successors bishops of Oxford for the time being, as entirely and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as the county and archdeaconry of Oxford and the archdeacon thereof now are.

And we further recommend and propose, that the right of appointing the archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Berks shall be vested in the Bishop of Oxford and his successors bishops of Oxford for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the bishoprics of Salisbury and Oxford, respectively, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council,

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having taken the said scheme into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, hereby to approve thereof and to ratify the same; and it is hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, ordered and directed, that this Order shall be forthwith registered by the registrars of the dioceses of Oxford and Salisbury respectively in the registries of their respective dioceses; and that the said registrars do forthwith respectively certify to His Majesty in Council, that they have complied with these commands; and it is hereby further ordered and directed, by and with the advice aforesaid, that this Order shall be forthwith inserted and published in the London Gazette, and that the same, together with the said scheme and every part thereof, shall have full and perfect effect from and immediately after such registration and insertion and publication as aforesaid.

C. C. Greville,

At the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of October 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in and by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, that His Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst others, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes, and having the full force of law; and that the southern part of the diocese of Bristol, consisting of the county of Dorset, should be transferred to the diocese of Salisbury; that all parishes which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, should be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate; and that such variations should be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as might appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop; that all the archdeaconries of England and Wales should be in the gift of the bishops of the respective dioceses in which they are situate;

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knt. should, for the purposes of this Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal;

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might upon further enquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing in any such scheme such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations; and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, should be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate :

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of this Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby :

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as may be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette :

And it is further enacted, that, as soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects and as to all things therein contained have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act of Parliament, passed in this present year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for carrying into effect so much of the recommendations in the said Act contained, respecting the bishoprics of Salisbury and Bristol, as relates to the county and archdeaconry of Dorset.

We humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the right Reverend Thomas Bishop of Salisbury and Henry Bishop of Exeter, respectively, to such parts of this scheme as relate to their respective bishoprics, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, that, except as hereinafter excepted, the whole county of Dorset, and the parish of Holwell, in the county of Somerset, now forming together the archdeaconry of Dorset and part of the diocese of Bristol, the see whereof is now vacant, and the parish of Thornecomb, in the county of Devon, but insulated in the said county of Dorset, and now in the diocese of Exeter, shall be forthwith absolutely detached and dis severed from the said dioceses of Bristol and Exeter respectively, and shall be and become permanently annexed and united to and included in and form part of the diocese of Salisbury ; and that the said parish of Thornecomb shall be included in the said archdeaconry of Dorset and within the deanry of Bridport, and that the said archdeaconry, and all parishes and places, churches, and chapels, within the limits thereof, and the present and every future archdeacon thereof, and all rural deans, and the whole clergy, and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be forthwith exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and control of the sees of Bristol and Exeter respectively, and shall be under and subject to the episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and control of the said Bishop of Salisbury, and of his successors bishops of Salisbury for the time being, as entirely and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as the archdeaconry of Salisbury and the archdeacon thereof now are.

And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said Henry Bishop of Exeter testified as aforesaid, that the parish of Stockland, in the said county of Dorset, but insulated in the said county of Devon, and now in the diocese of Bristol, shall in like manner be dis severed from the said diocese of Bristol, and form part of the said diocese of Exeter, and be included in the archdeaconry of Exeter and within the deanry of Honiton, and be subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Exeter.

