Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1836.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th day of October 1836,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies; for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" after reciting, that it was necessary that provision should be made for the apportionment, amongst the proprietors of the slaves to be manumitted by virtue of the said Act, in each of the said colonies respectively, of that part of the said compensation fund which should be so assigned, as in the said Act is therein before recited, to each of the respective colonies; it was, amongst other things, enacted, that any person having, or claiming to have, any right, title, or interest in or to any mortgage, judgement, charge, incumbrance, or other lien upon any slave or slaves to be manumitted under the said Act, might prefer such claims before the said Commissioners:

And it was further enacted, that the said Commissioners should proceed in the manner to be prescribed by any general rules to be framed in manner particularly mentioned, to enquire into, and adjudicate upon, any such claims as might be so preferred to them, and should upon each such claim make their adjudication and award, in such manner and form as should be prescribed by any such general rules; and if any person interested in, or affected by, any such adjudication or award should be dissatisfied therewith, it should be lawful for such person to appeal therefrom to His Majesty in Council, and notice of any such appeal should be served upon the said Commissioners:

And it should be competent to His Majesty in Council to make and establish all such rules and regulations as to His Majesty should seem meet, respecting the time and manner of preferring and proceeding upon such appeals, and respecting the course to be observed in defending the same; which rules should be so framed as to promote, as far as might be consistent with justice, all practicable economy and dispatch in the proceeding until the decision thereof:

And it was further enacted, that the several adjudications and awards of the said Commissioners, unless duly appealed from within the respective times to be limited by His Majesty in Council for that purpose, should be final and conclusive and binding upon all persons interested therein, or affected thereby; and that the decisions of His Majesty in Council upon any such appeal should, in like manner, be final, binding, and conclusive:

And whereas His Majesty hath this day taken into consideration the propriety of making and establishing certain rules and regulations, for limiting the time within which appeals shall be preferred to His Majesty in Council from any adjudication or award of the said Commissioners:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in execution of the power in His Majesty in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that whenever it shall happen that any person interested in, or affected by, any adjudication or award of the said Commissioners, shall be dissatisfied therewith and shall be desirous to appeal therefrom to His Majesty in Council, then and in every such case, such person or persons shall duly lodge a petition of appeal, within fourteen days from the date of such adjudication or award, and shall forthwith serve a notice of such appeal upon the said Commissioners, by leaving the same at the office of the said Commissioners, and that no appeal from any adjudication or award of the said Commissioners shall be received, nor the proceedings under such adjudication or award be in any way suspended, unless such petition of appeal shall be so lodged, and notice thereof be so served on the said Commissioners, within the said period of fourteen days from the date of such adjudication or award as herein-before mentioned.

Admiralty, Somerset-Place;

HALF-PAY AND RETIRED-PAY TO NAVAL OFFICERS AND OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL MARINES.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the receipt in the Wages Department at the Admiralty-office, Somerset-place, of the declaration or certificate of identity required from each Officer by His Majesty's Orders in Council, a bill for the amount of the half-pay or retired-pay due will be made out in this Department, which will be payable by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, on the following days, viz.

On the 10th and 11th of October next, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

On the 12th, 13th, and 14th of October, to Lieutenants at 5s. a day and under, and their Attorneys.

On the 15th and 17th of October, to Lieutenants at 7s. and 6s. a day, and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 19th, 20th, and 21st of October, to Admirals, Lieutenant-Generals, Major-Generals, Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, Commanders, and Retired Commanders, and their Attorneys.

Great inconvenience having been experienced by the claims of Officers, who have not chosen to receive their half-pay or retired-pay on the days fixed for their rank, being brought forward on the days appointed for the payment of half-pay and retired-pay to Officers of different ranks; notice is hereby given, that no such claims can in future be attended to on the days not appointed for Officers of those ranks; but for the accommodation of such Officers, and also for the convenience of those who may not have transmitted their declarations or certificates sufficiently early to admit of payment on the above-mentioned days, a recall will take place on the 24th and 25th of October.

After which the half-pay and retired-pay will be payable on the first and third Wednesday in every month, excepting during the general payment.

Officers residing in or near London, and wishing to receive their half-pay or retired-pay in person, are requested to deliver their declarations or certificates into the Wages-office at the Admiralty, Somerset-place, or transmit them to the Secretary of the Admiralty, immediately on the expiration of each quarter; and those employing agents are also requested to furnish their agents with their declarations or certificates with the same dispatch, for unless such documents are delivered into this Office early, delay in the payment must unavoidably ensue.

As it sometimes happens that Officers apply personally for their half-pay or retired-pay, without having previously sent in their declarations or certificates as required by the usual advertisement, any delay or inconvenience to which they might be subject by this oversight, it is in the power of the Officers themselves to prevent, by an adherence to the existing regulations.

Under the authority of the Statutes relating to the pay of the Navy, besides the above-mentioned modes, Officers may receive their half-pay or retired-pay in any of the following ways, viz.

- 1st. By drawing a bill for the amount, in which case they are to give notice thereof, by letter, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked, in the corner, "Half-pay, or Retired-pay, Accountant-General," and thereupon a proper form of a bill of exchange will be sent to them.
- 2d. By a remittance bill, or permanent remittance bill, payable to them at or in the neighbourhood of their residence, by the Collector of Customs or Excise.
- 3d. By extract, at a Dock-yard, where there is an establishment of Pay Clerks.

In either of which two latter cases, they must give a like notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty, marked in the same manner, and a remittance bill, or extract, will thereupon be made out and transmitted to them.

In all cases, the Officer signifying his desire of payment is to state at the foot of his letter, his Christian and surnames, his rank, and a full description of his residence.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act of 11 Geo. 4, cap. 20, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

LEMUEL WELLMAN WRIGHT'S PATENT FOR CERTAIN COMBINATIONS OF, AND IMPROVEMENTS IN, MACHINERY FOR MAKING PINS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for confirming and prolonging the term of certain letters patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, for certain combinations of, and improvements in, machinery for making pins, bearing date the 15th day of May 1824; which said letters patent were granted by His late Majesty King George the Fourth to Lemuel Wellman Wright, then of Wellclose-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. for the term of fourteen years from the date thereof; and for granting certain other privileges in relation to the said letters patent.—Dated this 17th day of October 1836.

Henry Morgan Vane, Solicitor, Carlton-chambers, 12, Regent-street.

London, Tilbury, and Gravesend Railway, via the Thames Haven Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a railway, to be called the London, Tilbury, and Gravesend Railway, to commence on the north side of the River Thames, at or near the Ferry at Tilbury-fort, in the parish of West Tilbury and Chadwell, or one of them, in the county of Essex, and to terminate and connect with the Thames Haven Railway, at or near the road leading from South Ockendon to North Ockendon, in the said county of Essex; and for making or purchasing a ferry at the commencement of the said railway, near Tilbury-fort aforesaid; and also to make and maintain all bridges, culverts, viaducts, tunnels, archways, embankments, buildings, stations, wharfs, docks, quays, roads, and other works, material or necessary to the said railway, or for the more complete use and enjoyment thereof respectively; and which said railway is intended to be made from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and places following, that is to say, West Tilbury, East Tilbury, Little Thurrock, Gray's Thurrock, Stifford, Orsett, and South Ockendon, all in the county of Essex.

And it is also intended to apply for powers to be granted by the said Bill to authorise the taking of such fares, tolls, dues, rates, and sums of money as shall be mentioned in the said Bill; and for purchasing and holding lands, tenements, and hereditaments within the said several parishes, townships, and places, or elsewhere, for the purposes aforesaid.

Wasey Sterry, Solicitor for the Bill, Romford, Essex.

W. Laxton, Engineer, 11, Parliament-street.

Great Wheal Prosper Tin Mining and China Clay Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a call of ten shillings a share, on every share held by each Proprietor in this Company, has been made by the Directors, and that the same is required to be paid, on or before the 30th day of November next, into the Union Bank of Liverpool, or to Messrs. Hodge and Norman, Bankers, Devonport, pursuant to the following rules and regulations of the said Company.

No. 32. That, in addition to payments, amounting to one pound per share, by each Member already paid, the Board of Direction shall have full power to require and call for the further payment, by each Member, of the sum of three pounds on every share held by him by instalments, at such times, giving thirty days notice, by advertisement, of each call, as they shall think fit, no such one instalment to exceed the sum of ten shillings per share, or to be made after the first call at a less distance than six calendar months from each other, provided that notice be given, by advertisement as aforesaid, of every such call, expressing the time and place when and where the payment is required to be made, and stating the substance of the provision relating to the forfeiture of shares by the nonpayment of calls, one calendar month at least before the payment of the same. And the Directors shall have full power, if they shall think fit, to enforce the forfeiture of shares held by such person so neglecting or refusing to pay such call, or to allow such reasonable time for the payment thereof to such person or persons, charging them interest, after the rate of five pounds per cent. per annum for the same, or to adopt either of such proceedings at their discretion.