And we further recommend and propose, that the right of appointing the archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Dorset shall be vested in the said Bishop of Salisbury and his successors bishops of Salisbury for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the bishopric of Salisbury, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty six.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having taken the said scheme into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to ratify the same, and it is hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, ordered and directed that the same shall be carried into effect, and that this Order shall be forthwith registered by the registrars of the dioceses of Salisbury, Bristol, and Exeter, respectively, in the registries of their respective dioceses, and that the said registrars do forthwith respectively certify to His Majesty in Council, that they have complied with these commands ; and it is further ordered and directed, by and with the advice aforesaid, that this Order shall be forthwith inserted and published in the London Gazette, and that the same, together with the said scheme and every part thereof, shall have full and perfect effect from and immediately after such registration and insertion and publication as aforesaid.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of October 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls; and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect the following, amongst other, recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that the city and deanery of Bristol should be united to the diocese of Gloucester; and that the sees of Gloucester and Bristol should be united; and that the diocese should consist of, amongst other things, the present diocese of Gloucester and of the city and deanery of Bristol; and that the bishops of the see of Bristol and Gloucester should be elected alternately by the dean and chapter of Bristol and by the dean and chapter of Gloucester; and that power should be given to determine the future mode of confirming such acts of the bishop of the united see as might require confirmation by a dean and chapter; and that upon the first avoidance of either of the sees of Gloucester or Bristol, the bishop of the other of the sees proposed to be united should become, ipso facto, bishop of the two sees, and thereupon become seized and possessed of all the property, advowsons, and patronage belonging to the see so avoided; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the patronage of benefices with cure of souls, or the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the avoidance of the see, without the consent of such bishop; and that so much of the sum of six thousand pounds, recovered by the late Bishop of Bristol for damages done to the episcopal residence at Bristol, and of its accumulations, as might remain after deducting proper expences; together with the money arising from the sale of the site of such residence, if sold, should be applied to the purchase or erection of a residence for the bishop of the see of Bristol and Gloucester; and that a new archdeaconry of Bristol should be created, and that a district should be assigned thereto; and that the limits of the existing deanries and archdeaconries should be newly arranged, so that every parish and extra-parochial place be within a rural deanery, and every deanery within an archdeaconry, and that no archdeaconry extend beyond the limits of one diocese; and that all the archdeaconries of England and Wales should be in the gift of the bishops of the respective dioceses in which they are situate:

It is enacted, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knight, should, for the purposes of the said Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of "the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the thereinbefore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might, upon further inquiry, which the said Commissioners were thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing, in any such scheme, such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations; and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, should be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate :

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby :

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as might be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette :

And it is enacted, that, so soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects, and as to all things therein contained, have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding :

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council, a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act of Parliament, passed in this present year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme respecting so much of the recommendations in the said Act contained, relating to the union of the sees of Gloucester and Bristol, as it appears to us may be forthwith carried into effect.

Whereas by a scheme, bearing even date herewith, we have recommended and proposed that the whole archdeaconry of Dorset, now forming part of the diocese of Bristol, the see whereof is now vacant, shall be forthwith separated from the said diocese, and annexed to the dioceses of Salisbury and Exeter respectively.

We now humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Henry Bishop of Gloucester, in testimony whereof he hath signed and sealed this scheme, that the remaining part of the said diocese of Bristol shall be forthwith permanently annexed and united to the diocese of Gloucester, and that the same, when so united, shall for ever hereafter be and be called and known by the name of the Diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

And we further recommend and propose, that the sees of Gloucester and Bristol shall be forthwith permanently united, and shall, when so united, be and be called and known by the name of the See of Gloucester and Bristol, and that the said James Henry now Bishop of Gloucester shall be the Bishop of the said see of Gloucester and Bristol, and shall become absolutely confirmed in the said bishopric, and, ipso facto, seized and possessed of all the property, revenues, advowsons, and patronage now belonging to the said see of Bristol, and of all the episcopal jurisdiction, power, and authority heretofore possessed and exercised by bishops of Bristol, excepting so far as relates to the said county and archdeaconry of Dorset, without any other act, deed, form, or proceeding whatsoever, other than such Order or Orders as it may please your Majesty in Council to make and issue in pursuance of this scheme, and under the authority of the said Act.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said Bishop, and his successors bishops of Gloucester and Bristol, shall be one body corporate, by the name of the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and by that name shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and that he and his successors shall and may by that name sue and be sued, and shall and may take and hold all lands, tithes, advowsons, tenements, and hereditaments now held by the said James Henry as Bishop of Gloucester, or so transferred as aforesaid, or which may be given or granted to him or them by your Majesty, your heirs and successors, or by any other person or persons whatsoever, and may give or grant the same, and make leases and enjoy and do all other rights and acts in respect of the same, in as full and perfect a manner as other bishops of England Wales, but no otherwise.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said James Henry, as Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and his successors bishops of Gloucester and Bristol, shall occupy the same seat in the cathedral church of Bristol, and shall possess and exercise the same authority and jurisdiction, ordinary and visitatorial, over the dean and chapter thereof, as has heretofore been possessed and exercised by bishops of Bristol.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol shall be exempted and relieved from the payment of first fruits, and of all costs, charges, fees, and expences whatsoever in respect of his so becoming Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol.

And we further recommend and propose, that upon the first avoidance of the said see of Gloucester and Bristol the warrant for the election of a person to be the bishop thereof shall issue to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Bristol, and that upon all future avoidances of the said see, the warrant for the election of a bishop thereof shall issue alternately to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Gloucester, and to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Bristol.

And we further recommend and propose, that all such episcopal acts, gifts, grants, and leases performed and made by the said James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and by his successors bishops of Gloucester and Bristol, as may require confirmation under the common seal of a dean and chapter, shall be presented for confirmation to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church either of Gloucester or of Bristol, accordingly as the right of confirmation thereof would have belonged to the one or to the other dean and chapter, if the union of the two sees had not taken place; and that every such act, gift, grant, and lease, being so confirmed by such dean and chapter, shall be good and valid.

And we further recommend and propose, that the deanery of the Forest, in the said diocese of Gloucester, but now within the archdeaconry of Hereford, shall forthwith be severed from the said archdeaconry, and exempted and released from the jurisdiction of the archdeacon thereof, and shall be included in the archdeaconry of Gloucester, and that those parts of the existing archdeaconry of Gloucester which now form the deaneries of Bristol, Cirencester, Fairford, and Hawkesbury shall be forthwith absolutely detached and dis severed from the said archdeaconry of Gloucester, and that the same and the rural deans of all the said deaneries respectively shall be exempted and released from all jurisdiction, authority, and control of the present and every future archdeacon of Gloucester; and that all the parishes within the city of Bristol shall be included in and form part of the deanery of Bristol; and that the said deaneries of Bristol, Cirencester, Fairford, and Hawkesbury shall be constituted and made one archdeaconry, and shall be called and known by the name of the Archdeaconry of Bristol; and that the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol for the time being shall and may appoint some fit and proper person to be archdeacon thereof; and that the said archdeaconry and the archdeacon thereof, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels within the limits thereof, and all rural deans, and the whole clergy, and others your Majesty's subjects within the same, shall be under and subject to the episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and control of the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol for the time being, as entirely and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as the archdeaconry and archdeacon of Gloucester are now subject to the episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and control of the said Bishop of Gloucester; provided that nothing herein contained shall affect any part of the parish of Bedminster.

And we further recommend and propose, that the right of appointing the archdeacons of both the said archdeaconries of Gloucester and Bristol, respectively, shall be vested in the said Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, and his successors bishops of Gloucester and Bristol for ever.

And whereas it is expedient that the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol for the time being should reside sometimes at or near to Bristol, as well as at Gloucester; and that for this purpose a second house of residence should be provided for the said bishop in some convenient situation at or near to the said city of Bristol, we further recommend and propose, that the site of the episcopal palace heretofore possessed and occupied by bishops of Bristol for the time being, but lately so much injured and impaired as to be wholly unfit for habitation, shall be forthwith sold under our direction, and shall and may be conveyed by the said Bishop of Gloucester and

Bristol to the purchaser thereof, and that the proceeds of such sale, together with such portion of the sum lately recovered as damages in an action for compensation for such injury, and the accumulations thereof, as shall remain, after payment of all proper expences incident thereto, shall be paid and transferred to us, for the purpose of being applied towards the purchase or erection, under our authority and direction, of a fit house of residence, to be situate as aforesaid; provided that such house, or the site whereupon any such house is proposed to be erected, shall be first submitted to and approved of by your Majesty in Council.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the said bishopric of Gloucester and Bristol, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, having taken the said scheme into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, hereby to approve thereof and to ratify the same; and it is hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, ordered and directed, that this Order shall be forthwith registered by the registrars of the dioceses of Gloucester and Bristol respectively in the registries of their respective dioceses; and that the said registrars do forthwith certify to His Majesty in Council, that they have complied with these commands; and it is hereby further ordered and directed, by and with the advice aforesaid, that this Order shall be forthwith inserted and published in the London Gazette, and that the same, together with the said scheme and every part thereof, shall have full and perfect effect from and immediately after such registration and insertion and publication as aforesaid.