No. 33. That on the refusal or neglect of any Member, or the personal representatives of any Member, to pay any call or instalment made or called for in pursuance of these presents, with interest thereon (if required), within fifteen days next after the day appointed by the Directors for the payment of same call, it shall be lawful for the Directors to declare that the shares of the Member or Members who, or whose representatives shall so refuse or neglect as aforesaid, and all benefit and advantage whatsoever of or incident to the same shall henceforth be forfeited to the remaining Members of the Company, and the same shall be forfeited accordingly.

By order of the Directors,
Miller and Peel, Solicitors of the Company.

WHEREAS by an indenture or deed of Partnership, dated the 27th day of January 1836, and made between the undersigned William Blunt Fosbrooke, of Loughborough, in the County of Leicester, Attorney and Solicitor, of the one part; and the undersigned Joseph Parker, late of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland, but now of Loughborough aforesaid, Attorney at Law, of the other part; a power is given to either of the said parties to dissolve and determine the Partnership thereby created, upon the happening of certain events in the said indenture particularly mentioned; and there is also contained a clause therein that, in case either of the said parties should, by virtue of the powers thereby vested in him, dissolve and determine the said Partnership, it should be lawful for him, as the legal authorised Attorney of the other of them, to sign and use the name of the other of the said parties in or to any notice or notices of such dissolution, or relating thereto, to be inserted in the London Gazette or any other public newspaper or newspapers; now, I, the undersigned, Joseph Parker, do hereby give notice, that the said William Blunt Fosbrooke has, contrary to the stipulations contained in the said indenture, done, and omitted to do, certain things in the said indenture particularly mentioned, whereby the power of dissolving the said Partnership has become and is now vested in me the undersigned Joseph Parker, and, in pursuance of such authority and power, I, the said Joseph Parker, do hereby dissolve, determine, and put an end to the said Partnership from the 15th day of October instant.

J. Parker.
W. B. Fosbrooke,
by J. Parker, his Attorney, authorised for this purpose by the aforesaid indenture.

WHEREAS George Pollitt, late of Heaton Norris, in the County of Lancaster, Yeoman, deceased, by his will, dated the 29th day of April 1807, gave, devised, and bequeathed all his leasehold messuages or dwelling-houses, land, hereditaments, and premises, situate, standing, and being in Heaton Norris aforesaid, and all other his real and personal estate, whatsoever and wheresoever, unto his wife Nancy Pollitt for her life; and, after her death (which lately happened), he gave, devised, and bequeathed the same unto Henry Cantrill and Samuel Preston, upon trust, to sell and dispose of the same as therein mentioned, and the money arising from such sale he disposed of in manner following: that is to say, he gave one fourth part thereof unto Matthew, John, Alice, Nancy, Hannah, Mary, Elizabeth, James, and George, the children of his brother James Pollitt; one other fourth part he gave and bequeathed to Martha, Mary, George, and Hannah; the children of his brother Jonathan Pollitt; one other fourth part thereof he gave and bequeathed unto his brother-in-law William Rayner; and the remaining fourth part thereof he gave and bequeathed to the children of his brother-in-law Robert Hyde, of Ireland, to be equally divided amongst them, share and share alike; and the said testator thereby provided and declared that in case any of his legatees before named should omit or neglect to claim his, her, or their share or shares from his said Trustees, within six months after the receipt of the purchase money by his said Trustees, then and in such case he ordered and directed his said Trustees to divide such share or shares amongst such of his legatees who should claim within the time aforesaid, share and share alike; and whereas the said Trustees, in pursuance of the directions contained in the said will, have sold the said premises and are in receipt of the purchase money arising from such sale; now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that in case any of the legatees before named shall omit or neglect to claim his, her, or their share or shares from the said Trustees of the will of the said George Pollitt, within six months from the date hereof, the said Trustees will divide such share or shares amongst such of the said legatees who shall claim within the time aforesaid, share and share alike.—Dated this 20th day of October 1836.

WINTERBOTTOM and WRIGHT, Solicitors to the said Henry Cantrill and Samuel Preston.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Smith v. Pledger, with the approbation of the Master of the said Court in attendance during the vacation, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Monday the 31st day of October 1836, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely;