C. C. Greville.

At the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of October 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," reciting, amongst other things, that His Majesty was pleased, on the fourth day of February, and on the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, to issue two several commissions to certain persons, therein respectively named, directing them to consider the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues, and the more equal distribution of episcopal duties, and the prevention of the necessity of attaching, by commendam, to bishoprics, benefices with cure of souls: and to consider also the state of the several cathedral and collegiate churches in England and Wales, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as might render them conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, and to devise the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with special reference to the residence of the clergy on their respective benefices; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had, in pursuance of such directions, made four several reports to His Majesty, bearing date respectively the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, the fourth day of March, the twentieth day of May, and the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six; and reciting, that the said Commissioners had in their said reports, amongst other things, recommended that commissioners should be appointed by Parliament for the purpose of preparing and laying before His Majesty in Council, such schemes as should appear to them to be best adapted for carrying into effect, amongst others, the following recommendations; and that His Majesty in Council should be empowered to make Orders ratifying such schemes and having the full force of law; and that two new sees should be erected in the province of York, one at Manchester, and the other at Ripon; and that the diocese of Ripon should consist of that part of the county of York which is now in the diocese of Chester, of the deanry of Craven, and of such parts of the deanries of the Ainsty and Pontefract, in the county and diocese of York, as lie to the westward of the following districts, viz. the liberty of the Ainsty, and the wapentakes of Barkston, Ash, Osgoldcross, and Staincross; and that all parishes which are locally situate in one diocese, but under the jurisdiction of the bishop of another diocese, should be made subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which they are locally situate; and that such variations should be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as might appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes or districts; and that the bishops of the two newly erected sees should be made bodies corporate, and be invested with all the same rights and privileges as are now possessed by the other bishops of England and Wales; and that they should be made subject to the metropolitan jurisdiction of the archbishop of York; and that the collegiate churches of Manchester and Ripon should be made the cathedrals, and that the chapters thereof should be the chapters of the respective sees of Manchester and Ripon, and should be invested with all the rights and powers of other cathedral chapters, and that the members of them, and of all other cathedral churches in England, should be styled Dean and Canons; and that none of the proposed alterations affecting the boundaries or jurisdiction of any diocese, or the patronage of benefices with cure of souls, or the revenues belonging to any see, the bishop of which was in possession on the fourth day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, should take effect until the avoidance of the see without the consent of such bishop; and that a new archdeaconry of Craven should be created, and that a district should be assigned to the same; and that the limits of the existing deanries and archdeaconries should be newly arranged, so that every parish and extra-parochial place should be within a rural deanry, and every deanry with an archdeaconry; and that no archdeaconry should extend beyond the limits of one diocese; and that all the archdeaconries of England and Wales should be in the gift of the bishops of the respective dioceses in which they are situate:

It is enacted, amongst other things, that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being, the Lord Archbishop of York, and the Lord Bishop of London for the time being, John Lord Bishop of Lincoln, James Henry Lord Bishop of Gloucester, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord High Treasurer or the First Lord of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, respectively, and such one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as should be for that purpose nominated by His Majesty under His royal sign manual (such Lord Chancellor, Lord President, Lord High Treasurer or First Lord of the Treasury, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Secretary of State being respectively members of the United Church of Great Britain and Ireland), the Right Honourable Dudley Earl of Harrowby, the Right Honourable Henry Hobhouse, and the Right Honourable Sir Herbert Jenner, Knt. should, for the purposes of this Act, be one body politic and corporate, by the name of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and by that name should have perpetual succession and a common seal:

And it is further enacted, that the said Commissioners should, from time to time, prepare and lay before His Majesty in Council such schemes as should appear to the said Commissioners to be best adapted for carrying into effect the theretofore recited recommendations, and should in such schemes recommend and propose such measures as might upon further enquiry, which the said Commissioners are thereby authorised to make, appear to them to be necessary for carrying such recommendations into full and perfect effect; provided always, that nothing therein contained should be construed to prevent the said Commissioners from proposing in any such scheme such modifications or variations, as to matters of detail and regulation, as should not be substantially repugnant to any or either of the said recommendations; and, in particular, that it should be competent to the said Commissioners to propose in any such scheme that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, should be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate:

And it is further enacted, that when any scheme, prepared under the authority of the said Act, should be approved by His Majesty in Council, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to issue an Order or Orders ratifying the same, and specifying the time or times when such scheme, or the several parts thereof, should take effect, and to direct in every such Order that the same should be registered by the registrar of each of the dioceses, the bishops whereof might or should be in any respect affected thereby; and in any newly created diocese by such person as should be for that purpose named in any Order, which person should, in such last mentioned diocese, become registrar there, and so continue as long as he should demean himself well in his office:

And it is further enacted, that every such Order should, as soon as may be after the making and issuing thereof by His Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette:

And it is further enacted, that, as soon as any such Order in Council should be so registered and gazetted, it should in all respects and as to all things therein contained have and be of the same force and effect as if all and every part thereof were included in the said Act, any law, statute, canon, letters patent, grant, usage, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas the said Commissioners, pursuant to the authority vested in them by the said Act, have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, appointed and incorporated by an Act of Parliament, passed in the present year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage," have, in pursuance thereof, prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for carrying into effect so much of the recommendations in the said Act contained, relating to the erection of two new sees, in the province of York, as it appears to us may be forthwith carried into effect.

Whereas by a scheme, bearing even date herewith, we have recommended and proposed that the sees of Gloucester and Bristol shall be united and become one see, and be held by one bishop, to be styled the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol whereby the number of the bishoprics in England and Wales will be reduced.

And whereas the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward Archbishop of York and the Right Reverend John Bird Bishop of Chester, respectively, have been obtained to such arrangements affecting their respective sees, as are necessary to the erection of the proposed new bishopric of Ripon, and as are set forth in this scheme, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme; we, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that the collegiate church of Ripon shall be forthwith constituted, and shall become and for ever hereafter be, a cathedral church and the seat of a bishop within the province of York; and that the present dean and prebendaries thereof shall from henceforth be called and styled Dean and Canons; and that the said dean and canons shall be the dean and chapter of the said church, and shall be subject to all such future orders and regulations as may be hereafter made by competent authority, touching the said cathedral church, or the said dean and chapter thereof.

And we further recommend and propose, that the town and borough of Ripon, and all such parts of the deanries of the Ainsty and of Pontefract, respectively, now forming part of the archdeaconry of York, otherwise called the archdeaconry of the west riding, in the county and present diocese of York, as adjoin to the western boundaries of the liberty of the Ainsty, and of the wapentakes of Barkston Ash, Osgoldcross, and Staincross, respectively, and all that part of the county of York which now forms part of the archdeaconry of Richmond and diocese of Chester; and the whole of the parish of Aldborough, in the said county of York, shall be forthwith absolutely separated and dis severed from the respective dioceses of York and Chester, and exempted and released from all episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the archbishop of York and the bishop of Chester, and of their successors archbishops of York and bishops of Chester respectively, and shall be made and constituted, and shall become and be for ever hereafter called and known by the name of, the Diocese of Ripon; and all episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and controul within and over the same, and every part thereof, shall belong to, and be exercised by, the bishop of Ripon, to be duly constituted as hereinafter provided, and to his successors bishops of Ripon.

And we further recommend and propose, that such person as shall be duly elected by the said dean and chapter, in pursuance of a warrant from your Majesty in that behalf, and shall be duly confirmed and consecrated according to law, shall become bishop of the see and diocese of Ripon, and that the said bishop, and his successors bishops of Ripon, shall be invested with all the same and the like rights, privileges, dignities, power, jurisdiction, and authority as have heretofore been and now are possessed by the respective bishops of England and Wales, and shall be subject to the metropolitan jurisdiction of the Archbishop of York, for the time being, as entirely and effectually to all intents and purposes as the other bishops within the province of York now are.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said Bishop of Ripon and his successors shall be one body corporate, by the name of the Bishop of Ripon, and by that name shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and that he and his successors shall and may by that name sue and be sued, and shall have power and authority to take and hold all lands, tithes, advowsons, tenements and hereditaments, whatsoever and wheresoever, which may be given or granted to him or them by your Majesty, your heirs, and successors, or by any other person or persons whatsoever, and may give or grant the same, and make leases, and enjoy and do all other rights and acts in respect of the same in as full and perfect a manner as other bishops of England and Wales, but no otherwise.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said collegiate church shall become, and shall for ever hereafter be, the cathedral church of the said bishop and of his successors bishops of Ripon, and shall be invested with all the honours, dignities, and privileges of an episcopal seat; and that the said bishop of Ripon and his successors for ever shall enjoy and exercise the like episcopal pre-eminence, jurisdiction, power, and authority within and over the said cathedral church and the aforesaid diocese of Ripon in as full and ample a manner as other bishops of England and Wales within and over their respective dioceses and the cathedral churches thereof, and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Archbishop of York and his successors; and that the Bishop and the said dean and chapter of Ripon, and all archdeacons, and the whole clergy, and others your Majesty's subjects within the said diocese of Ripon, shall own obedience to the said Archbishop of York as their metropolitan.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said bishop of Ripon and his successors bishops of Ripon, and the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Ripon, and their successors shall have full power and authority to do all acts and deeds, whether jointly or severally as the case may be, within the said diocese of Ripon, in like manner and as fully and effectually as any other bishop, and the dean and chapter of any other cathedral church may now do, either jointly or severally as the case may be, within the province of York.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said diocese of Ripon shall be divided into two archdeaconries, to be called the Archdeaconry of Richmond, and the Archdeaconry of Craven, and that the archdeaconry of Richmond, in the diocese of Ripon, shall consist of the deaneries of Richmond, Catterick, and Boroughbridge, and so much of the deanry of Kirkby Lonsdale as is in the county of York; and that the archdeaconry of Craven shall consist of the deaneries of Pontefract and Craven; and that the archdeacon of York, otherwise called the archdeacon of the west riding, in the diocese of York, shall be discharged from all jurisdiction over those parts of his present archdeaconry, which will be within the diocese of Ripon; and that the said bishop of Ripon shall forthwith appoint some fit and proper person to be the archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Craven; and that the right of appointing the archdeacons of the said archdeaconries respectively shall be vested in the bishop of Ripon and his successors for ever; and that both the said archdeaconries, and the archdeacons thereof for the time being, shall be under and subject to the episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the bishop of Ripon for the time being, as entirely and effectually to all intents and purposes, as the archdeaconries of the east riding, and of Cleveland, and the archdeacons thereof, are now subject to the episcopal jurisdiction, authority, and controul of the archbishop of York.

And we further recommend and propose, that the said deanry of Pontefract, in the said archdeaconry of Craven, shall consist of all those parishes and places now within the respective deaneries of Pontefract and the Ainsty, which will be within the said diocese of Ripon; provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any such plan as, upon further enquiry and consideration, shall appear to us to be expedient for newly arranging the limits of the existing deaneries within the said archdeaconries respectively.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the said bishopric of Ripon, and the endowment thereof, in conformity to the provisions of the said Act.

All which we humbly recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

Now, therefore, His Majesty having taken the said scheme into consideration is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, hereby to approve thereof, and to ratify the same, and it is hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, ordered and directed that this Order shall be forthwith registered by the registrars of the dioceses of York and Chester, respectively, in the registries of their respective dioceses, and also by John Burder, of Parliament-street, Gent. in a book, to be by him provided and kept for the purpose, and which shall from thenceforth become and be the registry of the diocese of Ripon, and that the said registrars, and the said John Burder, do forthwith respectively certify to His Majesty in Council, that they have complied with these commands; and it is further ordered and directed, by and with the advice aforesaid, that this Order shall be forthwith inserted and published in the London Gazette, and that the same, together with the said scheme and every part thereof, shall have full and perfect effect from and immediately after such registration and insertion and publication as aforesaid.

due to the estate of the said Bankrupts, and otherwise winding up their affairs, and to their paying and allowing to the said Bankrupts, and to the said accountant and accountants, or such other person and persons as aforesaid, such sums for their respective services as the said Assignee or Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee or Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, and filing or answering any petition or petitions to the Court of Bankruptcy in relation thereto; and also to the said Assignee or Assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting, agreeing, settling, and arranging any debt, matter, or thing whatsoever relating to the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignee or Assignees to act for the benefit and protection of the said estate, in such manner and form, and as he or they shall from time to time think expedient or proper; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Frankland, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Merchant, Broker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 9th day of November next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Mr. Thomas Davenport, Solicitor, Commerce-Court, Lord-Street, in Liverpool aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling the Bankrupt's household furniture and effects, or any part or parts thereof, either by public auction or private contract, or at a valuation, and taking such security for the payment thereof as he may think expedient; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee employing some person or persons to collect, get in, wind up, settle, and adjust the books and accounts of the said Bankrupt, either individually or jointly with John Wright, late a Copartner of the said Bankrupt, and to make such person or persons a compensation for so doing; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or taking such other steps as to him shall seem expedient, for the recovery and getting in all or any part or parts of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and to his submitting to arbitration any disputes or differences touching or relating to the same, either with the said John Wright or with any other person or persons; and to compound with any person or persons debtors to the estate, when the same shall be necessary and expedient, for such reasonable sum or sums of money as can or may be had or gotten for the same, and in full discharge of such debts; and generally to authorise the said Assignee to act in the said Bankrupt's estate and effects in such manner as he may think most expedient and advisable; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Welch and John Sells, both of New Islington, in Ancoats, in the Township of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Cotton-Spinners and Manufacturers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners, trading under the firm of Welch and Sells, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Thursday the 10th day of November next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Atkinson, Birch, and Saunders, Solicitors, 3, Norfolk-Street, Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly private contract, or at a valuation or otherwise, to any person or persons whomsoever, as to the said Assignees shall seem most beneficial and advantageous to the Bankrupt's estate, all and every the freehold cotton-mills, cottages, buildings, and premises of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, and also the steam engines, boilers, mill gearing, machinery, millwright work, household goods and furniture, stock in hand and in process of manufacture, letters patent granted to the said Bankrupts, or one of them, for a new method of taking up for power and hand looms, and all other the real and personal estate, goods, chattels, and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, and either in one or more lot or lots, and at one time or at several times, and either wholly or partly for ready money or for payment on a future day or days, with or without taking any security of any kind whatsoever for the payment of the purchase money, or any part thereof, as to the said Assignees shall seem proper; also to assent to or dissent from the Assignees from time to time, when and as they shall think fit so to do, at the entire risk of the said Bankrupts' estate, and without being called upon or liable to make good any depreciation or diminution in price or value which may occur, buying in and reselling, in manner, and upon the terms, and with the like authorities as aforesaid, all or any part of the real and personal estate, property, goods, machinery, and effects of the said Bankrupts, or either of them, which may be offered for sale as aforesaid, in case they shall think it advisable so to do; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees declining to accept, and abandoning and giving up to the lessors, the lease of a cotton mill or factory and premises, held by the said Bankrupts, either with or without receiving or obtaining any compensation or consideration for so doing, or upon such terms as the Assignees may think proper; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the Bankrupts' estate, certain costs, charges, and expences, to be stated at the meeting, incurred previous to and after the issuing of the said Fiat, respecting the said Bankrupts' estate; and to the Assignees ratifying, confirming, and allowing the acts and proceedings of the provisional Assignee in continuing to work the cotton mills and machinery of the said Bankrupts up to the choice of Assignees, for the purpose of completing the stock in process of manufacture at the opening of the Fiat; and also to sanction, allow, and confirm the acts and proceedings of the Assignees in continuing the working of the said mills and machinery since their appointment, for the purpose of completing the stock in process of manufacture at the time of such appointment; and to the Assignees paying for the cotton and other materials used by them and the provisional Assignee, or by or under their directions, in and about such working, and also the wages of the workpeople employed therein, and all other charges and expences attendant thereon, or relating thereto, out of the Bankrupts' estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the said Bankrupts' estate, for the cotton and other articles and materials supplied by several of the Creditors for the purpose of continuing the working of the cotton mills and machinery of the said Bankrupts, and moneys advanced to pay the wages of the workpeople employed for the purpose, from the time of the said Bankrupts stopping payment up to the opening of the said Fiat, and the appointment of a provisional Assignee thereunder; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking, commencing, and prosecuting a suit or suits in equity, or an action or actions at law, against any person or persons whomsoever now known, or who may hereafter be discovered, to be infringing the said letters patent granted to the said Bankrupts, or one of them, for the purpose of recovering compensation for such infringements respectively, or to settle, arrange, and agree with any such infringers for such infringements, and the future use of the patent invention, and from time to time to grant licences for the use thereof to any person or persons whomsoever, upon such terms and conditions as to the said Assignees shall seem most advantageous to the Bankrupts' estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking all proper and necessary steps and proceedings for investigating certain alleged debts, to a large amount, claimed to be owing from the said Bankrupts to certain persons, who will be named at such meeting, and opposing the proof of such debts, or either of them, under the said Fiat, and, in case of such debts, or either of them, being admitted, to the said Assignees presenting petitions or a petition to the Court of Review, or taking such other proceedings as the Assignees may be advised, for the purpose of having such debts, or either of them, expunged and disallowed, and to the Assignees paying and discharging the costs, charges, and expences attendant upon such investigation and proceedings, out of the said Bankrupts' estate; and to the said Assignees settling, arranging, and agreeing with the parties claiming such debts, or either of them, by consenting to such parties, or either of them, proving a portion of such alleged debts respectively under the said Fiat, on their respectively abandoning and releasing the remainder of such alleged debts, or upon such other terms and conditions as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the said Bankrupts' estate, the accountant and agent employed by them and the provisional Assignee to superintend and manage the cotton mills and machinery, and the working thereof, and selling and disposing of the manufactured goods and effects of the said Bankrupts, such allowance, commission, and remuneration for their time, trouble, and services, respectively, as the said Assignees may think just and reasonable; and to the said Assignees continuing the employment of such accountant to investigate and manage the accounts and estate of the said Bankrupts, and the agent to sell and dispose of the manufactured goods, and paying them respectively for their services, out of the said Bankrupts' estate as aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging, out of the said Bankrupts' estate, the mortgage upon the cotton mills and premises belonging to the said Bankrupts, and taking an assignment or reconveyance of such mortgage to themselves for the benefit of the Creditors; and to the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting an action-at law against certain persons, to be named at such meeting, for the recovery of certain goods in their hands belonging to, or forming part of, the said Bankrupts' estate; and to the Assignees settling, arranging, and agreeing with such persons, and any persons claiming liens upon any part or parts of the said Bankrupts' property, goods, estate, and effects, upon such terms and conditions as the said Assignees may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking, commencing, and prosecuting, defending, or opposing any proceedings at law, in equity, or Bankruptcy, in respect of any part of the said Bankrupts' estate, as they may think proper or be advised, for the protection, recovery, or getting in the same, or any part thereof; and to refer to arbitration, compromise, determine, and agree any dispute, claim, or demand whatsoever which may arise or exist between the said Assignees and any other person or persons whomsoever in respect of the same, or any part thereof; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 17th day of October 1836, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

TAKE NOTICE.

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.

2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom the Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court, in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N.B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street, Lincoln's-inn-fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 61, sec. 4, c. 11, as the case may be.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of William Elson, now or late of Sittingbourne, in the County of Kent, Dredgerman, an Insolvent Debtor, who was lately discharged from His Majesty's Gaol of Maidstone, in the County of Kent, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will be held on Wednesday the 2d day of November next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the House of John and Joseph Seaton Tribe, known by the name or sign of the Mitre Inn, or Clarence Hotel, situate at Chatham, in the said County of Kent, to approve and direct in what manner, and at what place or places, the real estate of the said Insolvent shall be sold by public auction.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of Thomas Norris, formerly of Heskin, near Wigan, in the County of Lancaster, Husbandman, and late of Wrightington, near Wigan aforesaid, Farmer, an Insolvent Debtor, whose petition is numbered 40,760, has caused his account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee at the Office of Mr. Ralph Leigh, Attorney at Law, in Wigan aforesaid, on the 25th of November next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the said Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

All Letters must be post paid.
